Samuel Gordon, 34, 3022 Mondawmin Ave., died last Friday in City Hospitals after a long illness.

Born in Westmoreland County, Va., Mr. Gordon spent the major part of his life in Baltimore.

He was a member of Potomac Baptist Church Westmoreland County, Va., for 38 years. While in Baltimore he attended Perkins Square Baptist Church.

He is the son of the late John and Rosie Gordon, of Virginia.

Surviving are eight sisters: Miss Bessie Gordon, Miss Fannie Gordon, Mrs. Rosie Clayton, Mrs. Ruth Allen, and Mrs. Pearl Maith of Baltimore; Mrs. Margaret Reid of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Helen Jackson and Mrs. Naomi Fauntleroy of Virginia.

Members ask for ouster of pastor

PHILADELPHIA

"Disgruntled members of Mt. Zion AME Church in Trenton, N.J. have asked for the removal of the Rev. Booker T. Cartwright as pastor. He is also a well known figure at Connectional Council meetings.

But the minister says that this group is in the minority and is acting without official authorization of the church.

The Rev. Mr. Cartwright is a sympathizer of suspended Bishop D. Ward Nichols. His expressed sentiments on behalf of Bishop Nichols have alienated some members of his congregation.

* * *

THE REV. Mr. Cartwright was appointed to Mt. Zion by Bishop George W. Baber in 1956. He came from a pastorate in the Second Episcopal District (Baltimore - Washington) where he was serving under Bishop Nichols.

At Mt. Zion he succeeded the Rev. D. M. Owens who was promoted to presiding elder upon the death of the Rev. J. L. Ruse. Dr. Owens now serves the New Brunswick District.

Concerning the dissension at his church, the Rev. Mr. Cartwright said:

"Yes, I've heard about a request being made for my removal. But anyone can ask for a preacher's removal.

"But 15 out of the 19 stewards of my church met with Bishop Baber at the recent youth congress in Atlantic City (July 16-18) and presented a petition which opposed any such action."

They stated that anyone who asked for my removal did so without the official authorization of the church. The 15 stewards and more than 80 members of the church signed this petition in my behalf," he declared.

Bishop Baber, vacationing in Martha's Vineyard, Mass., could not be reached for comment.

But Presiding Elder J. H. Johnson Jr. of the Camden-Trenton District was contacted at his home in Mt. Holly, N.J.

He advised the AFRO that the bishop and officers of the South Jersey Conference are aware of the unfortunate existing situation at Mt. Zion and have the matter under advisement."

* * *

THE REV. Mr. Cartwright has been in the spotlight at trials, involving Bishop Nichols and at several Connectional Council board meetings and other sessions.

During one such gathering he organized "The Sons and Daughters of Allen of the Connectional Council" and became its president.

During the Bishop Nichols trial in Jacksonville, Fla., in August 1957, a delegation from this group, applauded loudly when the bishop made his appearance.

Later, the Rev. Mr. Cartwright was ejected from the auditorium when he expressed displeasure at a ruling unfavorable to the bishop.

A spokesman at Mt. Zion Church said "The Bishop Nicholas matter certainly has no place in our public worship, or even our local church meetings.

"But it has been persistently injected, to such an extent as to confuse the people and prevent harmonious operation of the church."

The Mt. Zion Church is one of the oldest in the South Jersey Conference, and the AME Connection. It was re-built by Rev. Cartwright's predecessor the Rev. D. M. Owens, at enormous cost.

* * *

AMONG prominent members are Mrs. Moriah Johnson, president of the South Jersey Conference Branch, Woman's Missionary Society.

And John Shack, past-president of the First Episcopal District Laymember's League; its president-emeritus; and a vice president of the Connectional Lay organization.

Schools will not close, Roy Puckett predicts

RICHMOND

"Our children need to be educated, to survive. I don't believe the people of Richmond will allow their schools to be closed."

Thus spoke Roy N. Buckett at a recent meeting of the Civitan Club of Richmond. Puckett is administrative assistant to the superintendent of Richmond public schools.

He offered no explanation of how the city might keep schools open if colored pupils were admitted to white schools. Under the state law such schools would be closed.

* * *

SIX COLORED pupils have applied for admission to white schools here. Puckett said their applications will be forwarded to the Virginia Pupil Placement Board because local school officials no longer have the authority to assign pupils.

Puckett reviewed steps taken to educate colored children here before and since the Supreme Court's 1954 school desegregation.

"We in Richmond have been concerned with the colored population for an awfully long time," he said.

PUCKETT CITED figures showing a local school enrollment of 17,364 white pupils and 10,451 colored pupils in 1941.

Last school year, he said, the white enrollment had grown to 18,405 and the colored enrollment to 18,874. Of these, 11,819 white pupils and 4,096 colored pupils were in elementary schools.

The administrator cited the construction of Maggie Walker High School in 1948 and of Armstrong High School three years later as steps being taken by local school authorities before the desegregation decision.

Louis Cosby

Funeral rites were held for Louis Cosby, 69, the husband of Mrs. Alice Cosby, 3117 N. Monroe St. at the Holland Funeral Home, 1631 Druid Hill Ave., yesterday (Thursday).

Mr. Cosby died in Fort Howard Hospital Sunday after a brief illness.

A native of Matthews County, Va., he came to Baltimore 45 years ago. He was employed at a Gay St. Bakery at the time of his retirement six years ago.

