Go to Church for Guidance To a Better Way of Life

Deacon board fetes leader

The board of deacons of the Union Baptist Church, Druid Hill Ave. near Dolphin St., the Rev. Baxter L. Matthews' pastor, surprised its long time chairman, Deaver Y. Smith, with a birthday party at the first fall session on Sept. 2.

Mr. Smith, 1411 Pennsylvania Ave., is a well known coffee and tea merchant.

Deacons include Walter A. Baker Charles H. Bennett, Charles Pressy, Harold Delong, Cornelius Smith, Arthur Smith, Mack D. Taylor, W. W. Hughes, William A. Chatmon, Henry A. Campbell, Matthew Laws, Goerge Harris, Henry Clark, Hesker Santhorp.

Mrs. Grace H. Delong and Mrs. Ida Bennett were hostesses for the party.

19 years old and already ordained

REV. WILLIAM HAMILTON

The Rev. William E. Hamilton, assistant pastor of the St. Paul Freewill Baptist Church 406 E. 23rd St., at the age of 19, claims he is the youngest minister to be ordained in the Balter to be ordained in the Baltimore-Washington area.

The Rev. Mr. Hamilton, originally from Talladega, Ala., came to Baltimore three years ago. At that timt he preached in 22 states.

Under the guidance of the Rev. M. Hodge and Mr. and Mrs. Valmore Durham of 1528 W. Lanvale St., he was able to meet the Rev. J. A. Green, pastor of Gospel Temple Baptist Church.

"It was the Rev. Mr. Green who gave me my first chance to preach," the yohng minister said.

Since then, he says, he has preached in some of the largest churches in Baltimore. Including Gillis Memorial, Perkins Square Baptist, and Apostolic Faith.

IN ADDITION to being a minister, the Rev. Mr. Hamilton is a pianist and a singer.

He has appeared on the same programs along with the Ward Singers, the Davis Sister, and the Raspberry Gospel Singers.

He is single and currently living with his older brother, who is a mortician, at 739 Newington Ave.

The Rev. Hamilton has completed two years of theology school and plans to return to complete the remaining two years in pursuit of his degree.

Eventually, the young minister says, he would like to make a career of teaching.

Methodist women sponsor retreat

More than one hundred wives of ministers of the Delaware and Washington Conferences of The Methodist Church attended the first annual Ministers Wives Retreat at the Morgan State College Christian Center here Sept. 7.

The retreat was sponsored by the Baltimore Area, of which Bishop Edgar A. Love is the resident bishop, and the Rev. Daniel L. Rideout administrative assistant.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Harrison J. Bryant, wife of the pastor of Bethel AME Church, Baltimore, who spoke on the theme, "I wanted to marry a minister—and I did!" The Sunday morning address was delivered by Mrs. J. J. Barnes, widow of the late Washington Conference pastor.

THE FOLLOWING topics were discussed:

"What is required of a minister's wife?" by Mrs. C. A. Scott, Baltimore; Mrs. Calvin Crosson, Washington; Mrs. J. U. Watson, Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. J. W. Haywood, Washington, with Mrs. J. F. Haskins, Laurel, Md., as moderator.

"As we see the ministry," by wives of young ministers: Mrs. DePriest Whye, Lexington, Va.; Mrs. Edwin Ellis, Princess Anne, Md.; Mrs. Godfrey Tate, Ronceverte, W. Va.; Mrs. B. M. Hargrove, Pittsburgh, with Mrs. W. R. Hazzard, Philadelphia, as moderator.

"When our children were growing up," by Mrs. W. L. D. Lyght, Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. Alexander Reed, Upper Hill, Md.; Mrs. C. B. LaGrange, Lusby, Md.; Mrs. J. O. Lockman, Lincoln, Del., with Mrs. C. W. Derrickson, Salisbury, Md., as moderator.

"Making ends meet on short rations," by Mrs. W. G. Brown, Jersey City, N.J.; Mrs. B. P. Jordan, Laytonsville, Md.; Mrs. R. H. Johnson, Washington, with Mrs. E. P. Clark, Pittsburgh, as moderator.

"MEETING THE public," by Mrs. J. E. Bishop, Port Norris, N.J.; Mrs. K. P. Barnes, Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. R. B. Thompson, Philadelphia, with Mrs. C. L. Trader, Easton, Md., as moderator.

"Church Leadership—opportunities and limitations," by Mrs. L. A. Dyson, Glen Burnie, Md.; Mrs. C. D. Gerald, Seaford, Del.; Mrs. N. B. Carrington, Baltimore; Mrs. W. C. Strother, Philadephia, with Mrs. J. B. A. Dyson, Baltimore, as moderator.

