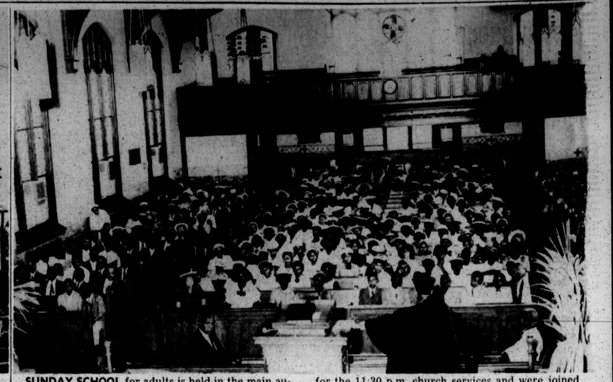
IMPOSING CHURCH EDIFICE of the Rehoboth Church of God in Christ Jesus is located at 700 Poplar Grove St. The building includes a large air-conditioned auditorium which seats 900 persons, a community center, Sunday School rooms, three nurseries, dining room, kitchen and the bishops' suite of offices which is also air-conditioned. Note neatly clipped hedge, and the abundance of shrubbery. The bulletin board announces daily and Sunday services.



SUNDAY SCHOOL for adults is held in the main auditorium of the church. Bishop Carr is reviewing the class which included 335 persons who remained for the 11:30 p.m. church services and were joined by others filling both the auditorium and the balcony.

Storefront Church Is Now World-Wide Organization

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

Twenty - four years go in January, 1934, a young minister organized a Pentacostal church in a storefront room at 219 N. Mount St.

He was educated in London and the British West Indies and when he became a Baltimore resident he saw a need for the teachings of the Pentacostal faith.

Today his church occupies a $100,000 building and has more than 700 members. Other churches he has organized in Baltimore have a total of more than 1,000 members.

However, most miraculous of all, the young minister's church has spread to all parts of the United States and many foreign countries.

The pastor who now is head of the world-wide church is Bishop Randolph A. Carr.

The Baltimore church where he is pastor is the Rehoboth Church of God in Christ Jesus, (Apostolic) 700 Poplar Grove St.

As founder and presiding bishop of the progressive religious kingdom, Bishop Carr ministers to more than 1,000 persons who respect him as their leader.

At least twice a year the Rt. Rev. Mr. Carr visits his churches abroad, inspires the workers in the field and carefully plans business and expansion to benefit them in education and general welfare.

THE AFRO interviewed Bishop Carr shortly after his summer tour of the European churches.

He had just returned aboard the Queen Elizabeth which also brought Governor Theodore McKeldin and Federal Judge Simon Sobeloff, home.

The Rt. Rev. Mr. Carr spent two weeks in churches in London and Birmingham where he modestly reports their growth is "rapid and satisfactory."

The Birmingham Church of God in Christ is pastored by Bishop A. D. Proctor while Rev. W. L. Morgan is pastor of the Church of God in London.

Other churches in countries outside the United States are also showing progress, Bishop Carr reports.

In Jamaica, B.W.I., alone there are 40 churches.

There, where inhabitants of the island are in great need of educational opportunities as well as material and spiritual, Bishop Carr's workers, missionaries and pastors are on duty night and day.

ONE OF the most prominent of the foreign field bishops is Bishop James S. Watson, pastor of Bethel Temple, Jamaica. The distinguished churchman is presently visiting in Baltimore.

Bishop Watson has been in the United States since May when he attended the national convocation of the church held at Rehoboth in Baltimore on Pentacost Day, 50 days after Easter.

In conference with Bishop Carr, Bishop Watson is here to discuss problems and find ways to develop churches in his country.

Other British West Indies churches include those in St. Kitts, Montserrat and the Nevis area where the Rev. Simeon Stanley is overseer and pastor of the Nevis Rehoboth church. Nevis is Bishop Carr's birthplace.

Additional churches are located in Central America, the Canal Zone and South America.

CHURCHES IN THE states are located in all areas East of the Mississippi.

The Baltimore Rehoboth church is headquarters for all churches.

Assistant to the Rt. Rev. Mr. Carr is Bishop Monroe R. Saunders, a young minister who was trained for the ministry at the Howard University School of Religion.

He also earned a bachelor's degree in the liberal arts college there.

A native of Florence, S.C., Bishop Saunders came to Baltimore when he was 18 years of age.

He is now married to the former Miss Alberta Brockington of Baltimore.

The Saunders children are Monroe Jr., 10, Jacqueline, 8, and Esther, 5.

They reside in a colonial home at 3002 N. Hilton St.

