Mr. Woods offered the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

Resolved by the First Branch of the City Council, that the salary of the assistant clerk of this Branch be fixed at five dollars per day during the special and annual sessions of the present Council, all other resolutions to the contrary notwithstanding.

The following message was received and read:

In Second Branch, Balto, Oct. 2d, 1855.

Gentlemen of the First Branch:

We respectfully concur in the proposition to appoint a committee of conference on the resolution relative to the sale of the new stalls in Lexington market, and name as said committee on the part of this Branch, Messrs. Welsh, Beale and Gilbert.

By order,

Allen E. Forrester, clerk

The following resolutions were returned from the Second Branch, severally endorsed "concurred in," viz:

Resolutions in favor of Joshua Thompness, Geo. W. Showacre, James T. Hudson, Buckler Jones, Wm. H. Tarr, Benjamin Brown, and Geo. Mai; resolution to provide temporary sheds at the Lexington market house; resolution to tunnel Shields alley; resolution declaring it inexpedient to erect a fire plug at the corner of Paca street and Napoleon alley; resolution to have obstructions removed from McElderry's dock; Resolution to authorize repairs of Charles street bridge.

The following message was received and read:

In Second Branch, Balto, Oct. 2, 1855.

Gentlemen of the First Branch:

We respectfully concur in the proposition to appoint a committee to wait on the Mayor, and name as said committee on the part of this Branch, Messrs. Beale, Wintze and Crowley.

By order,

Allen E. Forrester, clerk.

The Second Branch returned bill No. 127, an ordinance to condemn and open Shields alley, endorsed "passed."

Mr. Suter, chairman of the joint-committee to wait on the Mayor, reported that the committee had performed that duty, and the Mayor had no further communication to make to the Council.

Bill No. 129, an ordinance to widen Hoffman street, from Ross to Division streets, was taken up, read and passed, by the following vote, the yeas and nays being required by Mr. Krafft:

Yeas—Messrs. President, Mullen, J. H. Boyd, Suter, F. H. B. Boyd, Cox, Thompson, Quail, Counselman, Regester, Pyle, Lepson, Woods, Nicholl—14.

Nays—Messrs. France, Crawford, Harker, Krafft, Wright, White—6.

The following message was received and read:

In Second Branch, Baltimore, Oct. 2d, 1855.

Gentlemen of the First Branch:

We respectfully ask your concurrence in a suspension of the resolution relative to adjourning the Council sine die this evening and propose, with your concurrence, that when the Council adjourns, it stand adjourned until next Monday afternoon, October 8, 1855.

By order,

Allen E. Forrester, clerk.

Mr. Wright moved that the proposition contained in the message be nonconcurred in, which was determined in the negative by the following vote, the yeas and nays being required Mr. Mullen:

Yea—Messrs. France, Mullen, F. W. B. Boyd, Crawford, Harker, Cox, Wright, Counselman—8.

Nays—Messrs. President, J. H. Boyd, Suter, Krafft, Thompson, Quail, Regester, White, Pyle, Lepson, Woods, Nicholl—12.

On motion of Mr. Suter, the Branch adjourned until Monday afternoon next, at 5 o'clock.

By order, Columbus Piazza, clerk.