JOHN GAVIN AND LILO PULVER with the head-waiter of the bombed-out deluxe restaurant in which they have just dined are shown in a scene from Erich Maria Remarque's "A Time to Love and a Time to Die," the best selling novel of World War II by the author of "All Quiet on the Western Front," now playing at the Harlem Theatre. Gavin and Miss Pulver are starred as the young lovers and Jock Mahoney, Don DeFore, Keenan Wynn and Erich Maria Remarque, himself, as the professor are co-starred in this Universal-International Color-CinemaScope production.

Camerman, eyewitness get tip $$

An alert photographer who was on hand to get two pictures when a 3-year-old child fell out a Presstman St. window won the $10 top award for news photos this week while two other persons won $5 each for the top news tips.

The two top tipsters were awarded $5 for the report on the drowning at Day Village.

Two second places news tips winners were the persons who called the AFRO about the child who fell out of the window and the toddler who was criminally assaulted. They will get $3.

A $2 check will be sent to the person who gave the AFRO an eyewitness account of how the child fell out the window and the baby who drowned in a bathtub.

Some $1 checks will be sent to the persons who called the AFRO to make the following reports:

Boy fell out windw on Eager St.; child drowned in Cherry Hill; robbery on North Ave.; woman beaten; additional information on Turner Station drowning and woman stranled; man found dead in Lafayette Ct.; body found on Eutaw Place.

Also the 3-car accident at Central Ave. and McElderry and the two car-accident in the 2100 block Druid Hill Ave.

CHECKS ARE sent out every week for news tips and it is simple to earn cash this way. Here is all you do:

Call MU. 5-6015, 6016, 1812 and 1813. If no answer call LA. 3-3024.

A sum of $50 is set aside each week for NEWS TIPS and NEWS PHOTOS and there are winners every week.

Winners are selected on the basis of the newsworthiness of the tip called in, and in case of more than one tip on a single incident the first person to telephone this office gets priority.

The decision of the judges is final.

TOPS IN CONTEST—The barmaids popularity contest held Tuesday at Car's Beach produced these two lovely young ladies as first place winners in a dead heat. Miss Christine Jones of Adam's Cocktaiyl Lounge, Turner Station, is on the left; Mrs. Melvina Jackson, director of the AFRO Travel Bureau, is in the center. She served as mistress of ceremonies. On the right is Miss Viola Green of Phil's Cocktail Lounge.

Please, please, please come and get your money

Just think Millions of dollars are waiting for you at the office of the State Comptroller and he is practically begging you to come and get it.

For the fourth issue, names of those persons who are due tax refunds (because of overpayment in 1957), are appearing on these pages of the AFRO.

All you have to do is see your name among them, and you can share in those millions.

Anyone whose name appears on these lists should write to the Comptroller of the Treasury, Income Tax Division, Annapolis, Md., giving his present address and former address.

Your Social Security Number will help identify you so send that too.

No telephone calls will be accepted, you must write.

A 'big' dog about that high

A "big dog about that high" was the cause of neighbors showing up in Northwestern Police Court on Monday.

Appearing before Magistrate Linwood G. Koger Sr., was a teenager, Leslie Joyner, 2100 block McCulloh St., who was accompanied by his mother.

According to Mrs. Joyner, her son had been bitten July 9 by a "great big dog about that high" (she held her hand four or five feet from the floor).

SHE SAID the dog belonged to a man who lives close by. Also in court was William Covington, 2100 block Druid Hill Ave., who told the magistrate that it was not his dog that did the biting.

However, Magisrate Koger required that Mr. Covington pay $6 for the treatment received by young Joyner at Provident Hospital for his injuries.

World record decathlon highlights U.S.-Russ meet

MOSCOW — A world-record performance by Rafer Johnson, 23-year-old UCLA senior, highlighted a Russo-American track and field meet here last weekend.

Johnson captured the difficult decathlon competition with a mark-shattering total of 8,302 points, a feat which completely overshadowed any individual efforts in the two-day calendar of events and set off a wild demonstration among upward of 30,000 Soviet fans.

WINNING five firsts, two seconds and two third places, the 6-foot, 3-inch athlete from Kingsburg, Cal., bettered the previous high in the first nine of the ten events in the competition.

After capturing the javelin test with a heave of 238 feet, ... inches — the ninth event in the program — Rafer had a total of 8,032 points. This was sufficient to top the unofficial mark of 8,013 points by Vasily Kuznetsov of Russia, as well as his own accepted world record of 7,985 points set in 1955.

As a result, Johnson had only to lope through the final, 1500-meters event, safe in the knowledge that he could not be overtaken nor his record endangered.