He served in the First World War and saw action in Germany and France. He would often talk about his war experiences, recounting many of them vividly.

He was a member of the American Legion and devoted most of his leisure time to the organization.

* * *

HE WAS also a member of Sharon Baptist Church, Stricker and Pressiman Sts.

Surviving are two sons, Henry and Littleton Cosby; brothers, John and Jessie Cosby; and two sisters, Mrs. Dora Foster, and Mrs. Nettie Grimes.

He is also survived by three grandchildren.

Crowds are gathering nightly to enjoy the spirit filled services of these dynamic spiritual leaders of God's Holy Shrine. It is not difficult to understand the reason for such an attendance for the Prophet-Prophetess team alone is wonderful. They have traveled together for a period of time and work together marvelously. These ministers believe that whatever one needs God is able to provide it for you if there is enough faith. Thousands of people have been blessed through services of this kind. Some who never had homes before were able to secure one, some were fortunate enough to get cars, furniture, start bank accounts etc. Hundreds of people in Baltimore have been blessed already. The Hardeman Singers make this service even more colorful. They are noted for their unique style of singing and the force and spirit they put into the songs.

This state's witness sat in courtroom all day long

A housekeeper who works in the 2000 block N. Bentalou Street, spent all day Thursday, August 7, seated in a Criminal Courtroom waiting for the trial of a youth accused of breaking and entering a neighbor's house last month.

Because she was a state's witness, a policeman came to her place of employment last Thursday and advised her to be sure to be on hand. When she asked whether she might be excused since she had given a written statement of the incident as she saw it, she was advised she would have to be present.

Promptly at 10 a.m., she was seated in the first floor courtroom of Judge Edwin Harlan, where she was advised the trial would be held.

At the midday lunch hour, no one advised her that the trial would not come up.

Finally, about 4 p.m., when the only trial held in that court was over, she was advised that the burglary suspect would not be tried because "everybody's on vacation. We'll notify you when to return."

She lost a day's pay, and her employer had to hire another housekeeper for the day.

Said the law-abiding citizen: "Now I know it doesn't pay to be helpful to the police . . . . all day long like that in a courtroom."

Nkrumah urges 'quarantine'

LONDON (NNPA) — Dr. Kwame Nkrumah, Prime Minister of Ghana, who arrived here Sunday from New York on a private visit, urged that the whole of the Middle East be neutralized.

Dr. Nkrumah told reporters at the airport Sunday that "The United Nations should consider the possibility of quarantining or neutralizing the whole area of the Middle East with sovereignty being preserved. The oil resources should be brought under some international arrangement."

Asked when he would abolish the special powers of his government to arrest and imprison a person up to five years without a hearing or trial, he replied: "That depends on how we all behave." He added "they" would have to follow his example and "behave as well as I do."

The changing of Ghana into a republic was "not a rush matter," Dr. Nkrumah said. It is an independent state within the British Commonwealth and has a Governor General representing the British Crown.

'Jessie' dead after night on floor

PHILADELPHIA

"Jessie slept on the floor all night. That's where I found her."

Homicide Detective Sgt. Charles McGinley reported this as the statement of Ernest Bright, 41, upon being questioned in the death of his wife who was found in their third-floor room apartment in the 700 block S. 11th St. on Saturday.

Sgt. McGinley also stated the following:

Bright admitted that he and his 32-year-old wife fought on Friday night. He was scratched; she was struck.

Mrs. Bright went out about 11 p.m. and returned two hours later. She slept on the floor where her body was found the next morning.

Bruises of the face and lacerations of the eye were apparent.

AN AUTOPSY by Dr. Joseph Campbell of the Medical Examiner's office showed a ruptured liver as cause of death. This was possibly due to a kick in the stomach, the pathologist declared.

YOUR FUTURE IS GREAT IN A GROWING AMERICA

4000 MORE BRIDES DAILY MEAN MORE BUSINESS COAST-TO-COAST

...00 new families a day! They'll need homes—and everything that goes into them. Meeting these needs means bigger-than-ever opportunities for all of us.

In 1956 America's 53 million families spent an average of:

$1350 for Food — $475 for Clothes
$1300 for Homes — $575 for Transportation

Now multiply these figures by 60 million—the number of families there will be by 1965. This will give you some idea of America's growing needs—and your opportunities.

7 BIG REASONS FOR CONFIDENCE IN AMERICA'S FUTURE

1. More People . . . Four million babies yearly. U.S. population has doubled in last 50 years! And our prosperity curve has always followed our population curve.

2. More Jobs . . . Though employment in some areas has fallen off, there are 12 million more jobs than in 1939—and there will be 22 million more by 1975 than today.

3. More Income . . . Family income after taxes is at an all-time high of $5300—is expected to pass $7000 by 1975.

4. More Production . . . U.S. production doubles every 20 y . . . We will require millions more people to make, sell and distribute our products.

5. More Savings . . . Individual savings are at highest level ever—$310 billion—a record amount available for spending.

6. More Research . . . $10 billion spent each year will pay off in more jobs, better living, whole new industries.

7. More Needs . . . In the next few years we will need $500 billion worth of schools, highways, homes, durable equipment. Meeting these needs will create new opportunities for everyone.

Add them up and you have the makings of another big upswing. Wise planners, builders and buyers will act now to get ready for it.
