WITH LULA JONES GARRETT

The Merritt Hedgemans (she's Ann Arnold, the former assistant to New York's Mayor, and he, the well-known concert singer) celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage by moving into Harlem's new luxury-styled Lecon Terrace Apartments, last week. They will be neighbors of John Bubbles of the Godfrey shows.

Bani Yelverton, cover girl; and Sarah Turner, celebrated model, were featured by Petersburg, Va. Delta Sigma Thetas, on their fashion show, Friday night. They showed clothes from the country's leading designers and some European imports. Ophelia De Vore, head of the Grace Del Marco Agency in New York staged the show and narrated.

Faculty Wives at Dillard University have carried out a clever idea. Off press this week will be the Dillard Women's Club cook book. The volume contains an extraordinary collection of recipes, many heretofore unpublished and until now closely guarded family secrets. Have garnered, too, recipes from such VIPs as Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Dr. Ralph Bunch, Marian Anderson, Mrs. Howard Thurman, Mrs. Peter Marshall Murray, et al.

Funds from sale of the book will go to the funds for scholarships for Dillard students.

SAM LACY'S A TO Z

- What about those quarterbacks?
- A correction about John Sample
- Will Chicago Bears beat the Colts?

Because the many efforts to contact him have been unavailing, the University of Maryland professor who addressed a note to A to Z several weeks ago, will remain unidentified . . . . The column feels certain that he would not object, but it prefers to observe the long-established rule of obtaining permission before disclosing the contents of a communication which may have been intended for publication.

The correspondent offered some pertinent information in connection with the AFRO TV Football Guide, then added the following note: "I am somewhat surprised that you do not make more of an issue out of George Marshall's blatantly discriminatory policy with respect to (colored) players than you do . . . . He richly deserves criticism on this as well as on other counts.

"Finally, though there have been great strides in aboloshing barriers in football, it seems to me worthy of comment that one particular spot in football appears to be reserved 'for white only'—the quarterback . . . . No doubt because of rationalizations about confidence in leadership and the necessity for harmony . . . . When a pro team, or even a major college team, entrusts the signal calling and team leadership to a colored boy, then integration can be said to have been firmly established."

Rafer Johnson, already established as the greatest all-round athlete in the history of track, with his world record of 8,302 points in the decathlon event, is now offering further proof of his versatility . . . . The 23-year-old UCLA phenom is already regarded as a cinch to make the 1958-59 Uclan varsity in basketball, and coach Bert Sandhorn of the baseball team says he is counting on Rafer as one of his mainstays this spring.

So you liked the horse-racing notes last week? . . . . Happy to know it . . . . Answering the Louisville reader: The oldest thoroughbred ever to win a race was John Burwell who was led into the winner's circle in 1925 at the age of 19 . . . . In reply to Robert Henderson, Philadelphia: According to Jockey Club records, the busiest horse in history was a plater named Logan . . . . in the 1890's, he went to the post 388 times.

