

every precaution was necessary to escape from the dangerous consequences of being so long exposed, by Posturing Religious Aids perspiration as speedily as possible - & the most effectual mode certainly was to bath the feet, drink freely of Milk ^{or Wine} & whey, & retire speedily to a warm bed -

I deplore Mr. Kersey's Loss & truly lament that you did not stay a day longer with me or leave me a day sooner - Your Horse became restless from Bernard's relaxing their discipline - It was unfortunate that you did not make the best of the bad Tavern at Ryats Town - you might have escaped most of the danger which you encountered - Will Miller your Landlord must have been very careless, in supplying the Horses which broke your Carriage - I hope the Watch will be recovered there is every reason to expect that M. does his duty in having a strict Search & Inquiries made after it -

After you left ^{me} I lost my Appetite, with my Spirits - I found some relief from the Rev. Malave who stayed with me from Saturday till Wednesday last I have availed myself of the bad weather to finish the "Beauties of Christianity" - I must in truth & sincerity acknowledge that I never before was sensible of its blessed effects. upon Kings & Men, & all that belong to them - How truly delightful is the Author into the Charac-

Monsters of An-
The world mucthan to any other
Mr. Malave's
The History of a Searching over my miss all of you but Ellen - tell her I weather, my droop-
me to leave home
many thanks to Mr Cutler & to Archy & wishes to Mr. Kersey Mr. very affect

Let me hear from you as as you can spare time to mention the Articles of demand & the prices the our apples are ready & What is become