Woodcorders of that brought by Water as their Circumstances and Situations have Materially Changed since the passage of the Ordinances on that Subject —

The Ordinance to regulate the Sinking of Wells and Erecting and repairing Pumps does not give General Satisfaction and its difficult to get Gentlemen in the different Wards to undertake the Superintendance thereof whether any other System can be devised that will answer the purpose better is with you to determine

The Future prohibition of Hogs being kept in any part of the City from the first day of April to the first day of November Every year is Severely felt by many Poor People in the out Skirts of the City who are in the Habit of Raising their Pork in pens with very Little Expence, Some are of opinion that where pens are taken to keep Hogs in proper order, that the offals given to the Hogs removes More Nuisances than are Created by the Styes —

Several of the Original Town Plots on which all the Lots to the city property depend were so torn and defaced by this very frequent Examination that it became indispensably necessary to have them Copied and the whole made into An Atlas in order to preserve them from total destruction I therefore employed an Artist to perform this Service under the superintendance of the Register and am pleased did you will approve of the Expence — . —

About the commencement of the present year the Citizens were much alarmed at the accounts of Incendiarism in Several of the Cities and Towns in the United States and requested me to increase the Number of Watchmen for Guarding the City more effectually against fires and other Incidents during the present Winter which I have done at an additional Expence of four hundred and Eighty Dollars p^r. Month until the Meeting of the Council you will therefore please to take up this Subject and Either agree to Continue this additional Expence during the remainder of the Winter & return to the usual Establishment of the Watch as may judge most advisable —

By the act of Incorporation we are authorised to regulate and fix the assize of Bread on this Subject there are a Diversity of Sentiment in the Citizens respecting the propriety of affixing prices to the articles of bread more than to the other Articles but all seem to agree in the propriety of obliging the Bakers to Sell their Bread by Weight so that the purchaser may know how much he gets for his Money

The Register has carefully prepared a Complete Collection of all the Ordinances now in force which have been passed since our first Incorporation with Marginal and Explanatory Notes Table of Contents Index &c & has had five hundred Copies printed and bound, you will therefore
