MAIL BOX—A very enlightening brochure from the Music Educators National Conference ((MENC) which includes 51 state and territorial associations grouped in eastern, north central, northwest, southern, southwestern and western regions. The MENC is a department of the National Education Association of the United States.

National auxiliary and associated organizations include the Music Industry Council College Band Directors National Association, National Interscholastic Music Activities Commission and National Association of College Wind and Percussion Instructors.

The conference, through its federated state units, councils and other special areas of activities, provides many opportunities for membership participation for all music educators, from kindergarten through college.

There are special programs for teachers of future music instructors and administrators of music departments in public and private schools as well as in colleges.

Some of the activities are: music education workshops for classroom teachers, official state school music festivals and conferences, and special research opportunities.

The MENC also cooperates with U.S. Government departments and agencies, especially those devoted to education, and with the National String Teachers Association, National Association of Teachers of Singing and the American Federation of Musicians.

There is a special department devoted to research in music with an official periodical, the Journal of Research in Music. The conference has a broad field of contact with the Pan American Union and UNESCO.

• • •

A NUMBER of valuable books, brochures, pamphlets and bulletins are prepared for music educators, covering curriculum, administration, supervision, teacher education, piano education in the schools, string instruction programs and materials for instrumental, vocal and sight reading contests.

Active membership in the MENC is open to all persons engaged in music teaching or other music educational work. There are student chapters at Morgan State College and University of Maryland.

DR. AND MRS. Renold Lightson and Mrs. Mae W. Allen report, among other highlights of their recent European tour, several musical events.

Rating first was the Puccini opera "Madame Butterfly," performed in Rome, in one of the most famous out-door theatres on the Continent.

The Baths of Emperor Carracalla, which are the largest and most luxurious in ancient Rome, has been partially restored to form a huge amphitheatre, seating 10,000.

In a setting of magnificent gardens and with modern lighting the specially constructed stage houses ballet, drama and musical performances.

"Butterfly" was sung by a superlative cast, with gorgeous costumes and scenery and an orchestra of 150 players.

The Lightsons also attended "My Fair Lady" at the Drury Theatre in London, known as the Queen's or the Royal Theatre. The famous musical, which has made record rank in popularity on both sides of the Atlantic, starred Rex Harrison and Julie Andrews.

Press project topics given

The Baltimore County Public Health Association has invited the student-staffed and edited school newspapers of the Baltimore County schools to participate in the 22nd Annual School Press Project which is jointly sponsored by the National Tuberculosis Association and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

The two subjects for development by school papers in the 1958 press project are:

"Meet the TB Fighters," and "Careers in the Health Sciences."

No material prizes to individuals are given. It is a combined health and journalism education project offering state and national recognition to school newspapers which effectively and accurately present information on health and tuberculosis to their readers through the best individual news story, feature, editorial, or cartoon on the subject of TB and evidence of active community research on the part of the student staff.

Three candidates pass Md. bar exam

Three applicants are included among those who successfully passed the Maryland State bar examination for lawyers.

Tuberculosis rate high here

The Chest X-ray Screening Center maintained at 823 North Charles Street by the Maryland Tuberculosis Association completed its first year of operation on August 5.

Since the opening day through this past August 29, free chest X-rays have been given to 21,778 persons. An additional 13,270 persons had X-rays made in the first half of 1957 before the Center moved to its present quarters. This makes a total of 35,048 X-rays given since January, 1957.

Dr. Moses S. Shiling, medical consultant and first vice-president of the association, explained, "We've discovered 26 confirmed cases of tuberculosis at the Center since it opened. This puts Baltimore well above the national average in its tuberculosis case rate. The problem here remains serious."

Archie may take Uruguay fight

MONTEVIDEO, Uruguay (ANP) — World's light-heavy weight champion Archie Moore may defend his title here against South American title-holder Dogomar Martinez later this year.

A promotion firm, Cudgosa, stated that Archie had tentatively accepted an offer of between $40,000 and $100,000 free of Uruguayan taxes, to fight Martinez.

Tip about lawn birth pays off for caller

Newstipsters were up and at it this week and they picked up checks for all kinds of stories.

