Womanpower sets 'know' and; 'how to' luncheon Sun.

"We are gratified at the cooperation we received from everybody in our one - day drive on Monday. . . the people who lent their cars and gave volunteer service put the drive over.

"We are confident when the figures are tallied, the goal of 1,000 new registered voters in one day was reached. . .

"We are now asking each woman to get at least two more registered voters before 9 p.m. Monday, September 22nd. . ."

Womanpower leaders — Mrs. Victorine Adams and Mrs. Ethel Rich, issued this report on Thursday, as they completed plans for a victory luncheon and leadership conference on Sunday.

The affair is set for 12:30 p.m. at the Sheraton - Belvedere Hotel, Charles and Chase Sts. Theme of the luncheon is 'Know How and How To Go About Registering and Voting."

DISCUSSION of the topic will take place at individual tables before luncheon after which will be a general summary.

After luncheon, guests will be treated to a fashion show by models representing Charm Centre who will show 'the new shape in fashions for you for fall."

Clothes selected will range from casual wear to 'the little dress for festive little evening affairs.'

There will be no extended speeches. Mrs. Adams will give instructions to discussion leaders; Mrs. Rich will give the summary; and acknowledgments will be made by Mrs. Flossie Dedmond.

Miss Pauline Blanchard will give the luncheon grace.

DISCUSSION leaders are: Misses or Mesdames Ruth S. Hayes, Virgie Waters, Gaynelle Spaulding, Jean W. Owens, Doreatha Booze, Valerie Butler, Dr. Delores C. Hunt, Bernice White, Hortense Henry, Rose G. Wallace, Ida M. Smith, Elizabeth E. Marshall, Marguerite Harmon, Lilyan Slater;

Sept. 13 the Supervisor of Elections set up registration offices in the public schools and this accounts for the total of 1,425 colored voters registered this week. In the same period, 1,797 white voters registered.

Monday is usually the best registration day. With the registration offices set up in the schools, however, the best registration days were Wednesday and Thursday. On Wednesday, 294 colored voters registered and on Thursday, 289. Saturday, Sept. 13's registration of 271 is a high for registration for that day.

Zoning Board halts Eden St. rooming house

The Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals on Tuesday disapproved a request to house one family and 10 roomers at 1028 N. Eden St.

Approved were requests to continue a doctor's office at 1427 Madison Ave., and to house two families and five roomers at 521 S. Sharp St.

This coming Tuesday, the Zoning Board will consider a request to house 14 families at 2329 Madison Ave.

Also scheduled for consideration are these requests at these locations:

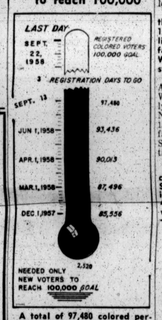
At 2025 W. North Ave. — three families and an office; 1511 Madison Ave. — six families; 1541 N. Bond St. —three families and a store; 50 N. Wolfe St., three families and a store.

Also, at 1234 W. Lafayette Ave. — eight roomers; 1232 W. Lafayette Ave. — one family and nine roomers; 2035 W. North Ave. — three families; 1503 N. Stricker St. — three families, and at 1504 - 06 W. Saratoga St. — one story addition to auto repair shop.

DO IT TODAY! — A good citizen is registered to vote. Sept. 22 is the last day to register to vote in the November 4th General Election. Don't wait until the last minute!

97,480

Just 2,520 to reach 100,000



A total of 97,480 colored persons are registered to vote in Baltimore City as of Sept. 13, according to the Supervisor of Elections.

This represents a 462 climb over the Sept. 11 high of 97,018 and cuts to just 2,520 the number of new registrations needed to meet the register-to-vote goal of 100,000.

The 97,480 registered through Sept. 13, a new high for registration among Baltimore's colored popularlion, does not include new registrations enrolled on Monday — or after —if this week when an all-out effort was made to add 1,000 to the qualified-to-vote list.

The Supervisor of Elections office reported that this week's registrations have been so high tabulations on Monday would not be completed until, at best, some time today.

Between Sept. 6 and Sept. 12, a total of 1,506 colored persons registered.

This record outpouring is due in large measure to the register-to-vote groups in the city and the fact that persons have been able to register in schools near their homes as well as at the Supervisor of Elections office in the People's Court Building.

Persons may register from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the elections office, daily and Saturday, and from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. in the schools, daily and Saturday.

Following is a breakdown of colored registration from Sept. 6 through Sept. 13.

BALTIMORE IS IN A REGISTER-TO-VOTE FEVER

"I DO" is the answer these residents gave as they took oath to answer truthfully qutstions about their age and residence and thus qualified themselves to vote the November General Election. Photo was made at registration booth at School No. 145 on Monday. Giving the oath is Milton R. Levinson.

'HERE'S MY CARD' says Edward Morton, center of 633 Smithson St. At right, Howard D. Dixon, candidate for House of Delegates in the November election, who was out this week with other candidates helping to get new voters registered. Looking on at left, Richard Chase, 531 Robert St.

'IT'S THIS WAY'—Daniel W. Spaulding, candidate for the House of Delegates in November, talks register and vote to this Newington Ave. gathering. In the group are: Mrs. Janice Smith, with her son Andrew, 11 months, and Terri Wooden, 3; Lamont Wooden, 9, and Virginia Wooden, 2.

NOW HE'S CITIZEN — Eddie Mack, 565 Laurens St., signs his new voter card at registration booth. Looking on are registration workers, Mrs. Emma J. Smather and Mrs. Evelyn Rapson.

'CERTAINLY WAS EASY' — Mrs. Sallie K. Bull, 960 Stoddard Ct., and Mrs. Minnie Davenport, 940 Stoddard Ct., admire their new vote cards. They were carried to registration booth by Womanpower volunteer workers.

'HI-YA SENATOR' — Claude Murray, city fireman of 2427 Lakeview Ave., stops to chat with State Senator Harry A. Cole, who was ringing doorbells in his neighborhood. Senator Cole is candidate to succeed himself in November election and this week aided register-to-vote push.

WHILE MOM registers to vote at School No. 145, three-year-old Anthony Marcus, turns to look at group waiting to sign up. He holds pennant. Mother is Mrs. Juliette Marcus, 2715 Riggs Ave. She was among hundreds who registered to vote this week.
