cents. Police and fire-alarm telegraph, one thousand dollars. Lot for engine house, six thousand dollars. Fire-alarm boxes on Twenty-fourth street and Cedar avenue, three hundred and fifty dollars.

General Expenditures.

Diary of City Council, sixty-two thousand dollars. General expenses, two thousand dollars. Care of City and Circuit Court building, three thousand eight hundred and forty-nine dollars. Care Circuit Court No. 2 building, nine hundred and forty-one dollars. Care of Criminal Court and Record building, six thousand six hundred and nineteen dollars. Salaries, seventy-seven thousand seven hundred and nineteen dollars and fifty-six cents. City Library, nine thousand eight hundred dollars. Public printing, fifteen hundred dollars. Interest on temporary loans and discount on taxes, seventy thousand dollars. Superintendent of City Hall, seventeen thousand four hundred and twentyfive dollars. Mayoralty, twenty-eight hundred dollars. Transportation to House of Correction, four hundred dollars. Ground rents on City property, forty-four thousand five hundred and five dollars and ninety-four cents. City Collector, salaries and expenses, sixty thousand four hundred and fifty dollars. Appeal Tax Court, incidentals, four hundred dollars. Commissioners for Opening Streets, two hundred dollars. Elections, nineteen thousand dollars. Dog pound, one thousand dollars. Supervisors of Elections, thirteen thousand four hundred dollars. Liquor License

Commission, sixteen thousand dollars. Winding Maryland Institute clock, seventy-five dollars. General licenses, two thousand dollars. Sprinkling Mount Royal avenue and Calvert street, nine hundred dollars. Ice-boat "Annapolis," ten thousand dollars. Assistant to Examiner of Titles, one thousand dollars. State tax on City loans, thirty thousand dollars. Rent of Circuit Court No. 2, nine hundred dollars. Fire-plugs at Carroll, two hundred and fifty dollars. Monument to Maryland Patriots of the American Revolution, twenty-five hundred dollars. Investigation of the Western Maryland Railroad Company, forty-five hundred dollars. Fireplug on Wilkens avenue, seventy-five dollars. Drinking fountain at Wilkens avenue and Bentalou street, seventy-five dollars. Drinking fountain on Davis street, seventy-five dollars. Portrait of Enoch Pratt, five hundred dollars. Hose for the markets, eight hundred dollars. In favor of Eva Seeburger, thirty dollars and seventy cents. In favor of Wm. P. Tonry, five hundred dollars. In favor of Walter F. Welsh, one hundred and eighty-nine dollars and three cents. Music in the parks, thirty-nine hundred dollars. Maryland Institute School of Design, nine thousand dollars. Inspector of gas, oils, etc., three hundred and seventy-five dollars. Drinking fountain Fayette and Amity streets, seventy-five dollars Drinking fountain Thames and Bond streets, seventy-five dollars. Fire-plugs in various places, three hundred dollars. Drinking fountain on Linden avenue, seventy-five dollars. Veteran Volunteer Firemen's