The top check for $5 went the tipsters who informed the AFRO about the young mother who gave birth to a child on a hospital lawn.

Two dollar checks were paid to tipsters who gave information about the woman traffic guard who was involved in two accidents, collision of two taxicabs at Denison and Lanvale Sts., and about the fight on the river boat.

• • •

AMONG THE $1 tip winners were the first persons to call about the car accident at Fremont Ave. and Franklin St., the accident at North Ave. and Barclay St., and the ordination of a youthful minister.

Also, the photographer who came up the interesting picture of the outing of Goodwill employees received a check for $5.

Checks are sent out every week for newstips and it is easy to eazrn money this way.

Here is what you do:

Call MU. 5-6015, 6016, 1812 or 1813.

A sum of $50 is set aside each week for News Tips and New Photo.

Winners are selected on the basis of newsworthiness, timeliness and amount of basic information. The decision of the judges is final.

DAKOTA STATON, greatest singing find in recent years is for Baltimore's Comedy Club beginning September 16, for a one week engagement. Featuring her stay here will be the Jazz Sessions on Saturday and Sunday afternoons from 4 to 8 P.M.

Howard professor burned in blast

WASHINGTON

Dr. Edward Hawthorne, 36, a Howard University professor, was burned slightly on Monday when an experimental instrument exploded and set fire to a small room in the Medical School's physiology laboratory.

The instrument, a flame photometer which is used to measure the amount of sodium in blood, has a small flame fed by propane gas from a tank in the basement of the lab. The professor uses the instrument in his research on cardiovascular diseases.

One wall in the room was burned, a window blown out and the photometer badly damaged. Prof. Hawthorne estimated the damage at $1,000.

Martin Luther King may sue policemen

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—There were indications, this week, that civil action might be sought against local police officers in connection with the arrest and conviction of the Rev. Martin L. King Jr. here on a loitering charge.

The Rev. Dr. King was "manhandled and jailed" last week on charges of loitering around a courtroom where a case involving one of his colleagues was being tried.

His arrest shocked the nation and nearly precipitated a march on the jailhouse.

He was later convicted in Recorder's Court and fined $14. He chose jail rather than "pay a fine for an act that I could not commit."

Pro-segregationist City Commissioner Clyde Sellers paid the fine that released Dr. King and accused him of "pulling a publicity stunt."

• • •

THE NOTED MONTGOMERY bus boycott leader, insisting that he is innocent of the charge, has asked to either be declared innocent altogether and his name cleared or be permitted to serve out the 14-day jail term given him.

Observers here, however, have speculated that since the time limit to appeal his conviction has lapsed, Dr. King will look into the possibility of bringing action against local police.

• • •

THE MILITANT CLERGYMAN told 500 cheering persons in Bethel Baptist Church last week:

"Somewhere colored persons must come to a point of refusing to cooperate with evil. We will stand against police brutality and are no longer afraid to go to jail.

"You must go out of here with love and non-violence. I hold no malice toward anyone, not even the white policemen who almost broke my arm, who choked me and kicked me. Let there be no malice among you."

In reply to Sellers' statement that his decision to go to jail rather than pay a fine was a publicity stunt, Dr. King paraphrased:

• • •

"THERE WERE SOME WHO called the work of Jesus Christ a publicity stunt. There were some who even said His death on the Cross was a publicity stunt that split history into A.D. and B.C."

The book Sellers had reference to was a volume about the Montgomery bus boycott called "Stride Toward Freedom."

Driver 'led' to school by auto

John Blount, 26, of the 1900 block Bolton St., went for a ride in his automobile last Monday and ended up on the door steps of a driving school.

According to police, when Mr. Blount lost control of his automobile while making a right turn at Barclay St., and North Ave., the vehicle smashed against a building housing a driving school at 401 E. North Ave.

A passenger, Willie Jackson Blount, 35, also of the 1800 block Bolton St., suffered minor injuries.

Two cars collide: one crashes into side of building

A collision between two cars at Druid Hill Ave., and Presstman St., caused injury to one driver and sent an automobile crashing into a building at 1944 Druid Hill Ave., last Wednesday.