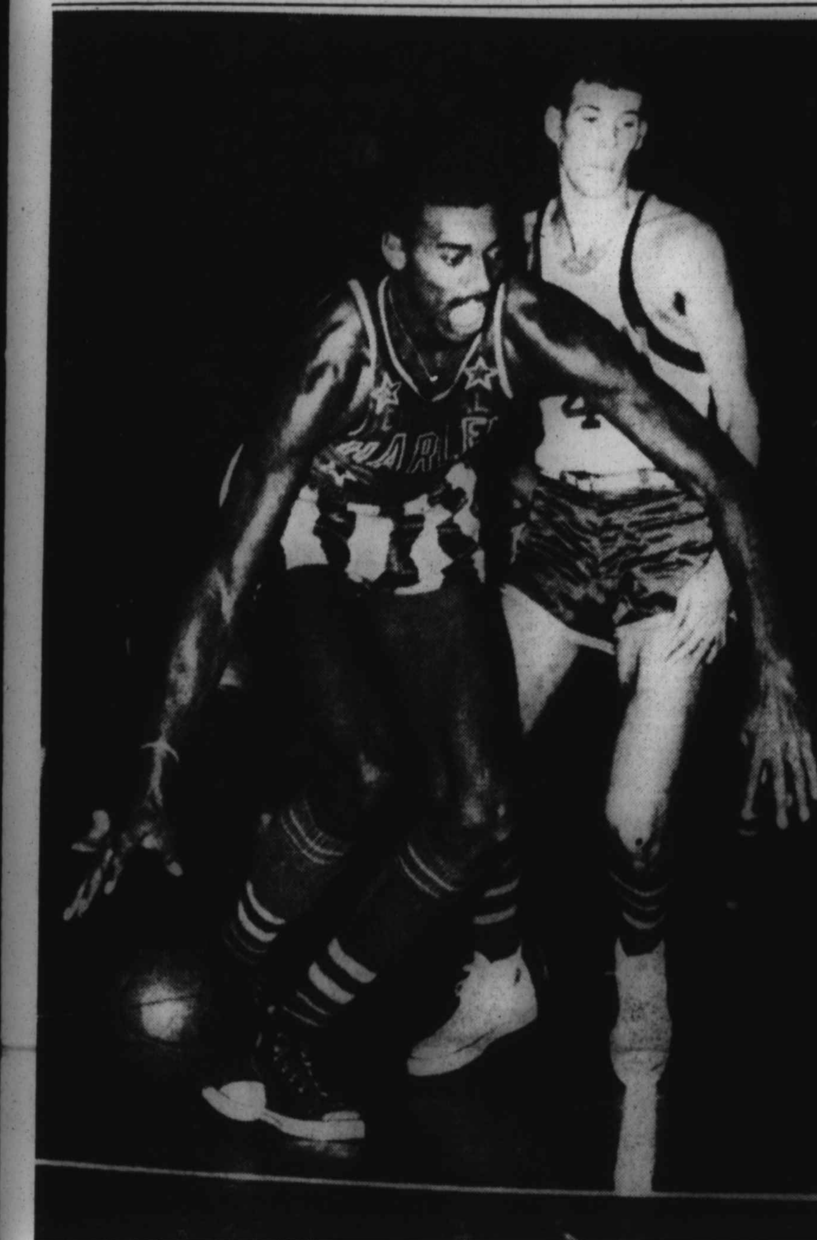
DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION . . . . "Dear Mr. Lacy: We (at Northampton County High School) are and have been for sometime, enthusiastic readers of your 'A to Z' column in the AFRO . . . . We look forward to the column because of the many interesting sports features and facts . . . . However, in your column of November 1st, you reported 'Johnny Sample, rookie defensive back from Maryland State College, now with the Baltimore Colts, was one of Wilt Chamberlain's feeders on Overbrook High School's championship basketball team in Philadelphia for two seasons.'

"We don't know from whence you got your information but feel that you would like to know the facts concerning Sample's high school career . . . . Sample was born in Cape Charles, Va., which is located on the Eastern Shore in Northampton County . . . . he attended elementary school in Cape Charles and the Northhampton County High School, and the people (of this area) have been and still are proud of the contribution he has made to athletics and this American way of life.

"Therefore, they feel somewhat let down when he is claimed by another school (and community) . . . . Johnny left our school and went straight to Maryland State College . . . . the rest I'm sure you know . . . . It is possible that another Johnny Sample played at Overbrook, but I am sure the Sample of which you spoke is a product of our high school . . . . W. H. Smith, principal, Machipongo, Virginia."

Of course, principal Smith is right and A to Z was wrong . . . . The item was picked up from notes issued by the publicity office of the National Football League . . . . It was used here without the forethought it deserved . . . . A to Z apologizes.

Coach Clarence (Bighouse) Gaines of Winston-Salem Teachers College is boasting an even more expansive chest since October 24th . . . . That's when wife Clara presented him with a 9-pound, 6¼-ounce son . . . . When the crack football-basketball mentor announced the event, he did so in the following manner: "Clara and Clarence announce a winning 'goal' by birth of Clarence Edward, 2nd; star performer in 'dribbling' and drooling; family 'center' of attention; under constant 'guard' and looking 'forward' to a lifetime of health and happiness."



NEW ROLE FOR STILT — Camera catches Wilt (the Stilt) Chamberlain driving around Kent Bryan of the Hawaiian All Stars, in his new role as outside man for the Harlem Globetrotters. With the funnymen of the court, Stilt is no longer confined to posting and scoring. Trotters are awaited in Chamberlain's Philadelphia hometown (Saturday) night, in Baltimore in early December.

Hawks rebounds to rout Delaware

PRINCESS ANNE, Md. — Maryland State hit the comeback trail here Saturday with a vengeance, upsetting the Delaware State College Hornets, 44-0, in the third annual Peninsula classic.

