Girl Scouts Plan Camp Promotions

A "potluck" supper and a camp reunion party have been planned for next week by District 8 of the local Girl Scouts.

Slated for 7 p.m. on Thursday, the supper will be held at the Chick Webb Recreation Center, 623 N. Eden St. All leaders, troop and committee chairmen and members are invited.

A special program has been arranged to help the camp promotion project.

Reunion on Saturday

For girls who have attended either the day or established summer camp of the Girl Scouts, the reunion will be held at 2 p.m. on May 7 at the St. Pius Church Recreation Center.

According to Miss Revolda Wright, district director. The program will include panels, games and folk dancing.

Guest speaker will be Miss Delores Bond, aide a the International Encampment at Cooperstown, N.Y. in 1948. Information about camp and camp contests will also be given at the meeting.

Civic Unity Group Aids TB Patients

Still laboring under the handicaps of an inadequate, delapidated building, tuberculosis patients at City Hospitals are being provided some recreational relief by the newly organized Association for Civic Unity.

The association, which meets twice a month at 1510 W. North Ave., was formed some months ago by persons of different racial, religious and national background, to promote a program of better community relations.

Aims to Buy T-V Set

Through its community welfare committee, it has supplied a volunteer worker to conduct novelty games and amusements at the hospital and is raising funds for a television set for the patients.

Entertained by movies and a social hour at its last meeting, the group of 20 members will meet again on May 8.

Officers are Dr. William Mason, chairman; Smith Thomas, recording secretary; Nimrod Dodson, treasurer; and Mrs. Elizabeth Meijar, corresponding secretary.

Heisted Car Used as Stickup Hack

Police are seking a man who entered an automobile, robbed the driver, took the car and, later, posing as a cabbie, held up four persons.

The owner, Cleveland Beverly of the 700 block of W. Lafayette Ave., said the thug got into his car on Pennsylvania Ave., Sunday night, and ordered him to drive toward Lafayette Ave. and Popular Grove St.

The man robbed Beverly of $168, and a watch valued at $108, then drove off with his car, the owner reported.

Robbed Party of 4

The thief later picked up two men and two women who were standing at Madison Ave. and Dolphin St., attempting to hail a cab, drove them to Booker Ct., collected a 50-cents fare and, producing a short, dark-colored automatic, announced: "This is a stickup. Give me your money."

Douglas Gale and his brother, the two male passengers, surrendered $2.50 and 50 cents, respectively. Neither of the women had any money.

After the four passengers were ordered from the car, one of the women, Miss Leslie Jacobs of the 400 block of Watty Ct., spotted the license number which enabled police to trace and recover the stolen car.

As yet the holdup man driving it has not been caught.

4 Injured When 2 Trucks Collied

Three pedestrians and a truck driver were slightly injured when two trucks collided Monday evening at Riggs Ave. and N. Calhoun St.

One of the trucks mounted the Northwest corner of the junction, smashed a plate glass window in a drug store at 1100 N. Calhoun St., and knocked down a gas lamp and the attached mail box.

The ones injured were Miss Fannie Miller, 1121 Whatcoat St.; Armstrong Miller, 1120 Whatcoat St.; Miss Virginia Butler, 1609 McCulloh St. and the truck driver, Alexander Taylor, 432 Arlington Ave.