Involved in the accident were: Geza Raynai, 48, of the 2900 block Violet Ave., who suffered a shoulder injury, and William L. Mindelson, 47, of the 3400 block Park Heights Ave.

Damages to the building was minor.

Wilson among 78 to win paroles

Junius Wilson, who at 31 was sentenced to 15 years on a second degree murder charge in 1951, was one of the 78 men and women paroled from Maryland prisons in August.

Some 42 of those on the list reported by the State Department of Parole and Probation, were sentenced in Baltimore City courts.

Wilson, who resided on Beech Ave. at the time of his crime, was charged with killing a girl friend, Miss Viola Jordan, a resident of Cherry Hill.

• • •

DURING THE hearing it was testified that the couple got into a fight on Park Heights Ave. where Wilson beat her.

She later died of injuries sustained in the fight.

Wilson was sentenced the next month, in February of 1951.

Chauffeur held in 25 cents dice game death

A 35-year-old chauffeur who has been accused of causing the death of a stranger during a dispute over 25 cents, was held for action of the grand jury Tuesday without bail.

In Homicide Court, Leroy Carbiness of the 400 block E. North Ave., was charged with ing suddenly with a heart attack of the 1600 block Abbott St., with a broken glass jug.

The slaying followed a dice game at a house in the 700 block of Hemple Ct., last August 19, according to police.

Sergeant William G. Adams of the Northeastern District testified that police found Harrison at Central Ave. and Monument St., bleeding from multiple stab wounds.

• • •

A STATEMENT allegedly signed by the defendant was stated:

"The men were in the back yard shooting dice when Harrison said I had his quarter. I said, "You have got me wrong fellow and he pulled a knife.

"I kept swinging to keep Emmitt off of me," the statement said.

Marriage of 3 months ends in divorce court

Her husband, Glen Hill, just got up one morning, went to see his lawyer, came back and moved out, according to Mrs. Gussie Armstead Hill, who divorced him Monday.

Mrs. Hill, who gave her address as 1362 N. Stricker St., said she gave Mr. Hill no cause for such action.

"I was a loving and affectionate wife towards him," she said.

The marriage had lasted one day less than three months.

Said Mrs. Hill:

"On the morning of March 24th, he told me he was going to attend to some business down the street, that I should not prepare too much breakfast. He left about 7:15 a.m. and didn't come back until 1:15 or 1:30 p.m.

"I asked where he had been. He said that he had been downtown.

"I didn't know that he was going down town, so I asked why. He said that he had been to see his lawyer. I asked what about. He said about a separation.

"He told me that his lawyer had told him that he could get his things and go away if he wanted to.

"HE BROUGHT a truck, put his clothes and some boxes in, and left.

"He said that he had been accustomed to having money in his pockets and that he didn't want to be married," the wife testified.

Home burglary nets pair 3 years

Two 22-year-old men, convicted in Criminal Court on Tuesday of burglarizing a home in the 2200 block Penrose Ave., were sentenced to three years each in the House of Correction.

The two, Aubrey Ervin Marshall and Joseph Ray Bradford, both of the 400 block S. Sharp St., were accused of stealing a $10 radio and $5 toaster in the burglary.

Officer Howard Corbin, Southwestern District policeman, told Judge Reuben Oppenheimer he and Officer Strebeck arrested the pair with the stolen articles, shortly after Lewis Parsons had reported the burglary.

Cab passengers hurt in crash

Four persons were admitted to Provident Hospital for treatment of injuries last Thursday, after two taxi cabs ran into each other at Division and Lanvale Sts.

Among the injured was one of the drivers, Thomas Leak, 25, of the 1800 block N. Mount St., who suffered a leg injury.

Also, Mrs. Mary Ward, 29, and Patricia Ward, 15, of the 1700 block Park Ave., who sustained head injuries; and Mrs. Mary Liggins, 51, of Durham, N.C., who suffered a head and hip injuries; and Mrs. Mary Liggins, 51, of Durham, N.C. who suffered a head and hip injury.

The second cab driver, David Weinstock, 55, of the 4000 block Annellen Rd., was not injured.