Until this victory, the Eastern Shore eleven had been forced to absorb three straight defeats. It was a win on rebound.

• • •

THE HAWKS were off in a hurry. With the oval in Maryland State possession on the 48-yard stripe, Dan Miller, on a lateral from Joe Robinson, galloped to the 31. Bill Gray scooted to the 25, and repeated to the 18.

Then Quincy Cooper carried to the 13. Gray bored through the middle to the one, from where Holmes punched over for the initial TD. The extra point try failed and the Hawks led 6-0.

In the second frame, the homesters scored 16 points on Billy (The Shadow) Gray's 74-yard punt return, Miller's 8-yard left end sprint, and five minutes later on Gray's 34-yard blast off tackle, for a third TD.

The extra 2-point tries were good and at the half it was Maryland State, 22, Delaware 0.

• •

THE THIRD stanza brought another Hawk outburst. On the first play, Dan Miller returned Ross Baker's punt 97 yards for a TD. The two-pointer grossed Maryland 33, Delaware 0. Frankie Muse then tore up the middle 26 yards for another 6 pointer, then Dan Miller raced around left end and the scoreboard showed Maryland State 38, Delaware State 0.

The rampaging Marylanders added another TD in the final quarter, when Muse, on a "keep," scorel from the 10.

Campy goes home

GLEN COVE, L.I., — Roy Campanella spent the night Friday with his family at home, the start of the newest phase in treatments in his rehabilitation program.

The paralyzed Los Angeles Dodgers catcher was discharged from New York Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation on Friday morning. He had been undergoing treatments there since May 5, following a long stay at Glen Cove Community Hospital where he was taken after his January 28, automobile accident.

DR. EDWARD LOWMAN, clinical director who has served as Campanella's personal physician since he entered the institute, said:

"Mr. Campanella has progressed sufficiently in his rehabilitation so that he was released today from the institute to live at home with his family.

"Further improvement in his condition is still to be expected, particularly with regard to the strengthening of his arms and use of his fingers.

"He will continue his treatment as an out-patient for several months to come, commuting to the institute from Glen Cove three days a week for necessary therapy."

Record crowd sees Bisons ruin Pirate homecoming

HAMPTON, Va.—A record over-capacity crowd of 9,000 alumni and football fans saw the fighting Pirates fumble into a crushing 18-12 defeat at Hampton Institute's homecoming game against Howard Saturday.

The Pirates' thrilling last quarter rally sparked by halfback Ike Brown's touchdown charge through the massive bison defense, failed to topple the victory-hungry second division team from their lead.

• • •

HOWARD'S veteran end, Bernard Quarterman, cut loose early in the first quarter on a 72-yard aerial from quarterback Charlie Smith. The Pirates came back to equalize minutes later when halfback Daniel Austin ran through right tackle for the initial Pirate tally.

But Austin fumbled late in the second quarter to set up Crawford Ellerbe's 40-yard scoring pass, which put the Bisons ahead, 12-6 at the half.

The Bisons extended the winning margin early in the third period as halfback Howard Williams slammed through the middle from their own 34-yard line.

• • •

HAMPTON OPENED the third quarter offensive on their own 5-yard line, following another crippling 15-yard penalty. Anderson and Shackelford rushed to the 18, but had to give up the offense to Howard on the 38.

Freshman halfback Howard Williams crashed through the center for a hard 38 yard touchdown run hotly pursued by Mel Henderson and Ike Brown. The Bison rushed for the insurance extras, but was stopped short on the line of scrimmage.

• • •

LATE IN the third period the Pirates held the Bisons on their own one yard line for two plays forcing a fourth down punt. Henderson fumbled on the 50, then came back to steal a Howard pass two plays later for an 11-yard dash to the Pirate 31.

Shackelford on a pitchout, tossed to Henderson on the 21-yard line. Then another to Ike Brown who slanted to the sideline and drove back straight into the onreshing defenders for a 13-yard dash into the end zone. The Pirate placement failed to score.

THE PIRATES began to rally in a spirited comeback in a 41-yard march. Henderson dashed to the Howard 48, and Anderson galloped to the 43. Shackleford fakel, then sneaked through center to the 27 yard line where the Howard forward wall held.

Ike Brown fumbled on the next play killing the last hope of a last minute comeback.

11,000 watch Fla. A & M top A and T in 37-22 thriller

TALLAHASSEE — Florida A and M's Rattlers scored their 14th straight victory Saturday by defeating North Carolina A and T, 37-22, before a capacity homecoming crowd of 11,000.

