$100 bargain is biggest of all Baltimore Colts

A huge frame emerged from the mass of blue and white jerseys at the 27-yard line of Memorial Stadium's football field, hurtled itself through the air and batted down an attempted kick off the toe of young Bob McGee in the early stages of Monday's Baltimore Colts intra-squad game.

"Nice going, Dad," shouted Linebacker Don Shinnick, reaching down and lending a hand to the prostrate figure. As he climbed to his feet—all 6 feet, 6 inches and 288 pounds of him—Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb scowled: "Humph, that kid's gotta hurry better'n that!"

The "kid" he referred to is, of course, McGee, a rookie end from Monmouth College and one of several young kickers the Colts are grooming in the hope of easing their punting woes of 1957. Even in pre-game exhibition kicking, McGee has all the signs of being much too deliberate for effective work in a regular professional game.

Lipscomb, Shinnick and the Blues were destined to lose the 10-7 decision to the Colts in the annual Colts Night ceremonies before 48,309, but that one play served to remind observers that the big, likeable Lipscomb is one of football's most interesting stories.

WHEN REGULAR defensive tackle Tom Finnin was injured in September of 1956 the Colts needed a replacement in a hurry. All they needed was a big guy who could fill the gap until the 250-pound Finnin was ready to resume.

While feverishly scanning the waiver list of the National Football League, coach Weeb Ewbank happened upon the name of Lipscomb.

On the surface he appeared to answer the description of the reserve that was so badly needed.

What the Colts actually received from the Los Angeles Rams for their $100 waiver price was a revelation.

Not only did the massive Lipscomb mug up the tackle void in the emergency, he became the regular assignment and the Hosses traded off Finnin.

GENE IS currently preparing to open his third season as the Baltimore club's number one right tackle on defense. The giant from Detroit's Miller High School owns long, powerful arms and huge hands like hands. He's capable of knocking down opposing ball carriers much like one would swat a fly.

As Gene himself maintains, "Once I get my hands on 'em (runners) I've got 'em for good."

He laid his potent paws on a flock of enemy ball carriers last fall, according to the coaching staff's count from viewing films "Big Daddy," as he is known to his teammates, accounted for 125 tackles — 54 more than the next most active Colt.

He boasts amazing speed and avility for a man of his bulk. These factors, combined with his tremendous wingspan, make the Lipscomb lad a formidable obstacle for any foe.

He is intensely proud of his fleetness a foot and lustily brags of his feat in the "the legs of a sprinter."

* * *

GENE CAN support any claims he makes on the gridiron. He has demonstrated his speed by helping to overhaul the lightning-legged Hopalong Cassidy after Hoppy had broken away from scrimmage for a 57-yard jaunt.

One of the best pursuit trackers in the business, Lipscomb roams from one side of the field to the other to belt down ball carriers. He is also regarded as the surest tackler on the Colt squad.

* * *

WHEN THE opposition takes to the air Gene thrusts his arms skyward and usually succeeds either in batting the pigskin off its course or blocking the passer's view.

And when the rush is on "Big Daddy" can be pure poison to that loser. In the fading minutes of a crucial contest with Washington last November, he teamed with end Don Joyce to smear Eddie LaBaron and preserve a 21-17 Baltimore victory.

Johnny Bridgers, who tutors the Colts' defensive line, calls Lipscomb "the most improved and probably the most underrated tackle in the league last year."

The coach also voiced the opinion that "at 28 Gene's best years are still ahead of him."

Patterson confident

LOS ANGELES — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson is making no solid predictions as to the outcome of Monday night's title fight at Wrigley Field, but there is no doubt whatsoever that he is brimming with confidence.

"He's been experimenting all this week," said manager Cus D'Amato, indicating that both Floyd and his handlers are entirely satisfied with the champ's condition. Patterson is a holding 1 to 7 favorite to whip Roy Harris of Cut and Shoot, Texas, and is expected to go even lower by fight time.

