My Dearest -

1733

The books shall be treated as you direct. I saw a man from Herculesburgh today, from whom I bought some corn - and had a conversation regarding you. He says he thinks he can buy me 500 lbs. I offered him 25 cents. He would not say, where it was: but I gathered from him, that it was to be had at McConnell's by If I can buy, I will arrange the money part. My friend G. K. K. K. remitted $700. Brookes' bill was all right, and an obligation. I saw your team was up. I sold the 2 books - one to my friend Mark Berry & the other a New York. I can sell more my self of that the material. I was easy - I think I can make you 30 or 40 books.
Broderick must have some more, by