Coach Jake Gaither's boys had to come from behind in the second half to beat the spirited team from Greensboro.

A and T received and moved to the Rattler's 27 with the aid of a 22-yard pass from Paul Swann to Miami's Joe Taylor. However, they were stopped at that point and Florida A and M took over.

Led by halfbacks Leroy Hardee and Clarence Childs, the Rattlers marched 73 yards on 17 plays to score the game's first touchdown. Childs carried over from the three for the score and then quarterback Lee Royster ran over for two points to put Florida ahead, 8-0.

• • •

THE LEAD was short lived as the Aggies struck back through the air, including a 42-yard pass from quarterback, Howard Smith to Taylor and then a touchdown pass from Smith to end Burnie McQceen Good for 33 yards. The drive put the Aggie back in the ball game after fullback Bernard Anderson ran over for two to tie the game.

A Short time later, North Carolina's center sent the ball over Smith's head, who was back to kick on fourth down. The ball rolled down to the five where the Rattler's took over and scored on three plays. J. W. Jones carried over from the two and Lewis Johnson kicked the extra point to make the score 15-8.

• • •

IN THE SECOND quarter, A and T's Eugene Cambridge provided the homecoming crowd with one of the best runs of the day. The 165-pound halfback from Miami took a kick on his own five and raced 95 yards for the score. Bernard Anderson carried over for two, putting A and T ahead 16-15.

After A and M lost the ball on downs, North Carolina went to the air again for their third touchdown. Smith faded back from his 15 and threw a 45-yard pass to end Johnnie Wardlow who raced the remaining forty yards for the score. Anderson tried to take it over again but failed. The scoe was 22-15 with 9:49 left in the half.

• • •

LATE IN THE second quarter A and M made use of a pitchout to march 43 yards for the Rattler's third score. Royster set up the score when he pitched to Hardee who raced 13 yards to the 23.

After moving down to the seven, Royster and Hardee made use of their pitchout and Hardee ran across the goal line for six. Paul Manning attempted to tie up the ball game by kicking for one, but the attempt was wide. The score was 22-21 in favor of North Carolina as the half ended.

• • •

IN THE THIRD quarter both teams were held to a standstill as penalties and fumbles played havoc with bothsides.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Rattlers received a break when North Carolina's Paul Swann stood behind his goal line to kick on fourth down. Center Willie Wyche broke through for A and M and blocked the punt with end John Glover falling on the ball for an A and M score. Royster took the ball over for two more putting the Rattler's ahead 29-22 with 10:16 left in the game.

A and M added their final score on the next series of downs, marching 55 yards. Childs highlighted the drive by breaking through on the short side of the line and ran 48 yards for the TD. Hardee ran over untouched for two more putting A and M ahead 37-22.

S.C. State in field day win over Ala. A-M

ORANGESBURG, S.C. — South Carolina State had a 64-0 field day over Alabama A. M. before 4,500 including 3,000 high school seniors from seventy schools Saturday afternoon in Bulldog Stadium.

Varsity backs sharing in the touchdown spree included Henry Brevard, Alexander Gardner, Leroy Hurst, Frederic Rogers, Joe McCrea, Lester Seays along with Varsity Ends James Payton, Razzie Smith and David Jones.

Reserve and freshmen backs outstanding were Johnnie Edwards, Clarence Jones, Melvin Galloway and Charles Littlejohn. Coach Moore's entire squad played.

Alabama standouts were Backs Eugene Gill, Theodore Franklin and Madison Romine.

Ollie Matson, long one of the most feared runners in pro football, thinks the Chicago Bears will not only whip the Baltimore Colts in their game at Chicago Sunday, but will go on to win the Western Conference title as well . . . . "What happened in Baltimore on the 4th (when the Colts beat the Bears, 52-35) was just one of those things you meet up with every now and then in this league," asserts Ollie.

Matson, who was a teammate of Baltimore's Gino Marchetti when they were in college at San Francisco, has as high regard for the brilliant Colts end as Marchetti does for him . . . . "Gino's terrific," he says, "and they've got a good club in Baltimore but the Bears are improving with every game and I know they'll be 'up' for the Colts."

The fact that the door is open to new records in rushing and scoring for Jim Brown, but little has been said of the big fullback's excellent chance to prove himself the pro game's all-time greatest "iron man" . . . . If the 228-pound ace of the Cleveland Browns maintains his current pace of 23.7 carries per game, he could surpass by 17 the 271 attempts set by fullback Eddie Price of New York in 1951.

