

the north side of Carubden Street that lays opposite the Hanover Market were received from the Second Branch passed The Petition of John Bond was read and referred to Messrs. Miller Shaw and Montpel.

On motion resolved that the Register be and is hereby requested to furnish this branch with a report of the probable amount of monies which may be necessary for the services of the City for the present year as also the amount of the appro-priations which have not been ex-pended under existing provisions
The following Message was transmitted to the Second Branch.

Gentlemen of the Second Branch, We agree to all the amendments proposed to the ^{Supplement to the} ordi-nance for sinking of wells and erecting and repairing pumps except that a -mendment altering the salary of the Superintendants to which we cannot concur.

In answer to which the following message was received from the Second Branch

Gentlemen of the First Branch

We have received from the amendment to the bill entitled a Sup-plement to the ordinance entitled an ordinance for regulating the sinking of wells and erecting and repairing pumps in which the first Branch did not concur
-4 March 1803.
By order
J. Coale Clk

The Committee on the Petition of James Biays & others reported an ordinance to regulate the anchorage of ketches in the harbor of Baltimore, which was read a first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The ordinance for the inspection of butter & lard within the City of Baltimore was returned by the Second Branch not passed to regulate An ordinance ~~for~~ the inspection of butter in the City of Baltimore was received from the Second Branch read a first time and ordered to lie on the table.

The ordinance to repair the Canal on the north east sides of Old Town was re-turned by the Second Branch passed.