SAM LACY'S A TO Z

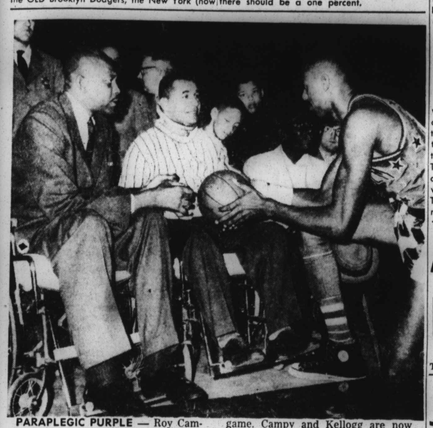
Deadline demands necessitate the writing of this piece a few hours in advance of the Sunday greeting between the Baltimore Colts and Washington Redskins . . . but it is not too early to declare that, regardless of the outcome, 99 percent of the 15,000 colored fans in the Memorial Stadium stands were rabid Colts supporters.

It was not alone due to the fact that the tan customer had (and has) a rooting interest in the Baltimore pro club, what with the likes of Lenny Moore, Gene Lipscomb, Jim Parker, Len Lyles, et al, in the Colt line-up . . . it was due also to the knowledge that the Baltimore ownership deserves the very utmost in colored backing . . . . Should the Colts go on to win the National Football League title, the age-old cliche, "it couldn't happen to nicer people," will have to be polished up and put to use.

This column has enjoyed the extreme good fortune to work with some of the truly top organizations in the field of race relations . . . . the OLD Brooklyn Dodgers, the New York (now San Francisco) Giants, the Cleveland Browns, etc., stand out among them . . . . But all are nudged into a corner by the Colts.

Aside from the fact that the Baltimore club, since the arrival on the scene of the present ownership, has always maintained great tan player personnel, it also has placed colored men in any position for which they could qualify . . . . whether it be front office, where Buddy Young is employed, or at the water-boy level . . . . two years ago, they even had an assistant trainer in charge of the locker room.

The opposition in Sunday's game, on the other hand, never has wanted a colored player . . . . Redskins owner George Preston Marshall makes no secret of the fact that he nurtures Dixie patronage and tolerates colored fans only because they have the price of admission . . . . For 99 percent of tan customers, it would be okey to give Marshall and his eleven to the rebels, whose yells provide the background for Redskins home games . . . . It seems tragic that there should be a one percent.



PARAPLEGIC PURPLE — Roy Campanella (center) and Junius Kellogg (left), both of whom once wore the royal robe in sports, receive a ball from Wilt (the Stilt) Chamberlain at a Madison Square Garden basketball game. Campy and Kellogg are now paraplegics due to auto accident injuries. Junius was an all-American at Manhattan College in 1951, was paralyzed in a crash while touring with the Harlem Globetrotters in 1953.

N.C. finally whips Md. State after 6 attempts

North Carolina College soared to a 26-6 victory over Maryland State College here at O' Kelly Field Saturday.

It was the Eagles' first win over the Hawks in seven years of competition. Some 6,500 wildly partisan homecoming day fans celebrated the victory.

Maryland State halfback Bill Gray, the CIAA's top rusher scored the team's only TD in the first quarter on a 16 yard run. The effort capped a 58-yard drive that the Hawks launched at the opening kickoff, using barely three minutes to score.

The Eagles scored seven points in the second period, added six in the third, and exploded for two more in the final frame.

THE PASSING combination of Quarterback Ike Gatling and End Paul Winslowe accounted for two NCC scores, with Winslowe tallying on Gatling's heaves from five and 11 yards, in the second and third periods respectively.

Gatling played in a special (bird cage) helmet to protect his fractured jaw.

Captain Lloyd Eason fired a 35-yard pass to right Halfback Harold Joyner to open the fourth quarter scoring. Joyner caught the ball on the run and scampered seven yards for paydirt.

* * *

NCC'S FINAL TALLY came in the fourth period on a pass featuring the return to duty of the Eagles' highly rated left Halfback, Clifton Jackson. An injury kept Jackson out of NCC's last two contests.

Danny Miller was the Hawks' leading ground gainer. He got 86 yards in 15 carries. Jackson was NCC's big gun as he churned 55 yards in 5 tries.