Still another fact that hasn't been pointed out is that if Brown continues on his season average of 164 yeards per contest, he could run up the incredible total of 1,956 yards for the campaign.

In the meantime, here are a few notes from Canadian football . . . . Veryl Switzer, ex-Green Bay Packer halfback, signed with the Calgary Stampeders . . . . Eddie Macon, once with the Chicago Bears, with Hamilton Tiger-Cats . . . . Johnny Bright, former Drake University star, and Leo Lewis, ex-Missouri Lincoln luminary, one-two in rushing in the loop, Drake boasting gains totaling 1,211 yeards already.

Jack Taylor, once the scourge of opposing athletic teams in and around Washington, D.C., is presently in Germany awaiting December elevation to the rank of captain in the U.S. Air Force.

Birthday greetings due this week to one-time national sprint champion Eddie Conwell (16th) and to Sol Hall, coach at DC's Cardozo High School (17th) . . . . And have you sent that card to Roy Campanella yet? . . . . It should be sent to: Roy Campanella, Glen Cove, L.I., New York, in time to reach him on or before the 19th.

Angry Bears crush Union, 69-0, for 3rd CIAA win

By SAM LACY
BALTIMORE

All the pent-up fury that comes to a team which has lost its last two contests, was unleashed by the Morgan State College Bears here Saturday afternoon as they thundered to a 69-0 annihilation of Union University of Richmond.

Eddie Hurt's charges, still smarting from setbacks at the hands of West Virginia State and A. and T. College on the two previous Saturdays, romped to a crushing 24-0 lead in the opening quarter, then widened the gap as they saw fit.

So convincing was the Golden Bear superiority that the game ended with the third and fourth units piling it on the hapless Panthers.

• • •

LAWSON SMART, a ripping freshman halfback from Houston, Texas, added to the prestige, he began building for himself when last the Morgans were on home soil. Old grads watched the fleet young 145-pounder from Washington High School run rings around the Howard University defense as the Bears scored, 49-0, on October 18.

Smart tallied two of the nine Bear touchdowns, both on runs of four yards to climax sustained Morgan drives. Smart also ran over for a two-point conversion after his first score.

• • •

WHAT WITH counting 24 points in the first period and 22 in the second, Hurt's young men might well have taken it easy the rest of the way. Especially since, the Panthers were thoroughly checked in every phase of the game.

Not once was the Union attack able to penetrate the deep Morgan territory. In the closing moments, as they tried desperately to avert a complete shutout, the Virginians moved as far as the Bear 35. But that was their most successful thrust of the day.

• • •

EMPLOYING A series of straight line bursts with an occasional keep and pass by Jack Dennis, the home club hit for its first TD at 4:17 of the game. James Allen, a junior halfback from Lynchburg, completing the drive with a 4-yard run.

That was the signal for the Bears to unleash all their anger. There were to follow touchdowns by Bobby Gordon, who raced 45 yards a few minutes later; by co-captain Donald Hart after a pass from Dennis, and a quarterback sneak by Dennis himself.

• • •

PERHAPS THE most electrifying play of the contest, if such it can be called, was turned in by Doug Perguson, a sophomore from Bates High School, Annapolis.

The 203-pound center intercepted a pass by Union's Bob Marshall on his own 30, and raced 70 yards to pay dirt.

Later, Perguson booted a 15-yard field goal, to add insult to injury for the visiting Panthers.

Lincoln clips Central State by 38-0, in Homecoming

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. — The Lincoln University Tigers defeated the Marauders of Central State College by a lopsided score of 38-0 on Lincoln's field, before a homecoming crowd of approximately 5,000, Saturday.

Lincoln scored easily in all quarters but the third against the Ohio team which prior to the game were rated 4th in rushing defense, according to the latest NAIA statistics charts.

Lincoln's first score game in the first 10 minutes of play after they recovered a fumble on the Central State four-yard line. J. D. Brown recovered for Lincoln. John Bardley, Lincoln's All-America candidate ran it over for the touchdown. Lincoln's Left Halfback Lewis Heffner ran the conversion over for two points.

• • •

LINCOLN TOOK over the ball a few plans later when Central State kicked on fourth down to the Lincoln 30 yard line. A series of running plays gave Lincoln a first down on the Central State 25 at which Carl Lee ran it over for the touchdown on a handoff from center. Ezell Brewer, Lincoln quarterback, passed to Heffner for the extra points.