ASIDE from the decathlon title, tan athletes accounted for eight other victories in the two-day competition. Four of these came in men's events and four, including a relay score, occurred in the women's matches.

Ira Murchison of Western Michigan, took the 100-meters dash in 10.2 seconds; Ancel Robinson of Fresno State College, won the 110-meters high hurdles in 13.9 seconds; Ernie Shelby of Los Angeles Striders A.C., took the broad jump with a leap of 26 feet, 6 inchs, and Ed Collymor of Villanova, annexed the 200-meters dash in 21.3 seconds.

AMONG THE WOMEN, Barbara Jones of Tennessee State University, captured the 100-meters dash in 11.6 seconds; Lucinda Williams of Bainbridge, Ga., copped the 200-meters dash in 24.4 seconds; Earlene Brown of Los Angeles, Calf., won the shotput with a toss of 54 feet, 3 1/8 inches, and an all-tan foursome added the 400-meters relay crown.

The victorious quartet was composed of Isabel Daniels, Lucinda Williams, Margaret Matthews and Barbara Jones, and time for the triumph was 44.8 seconds.

COLLYMORE, in addition to winning the 200-meters dash, finished second to Murchison in the 100, and anchored the victorious U.S. 400-meters relay team for men. Murchison led off this foursome, which scored in 39.6 seconds, just a tenth of a second off the world record.

AMONG STARS of the champion Kansas City Monarchs who are coming East on tour with the Detroit Clowns is Ira McKnight, catcher. McKnight will have the backstopping assignment when the Monarchs and Clowns play in Washington, Aug, 14 and Baltimore, Aug. 15.

Spider Webb TKO victor

NEW YORK —Spider Webb ehnanced his No. 5 middleweight ranking Wednesday night by scoring a seventh round technical knockout of Franz Szuzina in a televised bout from Madison Square Garden.

The show represented a switch in several aspects, in that it was the first time the Garden had provided the TV card for the regular Wednesday night series. Fights from the 8th Avenue emporium usually make up the Friday telecast.

It also marked a change in the fight principals. Szuzina was originally slated to oppose former middleweight champion Gene Fullmer. Webb was substituted after Fullmer suffered an eye cut in training for the bout.

A TORRID battle for the first six rounds, the course changed when Webb got home with a terrific right to the jaw while pinning his man in a neutral corner. The German was originally...

Sweetwater Clifton to play on Detroit-Kansas City tour

Nat (Sweetwater) Clifton, who gained much popularity in the Baltimore-Washington area, as a basketball player with the Harlem Globetrotters and New York Knickerbockers, will return to the scene as a baseball player.

Clifton, who joined the Goose Taum's Detroit Clowns, is scheduled to play with the Motor City nine when they meet the Kansas City Monarchs in the two cities during an Eastern swing in mid-August.

The Clowns and Monarchs will clash in night games at Griffith Stadium in Washington, on Thursday night, August 14th, and at Westport Stadium in Baltimore, on Friday night, August 15th.

CLIFTON WAS A MEMBER of the Detroit Pistons in the National Basketball Association last year, having been sold by the Knicks, and so it was natural that he joined the Detroit nine when he decided to play baseball.

With Tatum's club, Clifton rejoins an old teammate with the Gobetrotters, but he is no clown when it comes to baseball. He alternates between first base and right field and is a real power at the bat.

AT ONE TIME, Clifton played with Dayton in the Central League and later with Wilkes-Barre in the Eastern League. He also played baseball with the Pacific Coast League before devoting most of the season to basketball because of the Trotters' heavy schedule.

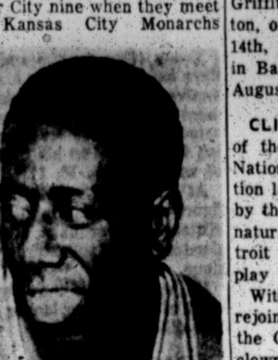
Now the big 6-foot-7 ace is back at his first love—baseball, and if Tatum's club continues at the fast pace it has been going in recent weeks it will be because of Clifton.

Liston to face Bethea Aug. 6

CHICAGO (ANP) — Up-and-coming Sonny Liston hopes to move closer to a championship shot at Floyd Patterson when he takes on Wayne Bethea in the stadium here, Aug. 6.

Liston, who knocked out Julie Maderos here last May, has a record of 18 wins in 19 pro fights. His lone loss was to veteran Marty Marshall, whom he defeated in a return bout.

If he gets past Bethea, Liston will enhance his position as a title challenger. Bethea is one of the leading contenders.



GOOSE TATUM

Tan Dodger farmhand injured, out 3 weeks

ST. PAUL, Minn. (ANP) — Bob Wilson's hopes for winning the American Association batting championship were dimmed when the St. Paul outfielder suffered a shoulder separation.