"The unique privilege of growing up in a parsonage," by children of ministers: Peggie Kiah, Bridgeville, Del.; Edward Carroll, Jr., Baltimore; Sallie Derrickson, Salisbury, Md.; Elmer Hammond, Baltimore, with Barbara Barnes, Alexandria, Va., as moderator.

A talent program Saturday night presented the following "PK's" (parsonage kids): Myrtle Mack, Adelia Hammond, Elmer Hammond, Peggie Kiah, Amelia Parker, Edward Carroll Jr., Mrs. W. H. Greene, Mrs. A. C. Chancy, Hubert Spellman, Mrs. A. J. Dredden, Mrs. C. W. Cannon, Sallie Derrickson, Barbara Barnes.

OTHER PARTICIPANTS in the program were: Mrs. Edgar Love, Bishop Love, the Rev. and Mrs. Daniel L. Ridout, Mrs. M. L. McKenney of Camden, N.J.; Mrs. Edward Carroll, Baltimore; Mrs. M. O. Ballard, Dover, Del.; Mrs. J. L. Garrison, Baltimore; Mrs. E. H. Crampton, Philadelphia; Mrs. Howard Cornish, Baltimore, and Mrs. C. B. White, Crisfield, Md.

Mrs. C. B. Miles of Newark, N.J., was organist, and Mrs. R. S. Abernethy Jr., Westminster, Md., song leader.

Mrs. Prince A. Taylor, wife of the bishop of Monrovia, Liberia, was a surprise visitor at the retreat, and spoke in the interest of the Methodist work in Liberia.

Church study program set

The fifth annual Christian Workers' Institute will be held at the Memorial Baptist Church, Caroline and Preston Sts., Sept. 22-26.

This is a week's program of study and fellowship for Sunday School, Baptist Training Union and Missionary Workers.

Christian workers and leaders are invited to enroll in the classes which will convene nightly at 7:30.

Miss Helen V. Benton is dean of the institute and the Rev. C. Edward Browne is host minister.

Final rites held for Wellington Parker

Funeral rites were held Sunday for Willington Parker, a deacon of Enon Baptist Church.

Mr. Parker, died last Tuesday in his home after a brief illness.

The husband of Mrs. Elizabeth Parker, a home economics instructor at Dunbar High School, he came to Baltimore in 1937.

He was born in Philadelphia and reared in Blackstone, Va.

MR. PARKER served as a deacon of Enon Baptist Church for nine years.

He was also a member of the Gospel Chorus, the Missionary Society and the Brotherhood.

A thirty-second degree Mason, Mr. Parker belonged to Eden Lodge No. 72. He was also a member of the Eastern Star, Gethsemane Chapter No. 34.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Pearline Scarsborough, Mrs. Jessie Mae Pulley and Mrs. Pollie Conway; and a son, Darrow Parker.

Floyd Long

Floyd Long, 58, died Sunday during the first week of his four-week vacation in Provident Hospital after a brief illness.

Mr. Long was born in Salisbury, N.C. He came to Baltimore at an early age.

He was employed by a local oil refining company for the past 32 years.

Mr. Long was a member of St. John AME Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hattie Long; four brothers: Council, Leroy, William, Johnny Long; two sisters: Mrs. Maggie Leezer, Mrs. Nora Harlan.

Funeral rites were held last Thursday from St. John AME Church.

Ward Jackson

Funeral rites were held Sunday at the Berea Temple Seventh Day Adventist Church, Madison Ave. and Robert St., for Edward Jackson, 63, 5201 Kenilworth Ave.

Mr. Jackson died in his home last Wednesday, collapsstabbing Emmitt Harrison, 46, tack.

Formerly of 702 W. Lanvale St., Mr. Jackson has lived in Baltimore the past 45 years.

He was originally from Anne Arundel County.

He was formerly a member of Ames Methodist Church, Baker and Carey Sts. At the time of his death he attended his wife's church, Berea Temple.

Mr. Jackson was employed as an engineer by a local construction company for 42 years.

He is also survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary L. Jackson; three daughters, Mrs. Amelia Greshem, Mrs. Shirley Jones, and Mrs. Edna Eason; three sons Howard, Edward Jr. and William Jackson.

Also surviving is a brother, Andrew Jackson, and nine grandchildren.

CORRECTION

A recent obituary on John E. Robinson, 268 Robert St., failed to identify Mrs. Elizabeth Garrison and Mrs. Ellen Warfield as his stepsisters.

The Rev. Gertrude Wells officiated at the services.

World Council of Churches ends session in Denmark

By BISHOP D. WARD

COPENHAGEN, Denmark — The Control Committee of the World Council of Churches closed Aug 30-31.

Delegates were here from all parts of the world. Mrs. Nichols and I were the only colored Americans here, but many delegates were here from East Asia and the darker nations.