THE RT. REV. Mr. Saunders also pastors the Washington Rehoboth church, located at 8th and L St., NW. and is head of the world-wide educational program offered by the church.

Bishop Saunders credits his success in the church to Bishop Carr who tutored him for 23 years.

Young Bishop Saunders says: "Whatever I have accomplished in helping further the work of the church is due to the excellent spiritual guidance given me by Bishop Carr."

He and Bishop Carr occupy air conditioned office suites located in the Baltimore Rehoboth church.

From these offices the two bishops direct the intricate affairs of the 100,000 members around the world.

Baltimore churches are Bethel, located at Mosher St. and Myrtle Ave.; Elder Frederick D. Flowers, pastor; New Jerusalem, 1000 Gay St., Elder David A. Lee, pastor.

A new $50,000 church home is under construction in the 2600 block of Hoffman St. which will house the St. Paul congregation where the Elder William S. Barnes is pastor.

However, the Rehoboth church is an example of the carefully planned but complex organization which is set up to guide, direct and protect each group from birth to death.

The Apostolic church practices baptism in the manner of the early days of New Testament tradition. That is, baptism is by immersion into the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. This is according to the Acts of the Apostles, Chapters 2:19 and 10 churches baptize in the later tradition following the period of the church councils of the 3rd Century, and the Council of Nicea, 325 AD at which time the doctrine of the Trinity was established as the orthodox teaching of the church.

IN TOUCHING all phases of the lives of his parishers care, Bishop Carr has divided the members into groups with specific duties involving the "heart the hand and the mind."

As a result, members have few marital difficulties; there are no cases of juvenile delinquency and those connected with the church are recognized as outstanding citizens in the city and community.

Bishop Carr, has raised standards and social and economic level to the extent of actually helping to putting his people on the road to owning their own property. As the result, a majority number of them are home owners.

Civic - minded and anxious that all Americans receive their rights, the church has committees devoted to these matters.

The NAACP contributions are collected each year by Mrs. Eleanor Powell, who is a leader of the Peacemettes, a group of young women.

This organization also has as its purpose the instruction of unmarried women in personal and private matters.

Miss Hazel Jones is the director and president. The group was in charge of the May Day festival which was attended by more than 1,000 persons from all parts of the world.

THE ROSEBUD group is composed of children from one to six years of age and is directed by Mrs. Daisey Green and Mrs. Ada Johnson.

The Pentacostal Young Peoples' Union is sponsored by George Payne, president. They meet each Sunday at 6 p.m.

PURITY CLASS leader is Mrs. Myre Tabb who is assisted by the church mother, Mrs. Rosie Jones.

Here young women are instructed in moral and personal hygiene and those from 12 to 18 years of age are taught how to meet problems which arise as they undergo physiological development.

The Boys' Club is headed by Deacon McNeil Breckington who supervises training for young lads between the ages of seven and 18.

The Young Matrons Club is headed by Mrs. Lillian Dickens.

Aims include the moral and hygenic training of young married women with emphasis on child care and home management.

The Older Matrons Club is directed by Mrs. Willie Pace.

These members are those who are married and have reared families and they assist in instructing younger women to stabilize family life.

THE MEN'S Club is under direction of James Tynes and is organized to help young men in problems of the home and family.

The Young Laid Aid Club is headed by Mrs. Sally Mickens and is organized for older women who enjoy sewing, cooking, reading and church work as they 'grow old together.'

Sewing Circle No. 1 is headed by Mrs. Mary James while the No. 2 Circle is directed by Mrs. Alice Green.

The Pastor's Aid club is directed by Mrs. Ethel Duncan while Miss Hazel Jones heads the Sunshine Band, a group of children from six to 12 years of age.

The Mothers Club is supervised by Mother Jones.

The Improvement Club has John Respers as president while the School of Education staff is under Bishop Saunders who is assisted by Miss Betty Keene.

Secretaries are Mrs. Vera Sims and Mrs. Ruth B. Mickens.

The office staff includes Mrs. Eugenia Sills and Miss Shirley Edwards. Librarians are headed by Mrs. Monzella Saunders.

The Educational program of the church maintains the school for the purpose of training men and women for work in the church and for the ministry.

Sunday School teachers are instructed in the school which also has a Bible Institute.

Off-duty phase of education is scheduled for persons who wish to continue elementary and high school subjects.

There are also commercial subjects offered, as well as instruction on office machines, etc.

THE SCHOLARSHIP fund was founded to aid students in high school, colleges and universities.

Play and recreation are conducted in Rehoboth Grove in Howard County.