The injury forced Wilson to miss the league's all - star game and promised to shelve the hard - hitting flychaser for three weeks.

The 30 - year - old Wilson deserved a better fate. He has been one of the minors' hardest hitters but has never been dropped his arms and seemed to lose all taste for the struggle.

His opponent ready to be taken out, Webb proceeded to rain lefts and rights on Franz until the latter appeared without defense and at the mercy of the Chicago puncher.

At 1:27 of the seventh, referee Harry Kessler steepped in to halt the action.

given a real chance with a major league team.

THE PARENT Los Angeles Dodgers called him up this season for a brief period and then returned him to St. Paul. With the Saints, Wilson was batting .349 before the shoulder injury sidelined him.

His best average was in 1952 with St. Paul. He spent several seasons with Montreal before returning to St. Paul this year. He led the International League in doubles in 1955 (41) and in 1956 (42) while with Montreal.

WILSON'S injury gave another Saint —John Glenn — a chance to take part in the all-star game. Glenn, a former Morehouse College star, has been a member of the Dodger organization since 1950. This is his second season with the Saints. Glenn has been batting around .300 mark. He possesses a great throwing arm and is considered a good - around performer.

The third tan player on the Saints is Lacey Curry, 27-year-old second baseman.

ROY CAMPANELLA says "I'll be back!"

Recovering from his tragic accident last January, the three-time winner of the National League's Most Valuable Player award takes you back through his amazing career that began at fifteen . . . and tells you why it won't end in a hospital bed!

In this week's Saturday Evening Post, Campy, besides telling you how he's licking paralysis, talks frankly about his early days in the Negro leagues and the greatest players he ever saw who never got a chance in the big time!

And he tells you what's wrong with his Dodgers . . . gives you the inside story on Don Newcombe, compares modern greats Robinson, Mays, Musial and Mantle and gives his opinion of managers Durocher, Alston and others — all in "How I'll Make My Comeback," in this week's Post.

Honor Holy Name leader at Birds' Aug. 13 game

John J. Dilli, president of Publication Press, Inc. and former Archdiocesan Holy Name Union president, has been named recipient of the 1958 Archdiocesan Holy Name Award.

The Rev. John C. Griffith, Archdiocesan Director of the Holy Name Union, announced the winner and said the presentation will be made during pre-game ceremonies at the Holy Name Nite charity baseball game on August 13 at Memorial Stadium.

Mr. Dilli is the second winner of this annual award presented to an outstanding Holy Name man in recognition of his service and devotion to his church and community.

Mr. Dilli has been active in Holy Name work for many years and served as Archdiocesan President from 1953 to 1955. In 1957 he served as downtown chairman for Holy Name Nite, and this year accepted the post of general chairman of the event.

The proceeds from this game are the sole support of the Holy Name Scholarship Fund for Needy Boys. During the past five years the Holy Name Union has helped educate 53 needy boys at a cost of over $25,000.

Junior net play dates switched

WILBERFORCE, Ohio —Dr. Sylvester Smith, president of the American Tennis Association, announced this week that the 1958 National Junior tennis tournament will be held three days before the National tournament, at Central State College, Aug. 16-18.

Dr. Smih stated that there will be no limit on the number of juniors who may enter the tournament. A special program of tennis development will be sponsored for juniors with top professionals in the game giving instruction a new added feature.

The ATA special effort to get the junior coaches to attend the tournament is another added tennis development feature.

Kool Kids rally to top Suburbans in twin bill

Shags Kool Kids came from behind to defeat the strong Suburban A. C., at Westport Stadium on Saunday by a score of 4 to 3 and then took the second game, 3 to 1.

After trailing in the sixth inning by a score of 3 to 2, lead-off hitter Harden tripled to right field. Second-baseman Caldinia homered to right-center to make the score 4 to 3 and in the last inning, pitcher Maith set the Suburban boys down in order.

In the second game, the Kool Kids took the lead and were never in danger.

In the fourth inning, Buddy Harris blasted a line drive homer to deep center to set fear in the hearts of his opponents and pitcher Sam Chisolm had the Suburban A. C. hand-cuffed all the way, allowing only one (1) score. The Kool Kids thus ran their winning streak to 17 and 0.

On Thursday the Kool Kids will meet the strong Lord Baltimore Press team in a twi-light tilt at Clifton Park and then on Sunday the Kids will give the Casino nine a chance at revenge.

The Kool Kids are still anxious to meet strong opposition in or out of the city. For games, contact Louis Harris, general manager, 701 Bartlett Ave., BE. 5-4676; or William H. Logan, manager, 2228 Barclay St., BE. 5-2772.