PATTERSON was slated to wind up drills at his Oceanside training camp with a light work out Sunday. Although his plans were not definite, it was expected that the titleholder will engage only in rope skipping and shadow boxing in a Sunday morning session.

He and his retinue will motor here Sunday night.

IN THE meantime, Harris-winner of 22 straight-in an all-Texas campaign, may work through Sunday afternoon and then spend the night at Big Bear Lake in the nearby mountains north of Los Angeles.

The challenger's camp will move into the city early Monday morning.

The fight will be shown on theatre TV only.

Sollers Pt. is host to tennis players

Last week the Sollers Point High Playground held an elimination tennis tournament for participants of the regular tennis classes.

These students ranged in ages from nine through 18.

Trophies were awarded to the first and second place winners, awards to third place winners and certificates to fourth. The tournament was conducted by Mrs. Helen Patterson, tennis instructor at the playground.

The results are as follows:

MIDGET BOYS—Thomas Romey, 1st; Raynard Jones, 2nd; Franklin Graves, 3rd; Charles Trier, 4th.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR BOYS—Robert Evans, 1st; Douglas Bridges, 2nd; Billy Bridges, 3rd; Mildred Blow , 4th.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR GIRLS—Phyllis Strawther, 1st; Rosa Blow , 2nd; Hattie Johnson, 3rd; Mildred Blow , 4th.

Other participants were: Charles Bridges, Nathan Cole, James Coberly, Leslie Webb, James Curbean, Robert Dickerson, Timothy Douglass, and Theodore Parrish.

Full schedule for Westport this weekend

Baltimore fans have a busy weekend in prospect insofar as topflight colored baseball is concerned.

Four high-ranking clubs are listed for appearances here within the next three days, beginning tonight (Friday) at Westport Stadium.

Goose Tatum's Detroit Clowns are at the Old Annapolis road ballwick to oppose the Kansas City Monarchs in a Negro American League encounter at 8:15 p.m. this evening. On Monday night, the Indianapolis Clowns and Los Angeles Hawks stage a repeat performance at Westport.

Tatum's Detroit lineup has several longball hitters, headed by Nat (Sweetwater) Clifton, ex - Cleveland Indians farmhand.

The Monarchs, on the other hand, boast the best pitching in the NAL. Aubrey Grigsby is the loop's top winner with a 6-0 record, while Jesse Townsend holds the strikeout lead with 74 whiffs.

ON MONDAY night, the Indianapolis funnymen will bring in their wild and wooly assortment of baseball and antics.

As usual, King Tut, Spec Bebop and Ed Hammah will be featured in the famed comedy routines.

Kozy Korner nine claims independent softy title

Harris' Kozy Lorner softball team laid claim to the city independent championship this week, following impressive victories over strong local rivals.

On Sunday, the Korners edged Club 511 at Easterwood Park, 3-2, then came back Tuesday to beat the Wilson Park A.C., 9-5.

With Sam Chisholm hurling 4-hit ball, the Kozy Korner nine ranged out seven safeties in setting down 51, the State softball tournament entry.

On Tuesday in Wilson Park, pitcher Lloyd Maith (the Hawk) had the Wilson batsmen handcuffed until the sixth inning when they did their first Kool Kids will take on Club Paree in Druid Hill Park at 2 p.m. A special challenge is issued to all State Tournament players.

For games contact the following: Louis Harris, 701 Bartlett Ave., Belmont 5-4676, or Wm. H. Logan, 2228 Barclay Street, Belmont 5-2772. Wilson was never a scoring.

Same old story, McCain singing the Hawks' blues

PRINCESS ANNE, Md.—"No one is permitted to live in the past; it's what you can deliver today that counts."

Vernon (Skip) McCain was brushing off some allusions to his almost unbelievable ten-year string of football successes as he coach at Maryland State College.

* * *

LOSING TEN players from last year's varsity presages trouble ahead for the perennial toughies of the CIAA.

