Dear Sir,

Fredk May 5th 1787.

479

Yesterday I received your favor of the 11th of April. By the time the General Court rises I hope to remit you the Interest due on my bond & I am truly concerned that it hath not hitherto been in my power to remit the Principal. The strongest inclination shall add great exertions to make you a more satisfactory payment & will gladly discharge your whole ~~payment~~ claim if you will be pleased to draw for it. With which I am with grateful esteem for your indulgence, Dear Sir, your most obed. & very hble Servt

Thos. S. Lee