Lincoln scored again in the second quarter when Raymond Hooper blocked a Central State kick on their seven yard line and ran it over. Brewer ran it over for the extra points.

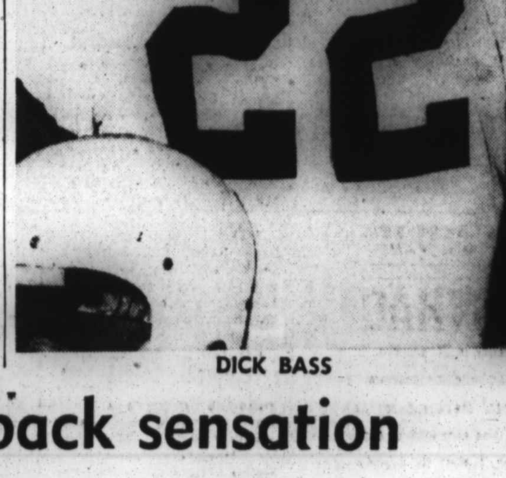
Both teams were held scoreless in the third quarter. In the final quarter, George Buckner, a substitute guard, intercepted a Central State pass on the Marauders 21 yard line and ran all the way for the touchdown.

Richard Williams ran the extra point to give Lincoln a score of 32 to 0.

• • •

LINCOLN'S FINAL score again on a pass interception came when Willie Armstrong, a guard, snatched a Central State pass and ran it all the way for the touchdown.

Lincoln plays Tennessee State of Nashville next Saturday at Nashville in a game which will likely decide the championship of the conference.



DICK BASS

Tan halfback sensation of the college gridiron

When the All-America selectors get down to the serious business of picking the best college football players of 1958 a few weeks hence, there is little doubt that much consideration will be given to Richard Lee (Dick) Bass of College of Pacific.

Bass, a 189 - pound halfback is a one - man show on the Stockton, Cal., school's weak team. Despite the fact that he is given relatively no blocking, Dick as of Saturday morning had gained 700 yards in six games.

THE RECORDS show that COP had lost three of the six games, which further indicates the overall quality of the team. Still Bass goes on as a headache for the opposition.

Because he had been prone to injury in his last two years, there were some doubters whenever Dick's name was mentioned among the topline ball carriers of the nation. And because he plays with a small school (total enrollment 1,670), there was some question in East about his true value.

• • •

FULLY RECOVERED from the wounds which knocked him out of action (inadequate protection was given as the cause) in 1956 and again in 1957. Bass had been in all COP's games as he and his mates took the field Saturday against San Jose State College.

As far as the East was concerned, Dick dispelled many of the doubts the last two Saturdays. On October 25, he was held in check at Marquette, when the Warriors upset the California eleven, but Bass was cheered lustily for his brilliant defensive exhibition.

• • •

THEN LAST Saturday at Boston College, Bass took the opening kickoff and ran it back 72 yards before an unwary official and an opposing player brought him down. He appeared on his way to a certain touchdown when the field judge found himself in the way as Bass suddenly changed direction.

In addition to this kickoff return, Dick tallied twice on runs of six and seven yards. He contributed a 29-yard sprint to another TD march, and twice passed for ostensible scores only to have the plays recalled.

St. Augustine wrecks Rams

WINSTON SALEM, N.C. — The St. Augustine Falcons spoiled homecoming for Winston Salem Teachers College and 10,000 fans Saturday by blanking the Rams, 26-0.

Halfback Donal Thompson gained 169 yards on the ground and scored a touchdown to lead St. Augustine to victory. He was helped by Fullback Marion Brown who rambled for 68 yards and two touchdowns.

St. Augustine took a 12-0 lead in the second quarter after a scoreless first quarter. Brown scored from the ten and from the one to climax drives of 49 yards and 80 yards. The second TD was helped by two 15 yard penalties against Winston Salem.

• • •

BETWEEN TOUCHDOWNS, the Rams missed six points when Fullback Ben Depree fumbled in the end zone and Guard Curtis Means recovered for St. Augustine.

Thompson scored on a 37-sprint in the thrid quarter and Lester Spaase ran for two extra points and a 20-0 lead.

The Falco ns sc ored in the The Falcons scored in the final minutes of the game on a 13 yard run by Wunwood Sharpe for a 26-0 triumph.