* * *

ON THE statistical side, NCC made 13 first downs to the Hawks' 7, but rushed 131 yards to Maryland's 139. The Eagles' passing advantage, garnering 89 yards against two for Maryland, and the superb play of two Eagles forward walls spelled the difference in the outcome.

NCC completed 6 of 13 passes against Maryland's one in five.

Cinderella Smith team slipped slipper by Shaw

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — The bruising Bears of Shaw University applied the straw of mid-night to the Cinderella role Johnson C. Smith University's young football team has been enjoying, with a 12-0 victory here Saturday.

Coach Clifton Anderson's squad thus registered its fifth straight triumph of the campaign. Coach Eddie McGirt's amazing Smith freshmen have now won three and lost one game.

* * *

SELDOM HAS a local CIAA football game precipitated as much interest as this one which lured an estimated 5,000 spectators to Sanders-McCrorey Field on a radiant Autumn afternoon.

As expected Shaw's great team proved superior with 196 crushing yards on land and 83 through the airlanes with three completions in 12 passes. Quarterback Frank Baker, Halfbacks Eugene Hammond and Philip Jackson carried the offense banner for the winners.

The Bulls grounded out 88 yards rushing and 36 with four-out-of 18 passes. Quarterbacks James Walker and Bobby Michaux and Halfback James Henderson were standouts for the losers.

* * *

SHAW SCORED first midway in the second period when Baker found End Glenfield Knight clear at the Smith 40 and the big end from Camden, N.J. went all the way to score standing. The play netted 65 yards.

In the third period, Eugene Hammond broke loose on a 15 yard scamper to finish the scoring.

Scats topple Livingstone from ranks of unbeaten

DENMARK, S.C. — South Carolina Area Trade School drove 89 yards after intercepting a pass in the fourth quarter to hand the Livingstone Bears their first loss of the season, 8-2, Saturday night.

The loss left the Bears with a 2-1 EIAC record and the victory gave Area Trade a 2-0 mark.

* * *

LATE IN the final period, with Livingstone leading, 2-0 an Area Trade back intercepted a Bear pass on the 20 to stop a Livingstone drive.

A series of running plays failed to gain long yardage and Quarterback David Campbell connected on a 48 yard pass to put the ball on the Livingstone 25.

* * *

THREE PLAYS later, Halfback Morris Cross passed to Campbell from 25 yards out for the touchdown. Cross again connected to Campbell for the two points after touchdown.

Livingstone scored early in the fourth quarter when guard Fred Smith caught an Area Trade back in the end zone after a pass from center on an attempted kick had sailed over his head.

Delaware in 26-8 victory over Lincoln

LINCOLN UNIV., Pa.—Quarterback Irv Heath's five-yard touchdown sneak in the second quarter was the deciding factor in leading Delaware State College to a 26-8 victory over Lincoln University on Saturday.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Hornets struck after Morgan Little intercepted Jonathan Chalmer's pass on the Lincoln 45. On the first play from scrimmage, Heath threw to A. W. Thompson for a 55-yard touchdown.

* * *

TAKING THE ensuing kickoff and moving for two first downs, Lincoln fumbled twice with Delaware recovering both times but capitalizing on the second. Beginning on the 19, the Hornets, managed by Heath, threw to A. W. Thompson for a 55-yard touchdown.

* * *

THE LIONS did all of their scoring in the third quarter on a safety and a 30-yard drive after Roger Crawford recovered a fumble on the Lion 20-8.

Nine plays later Lincoln had a touchdown capped by a one-yard plunge by Whit Walker.

* * *

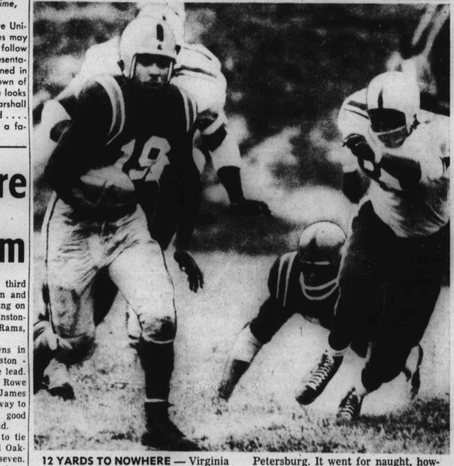
There are some fancy tan names in the Canadian Football League as well as there are in the NFL . . . . Fred Robinson who was a guard with the Cleveland Browns last year, is a member of the 1958 Toronto Argonauts . . . . Dave Mann, kicking specialist with the 1957 Chicago Cardinals, also is doing his gridiron chores with the Argonauts . . . . Milt Campbell, ex-Cleve'and Brown, is playing halfback for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