There, children and adults go for outings. All activities are supervised The church owns a bus which transports members to the playground.

Probably the most far-reaching organization of the church is the Sunday School which has more than 500 members both adult and children.

Bishop Carr himself reviews the adult classes on Sunday morning. Superintendent is Benjamin Duncan.

The choirs and music department are also an important part of church life and are under the direction of Elmer Pace.

Organist is Timothy Green while the two pianists are Mortrecia Johnson and Dorothy White.

The Young Men's Chorus leader is Elleau Johnson while the Mesdames Monzella Saunders directs the Young People's Chorus.

The Music Club is headed by Horace Sims, president.

AMONG THE most prominent churches of the faith in America are Gospel Tabernacle, Roxbury, Mass., Evangelist L. B. Williams, pastor; Rehoboth, Roxbury, the Rev. Wendell McCloud, pastor and assistant to Bishop Carr; Gospel Tabernacle, New Rochelle, N.Y. Bishop Thomas Gibson, pastor; First Pentacostal Church, Asbury Park, N.J., pastor; Bethel, Princeton, minister; Rehoboth, Philadelphia, Elder J. R. Lewis, pastor;

And, Pentacostal Apostolic Faith Church, Chicago, Bishop T. T. Harwood, pastor; Rehoboth, Atlanta, Ga., Elder Robert Glass, pastor; St. Matthews, Florence, S.C., Elder Joseph Johnson, pastor; and Temple Faith, Anawalt, W. Va., Elder George Carpenter, pastor.

The Baltimore Rehoboth church board of deacons includes:

Deacons Benjamin Duncan, McNeil Breckington, Henry Willie, William Auston, Eugene Turner, William Hardy, Jesse Gibson, William Tate, Louis Privott, and Grover C. Drummond.

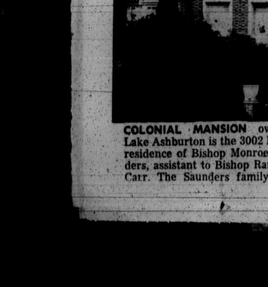
RAMBLING RANCH style house shown above is residence of Bishop Randolph A. Carr, a bachelor, who returns home each day at noon from his office, visiting the sick, and taking care of business. Located at 4805 Forest Park Ave., the brick home is set off by wide lawns and varied shrubbery. The peaceful setting was chosen by the Rt. Rev. Mr. Carr who enjoys quiet hours in meditation at home, after trips to churches and missions in the United States and abroad.



COLONIAL MANSION overlooking Lake Ashburton is the 3002 Hilton St., residence of Bishop Monroe A. Saunders, assistant to Bishop Randolph A. Carr. The Saunders family includes Mrs. Saunders who is the former Miss Alberta Brockington of Baltimore and their children, Monroe, Jr., 10, Jacqueline, 8, and Esther, 5.

TENDER CARE is given to toddlers in cribs and play pens while their mothers attend church and Sunday School. Shown above are the nurses who watch over more than 30 little ones each Sunday from 9 a.m. until after church services. They are left to right, Mesdames Rose Carr, Georgianna Bernard, Vernetta Burrell and Mary F. Tucker.

WOMEN'S CHOIR files into the church at the opening of the morning services. Black ties on choir robes are in the form of the cross. Prior to the processional church members who participated in the main auditorium sang spirited sacred songs accompanied by the orchestra which includes accordion, bass violin, violins, clarinet, saxophone and electric guitars. The great organ also formed background music along with the piano.

Welfare Department granted second $60,000 request

"You can't let people go hungry — we have to go along."

Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro, Jr., offered this comment Wednesday, as he okayed a requested $60,000 from the city's contingent fund for the Department of Public Welfare.

The grant marks the second $60,000 granted the Welfare Department this year.

In Memoriam

BROWN—In loving memory of our dear sister and aunt, SADIE P. BROWN, who passed away August 22, 1955.

Our lips cannot tell how we miss her.

Our hearts cannot tell what to say.

God alone knows how we miss her,

In a home that is lonesome today.

LOVING SISTERS,
BROTHER, NIECES AND NEPHEWS.

JOHNSON — In memory of JAMES JOHNSON, who departed this life August 25, 1954.

Four years have passed since that sad day,
Your face we loved was called away.
God took him home it was His will,
Within our hearts he lives still.
BY THE FAMILY.

JONES — In loving remembrance of my dear husband and father, WILLIAM A. JONES, who passed away one year ago, August 22, 1957.

Your memory to us is a keepsake,
With wisdom you left behind.
Though God has you in His keeping
We still have you in mind.
LOVING WIFE AND CHILDREN.