Last night there was a reception by the City of Copenhagen and a great service at the Cathedral which the King and Queen of Denmark and more than 3,000 persons attended.

There were many different kinds of robes, I noted. Dr. Jens Thompson, secretary of the Council of Churches of Denmark; Dr. Bursell, St. Louis, Mo. of the Lutheran Church; Metropolitan James of the Greek Orthodox Church and Dr. Eugene Blake, stated clerk of the Presbyterian Church of the United States.

More than 300 clergymen were in the procession with some 150 from Denmark.

TODAY I WAS assigned to preach to an audience of 1,000 at the Church of The Holy Ghost. My interpreter said that the message was well received.

The Rev. Svend Lerfeldt is the pastor.

He took us to his home to dinner following the service and was most kind.

This is one of the oldest churches here, founded in 1269. The present building was erected in 1449 and is one of the finest structures in this part of the world.

It reminds one of Bethel in the great City of Baltimore. The service was one of the finest experiences that I have ever had.

THE PAPERS remain full of Little Rock and Alabama.

The United States has been given a bad name and does not have the respect of the people.

AFTER THE service this morning I was invited to a conference at which many questions were asked, among them:

1. Tell us more about Little Rock.
2. What is the attitude of the colored citizen who is so badly treated?
3. How can you preach loyalty under such conditions?
4. How can the U.S. face the people of the Far East and the Middle East?
5. Can you feel free at home?
6. Do you see why Arabs feel as they do about the U.S.?
7. Does the U.S. know that it is actually helping Russia?
8. Do you refuse to recognize China because of color?
9. What will happen to the poor Alabama colored man who faces death because of less than $2.00, which they say he stole?
10. Do you think there will be another Civil War in the U.S.?

There are just a few of the questions asked.

I was told that the Danish government would welcome colored Americans and treat them as first class citizens.

We go from here to Belgium and conduct the service there in the Protestant chapel on Sept 3. A service in English is conducted each day at noon in the chapel.

Christ Church tots entertained at party

Mrs. Rosalie Fields entertained the children's division of the church school of Christ Methodist Church at her country home Sunday evening.

The group met to make plans for the coming church school year and the Christmas holiday season.

Those present were: Misses Clara Adams, Carolyn Cornick, Lillian Johnson, Joan Smith, Madames Laura Boulding, Helen Chase, Beatrice Smith, Gloria Jones;

Messers. Howard Keene, Lewis Keene, James Parker. Mrs. Laura Boulding is superintendent of the division.

Palsy information

For the first time a central information service has been established in the UCP Service Center at 3013 Mondawmin Mall, to assist cerebral palsied children and adults, and to advice parents of victims of the Nation's "Number One Crippler."

Miss Prudence Bernstein, a graduate social worker, will be available for free consultation at the Service Center each Tuesday morning by appointment.

Persons desiring to meet with Miss Bernstein may call LAfayette 3-2433 at any time and make a reservation.

Words To Live By

By REV. ROBERT T. NEWBOLD

"How can I get people to love me?"

This is the question with which many people are wrestling. It points up the basic problem of a number of individuals.

Some of them may say, "I don't care whether people like me or not." But, such a statement cannot normally be accepted as accurate. For all of us want to be loved.

As a matter of fact it is generally agreed that we need to love and be loved. So, the opening query continues to press for consideration.

BEFORE WE can get people to love us we must first love ourselves—properly. Our attitude toward ourselves must be right before we will adopt the right attitude toward others.

Much of the hate we spew out on our acquaintances is a revelation of self-hatred.

Therefore, the reason we often cannot get along with others is because we have not learned how to get along with ourselves.

Frequently our failure to accept others is a reflection of the fact that we have not accepted ourselves.

The late Joshua Liebman stated the case on this wise, "We must have good domestic relations with ourselves before we can have good foreign relations with others."

All of this should lead us to conclude that if we have trouble getting people to love us, then, perhaps we need to take a healthy look at ourselves instead of a critical look at them.

MOREOVER, we must have a genuine love for people if we would have them love us.

Someone has accurately said that, "God made things to be used and people to be loved. We moderns have turned this around: For we love things and try to use people."

The indictment is correct. Many have to plead guilty. They are always scheming how they can use others for their own selfish purposes. And when those whom they try to use wake up to this fact they direct resentment toward the schemers. Yes, we all want to be loved; but, no one wishes to be used.

Are you trying to get people to love you? If you are, then become interested in others. Try to share their sorrows as well as their joys. Render assistance to them whenever you can remembering always that "There is a destiny that makes us brothers
No one goes his way alone.
That which we send into the live of others
Comes back into our very own."

