Dr. Toney writes for cancer journal

PHILADELPHIA — An International Journal of Biology titled Growth which is edited at The Institute for Cancer Research in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania has published another scientific article submitted by Dr. M. E. Toney, Jr., of the Department of Biology, Virginia Union University.

The title of the latest article is "Morphology of The Blood Cells of Some Crustacea" which appears in the June, 1958 issue of Growth. A previous scientific article submitted by the same author titled "Histology of the Anterior Pituitary Gland of the Frog During Normal Development" appeared in the same journal in 1954.

Dr. Toney has received numerous requests for reprints of his articles from schools in the United States and foreign countries. Included among these requesting reprints are the Universities of Arkansas, California, Southern California, Wisconsin, Illinois, Brown, Harvard Medical College, Rice Institute, Rockerfeller Institute for Medical Research and also school in such foreign countries as England, Italy, Chile, Finland, South Africa, France, Canada, Germany, Holland, Hungary and Denmark.

He is the holder of the following degrees: B.S., Virginia Union University, M.D.; Meharry Medical College, M.S., and Ph.D., The Catholic University of America. He is married to the former Miss Louise Christian and they have one son. Dr. Toney is a native of Urbanna, Va.

Mrs. Mary Cook

Mrs. Mary Cook, 47, 1805 Walbrook Ave., died last Saturday in Provident Hospital after a brief illness.

Born in Roanoke, Va., Mrs. Cook came to Baltimore in 1943.

She attended Metropolitan Methodist Church.

She was also a member of the Baltimore Fashionette Savings Club.

Mrs. Cook was extremely fond of sewing, she made articles for the home, and most of her own clothing.

She adopted her sister's son Melvin Petty, and raised him as her own child.

Mr. Petty is now employed by the Erie Railroad in New York.

• • •

SURVIVING IS her husband, William Cook; two sisters Mrs. Melba McGee of New York and Miss Rita Jean Petty of Roanoke, Va.; two brothers, Jesse Clark of Oakland, Calif., and Edward Petty of Washington D.C.

She is also survived by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Petty of Roanoke, Va.

Funeral services were held in Roanoke, Va. Wednesday.

Brief initial rites were held at the Arlington S. Phillips Funeral Home, 1808-10 N. Monroe St. Thursday night.