Former college stars performing north of the border include Mike Hagler (Iowa) with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders, Leo Lewis (Missouri Lincoln) with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, Johnny Bright (Drake) with the Edmonton Eskimos, C. R. Roberts (Southern Cal) with the Argonauts, Chuck Holloway (UCLA) with the Calgary Stampeders, and Hardiman Cureton (UCLA) with the Tiger-Cats.

Johnny Sample, rookie defensive back from Maryland State College, now with the Baltimore Colts, was one of Wilt (the Stilt) Chamberlain's "feeders" on Overbrook High School's championship basketball team in Philadelphia for two seasons . . . . Friends of Sample who may be disappointed that he is being used on defense after starring as an offensive back in college, should remember that several outstanding backs in the pro league started as defensemen . . . . included among 'em are J. C. Caroline of the Chicago Bears, and Ollie Matson of the Chicago Cardinals.

Buddy Young, himself a standout during his years in college and pro football, calls Willie Galimore "the strongest runner I've ever seen . . . . In all my years, there hasn't come a better one" . . . . The fleet Chicago Bears halfback also comes in for some high praise from Frankie Albert, another one-time great of the gridiron and currently coach of the San Francisco 49ers . . . . . Says Albert: "That fellow (Galimore) is a terror . . . . If you can stop him, you stop the Bears' ground game . . . . the only sad part about it is that you don't stop him.

Cleveland Indians all-around man Vic Power celebrates a birthday on Saturday, so fond wishes from here to him at San Juan . . . . And belated greetings to middleweight Bob Boyd in Chicago, and to national junior tennis champ Horace Cunningham in Lynchburg . . . Should have been sent last Friday (24th) . . . Ditto to little Gwen McEvans, the 17-year-old from Detroit, who captured the 1957 national women's net title . . . She added a year on Thursday.



12 YARDS TO NOWHERE — Virginia State College halfback Moses Norris is off on a 12-yard gain against North Carolina in their game last week at Petersburg. It went for naught, however, as James Chambers and James Williams brought him down and the Eagles went on to a 33-0 victory.

THE BISONS, dismally defeated the past two Saturdays by Delaware State and Morgan State, lost no time in fashioning this win, the third in a many years over the Tennesseans.

They took the opening kick-off and marched 84 yards in nine plays for the first touchdown, with a 21-yard pass, Charlie Smith to Bob Reed, setting the stage for Hillman's season's two-yard plunge for the six-pointer.

Hillman's thrust off tackle for ing the Bisons a 6-0 margin the conversion was short, leav which they manfully scrapped throughout the first half.

In the first quarter, they put up a good defensive stand to halt Fisk on the 27 then had to fight with all the defensive power at their command in the second quarter to thrice halt Fisk in the deep regions of Bison territory.

THE NASHVILLE eleven, with Gene Moore and Joe Green doing the big work, got to the Howard 17, 22 and 14 on three different occasions during this period but each time the Bisons checked the advance.

Don Browne, 185-pound frosh center, of Washington, saved the day on the last of the three Fisk penetrations, pulling down Joe Lewis on the Howard 14 after the Fisk back and teamed with Gene Moore on a 57-yard pass play. This came just before the half ended with Howard in front, 6-0.

RETURNING IN fine fettle after the rest break, Fisk duplicated Howard's feat of taking the kickoff for touchdown and moved 62 yards in an uninterrupted drive for a touchdown.

Green, senior fullback from Nashville, crashed off right tackle for the TD, going into the end zone standing up. The same Green went over on the same play for the two-point bonus conversion and Fisk held a 8-6 edge.

That was the end of the scoring for the Tennesseans, and Hillman, the former Phelps High School flash of Washington . . . now ist he new ist ion.

Howard got nowhere on the kickoff and Fisk did little better after the punt, but on the exchange kick Hillman turned what appeared to be a dangerous miscue into a thrilling 101-yard touchdown dash.