Services for Mrs. Anna B. Coleman held Thursday; was Afro's Mrs. Santa

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at a funeral establishment in the 2000 block Orleans St. for Mrs. Anna Belle Coleman, the AFRO's Mrs. Santa Claus, who died suddenly on Sunday. Burial was in Mt. Calvary Cemetery.

More than 300 persons attended the 50 minute services conducted by the Rev. Sidney Daniels, pastor of Emmanuel Christian Community Church, where Mrs. Coleman had been a member for 10 years.

Mrs. Coleman celebrated her 50th birthday on August 26, soon after she left University hospital where she underwent a major operation.

Although she had suffered a heat condition since childhood, relatives thought she was improving when on Sunday she collapsed and died in her father's arm at her home, 700 N. Appleton St.

THE BODY lay in state from Tuesday until time for the services. More than 800 persons passed in review.

Many of the mourners were unfortunate persons Mrs. Coleman had remembered at Christmastime in her 15 years of charity work.

The kindly woman became the AFRO's Mrs. Santa Claus at Christmastime in 1956, when she gathered more than 1,000 presents for the sick and the needy in local institutions and hospitals.

Mrs. Coleman had carried on the one-woman project with the aid of neighbors and friends for more than 15 years.

She was a member of the Emmanuel Church Excelsior Circle and the Women's Democratic Clubs.

BORN IN Vicksburgh, Miss. Mrs. Coleman was one of eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor.

Her mother Mrs. Annie Elizabeth Taylor died in 1922. The family came to Baltimore and established their home at 768 George St. where the father George Taylor still resides.

Mrs. Coleman was married in 1938 to George James Coleman who survives her.

Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Willie Mae Burroughs, her brothers, Walter A. Taylor, Jr., and David C. Taylor of Newark, N.J.; a Nephew, Leo W. Burroughs, Jr., and a niece, Miss Shirley Taylor and her step mother, Mrs. George Taylor.

Also attending the services were Mr. and Mrs. Levi Washington, Washington; and Mrs. David Taylor, Newark, N.J.

At the Thursday services the steel gray velvet casket reposed on the chapel altar which was banked with more than two dozen floral designs.

Among them was a bleeding heart of red roses from her husband, a blanket of white roses and gladiolus from immediate relatives.

Rites to be held for Girl Scout leader

Funeral rites will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at 1 p.m. for Mrs. Ida Boyd, 50, of 2524 Ellamont St., at Enon Baptist Church, Edmondson and Schroeder Sts.

A well-known Girl Scout leader, Mrs. Boyd died in Lutheran Hospital Wednesday evening after a brief illness.

She is a native of North Carolina and came to Baltimore in 1926.

Mrs. Boyd served 14 years in the USO as a senior hostess. She saw service at Fort Meade, Md., Germany, and Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Returning in 1954, she put her military skills to work by joining the Girl Scouts. She worked with Troop 550.

She was a member of Enon Baptist Church during her Baltimore residence.

Surviving are three brothers: Elwood, Roscoe, and Curtis Manse; and a sister, Mrs. Viola Wright.

The body will lie in state at the Holland Funeral, 1631 Druid Hill Ave. until the 1 p.m. funeral.

The Rev. A. J. Payne will officiate.

'We operate our business on extremely high level'

"Actually, as of today, we have received no complaint from the Real Estate Commission.

"We operate our business on an extremely high level, and we have had no complaints of any misdoings.

"We do business in a democratic fashion and above board with no short-cuts. We shall continue to conduct business on a high level. We have no other intention.

"We take care of our prospective buyers and their desires and we operate strictly within the law.

"Our requests from clients sometimes come for houses in unchanged areas.

"We intend to take care of our prospective buyers and their desires for homes. We have no other intention. It seems to be just another groan from agitated people who are disgruntled home owners because colored buyers are moving into the neighborhood."

THE ABOVE statements were made by Warren S. Shaw, co-partner with Manuel M. Bernstein in the Manning-Shaw Realty Company, 1800 block Eutaw Place.

Mr. Shaw's remarks came in answer to questions which concerned published reports that the firm had been charged with illegal block-busting in a compliant to the Real Estate Commission of Maryland last week.

Although daily newspapers reported the complaint had been made to the Commission, efforts to secure copies of the alleged document proved futile.

A secretary at the Mathieson Building offices of the Commission stated that information be directed to William G. Nicholson who is executive secretary of the Commission.

REACHED AT his home in Towson on Wednesday night Mr. Nicholson told the AFRO: "The report on the complaint is not complete in any way.

"We get five or six complaints a week from all over the state of Maryland.

"It's nothing to get excited about from our point of view.

"It is in no way a reflection on the Manning-Shaw company as far as we're concerned."