The record compiled by McCain is evidence enough that the erstwhile mathmatics professor should never be taken lightly. But the age of miracles is past, and the Hawks' 1958 edition, minus John Sample, Stan Jones, Andy Dement, Vernon Vaughn and six other stalwarts could find themselves heading for a sub-par season.

* * *

THE HAWK squad apparently will be built around Roger (Rajah) Brown, Frank Robinson, Quitley Cooper and Willie Wyatt. But McCain insists that every position is open, which could be another way of saying he sees no standout performer.

Those close to the wily mentor are saying, however, tha McCain has seen this yea coming and that he is not t tally unprepared.

Little Leaguers tied for first

Maple Glen and Mt. Olive were locked in a tie for first place in the Northwest YMCA Little League this week, each boasting a 6-1 record.

The Glenmen were boasting an unbeaten season until they tangled with Mt. Olive at Annapolis on Monday. The latter scored a 4-2 win, thereby creating the deadlock for leadership.

* * *

IN THE meantime, other Maple Glen teams were annexing victories.

The Shoppers defeated Conway, 9-0, and the Tigers downed Catonsville, 14-2.

The Midgets, on Wednesday, blanked First Baptist; 12-0, going ahead early and increasing their lead as the game progressed.

In Memoriam 1

BROOKS — In loving memory of my dear husband, ERNEST A., who departed this life August 13, 1949.
Gone, but not forgotten.
To my heart I'd like to stray;
Along the road of yesterday.
To hear you laugh, to see you smile
And talk with you a little while.
I'd love to linger along the way
That leads me back to yesterday.
Devoted Wife,
ELLEN.

CALDWELL — In loving memory of my dear daughter, A-1/C Private First Class, ELMER J. CALDWELL, who departed this life August 16, 1957.
Our Angel child has gone above,
To the blessed garden in love.
In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly, tender fond and true
There is not a day, my darling,
That we do not think of you.
Lovingly,
MOTHER AND FAMILY.

CARPENTER — In loving memory of my dear mother, FLORENCE L., who departed this life August 1, 1956.
We do not forget you, we love her too dearly
For her memory to fade from our lives like a flower.
Our hearts need not speak when our hearts are in sorrow,
For grief often dwells where it seems peacefully sleeping, resting at last.
The world's weary troubles and trials are past.
No sister she suffered, in patience endured,
Till God called her home to suffer no more.
Devoted Husband,
RAYMOND, SR.
Daughter,
RAYMOND, JR.
Daughter-in-law,
GLORIA

COLBERT — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, REV. JOHN T. COLBERT, who departed this life August 16, 1957.
Not dead to us who loved him,
Not lost, but gone before;
A place with us he filled,
And still forever more.
DEVOTED WIFE AND CHILDREN

HARDY — In loving memory of our dear sister, MARTHA F. HARDY, who departed this life August 16, 1955.
You are not forgotten,
Dear sister, you are not;
As long as life and memory last,
We will always think of thee.
LOVING SISTERS
AND BROTHERS

JONES, ANITA HARDEN — In loving memory of our mother, ANITA HARDEN JONES, who entered eternal rest August 16, 1956.
Though absent you are always
Still loved, still missed, still very dear.
YOUR CHILDREN.

OGBURN — In loving memory of my dear husband and brother, LOUIS OGBURN who passed away August 15, 1956:
Gone but not forgotten.
Your loving wife,
GRACE OGBURN
AND SISTER.

Card Of Thanks 2

COULBURN — I wish to extend my many thanks to all my friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindnesses shown at the time of my devoted friend SAMUEL COULBURN.
MISS SALLIE JENKINS
844 Hampson Street.

I WISH to express my grateful thanks to our pastor, Rev. A. A. Miller, Asher visiting ministers, my many loving friends, neighbors and the membership of Trinity A.M.E. Church, for their prayers, cards, flowers, inquiries and other expressions of cheer during my hospitalization, at home, and while a shut-in I solicit your continued prayers for a complete recovery.
