boys in jail, substantiated the mother's statement.

The mother of Charles Stone, 15, whose case was docketed Thursday afternoon, said her son had been beaten, too. When he appeared in court on Thursday, young Stone showed a large bruise on his head.

Both youths had appeared earlier in Juvenile Court but were referred to Northwestern police court because of the "seriousness of the charges."

Mrs. Knotts summed up the sentiments of both mothers when she was "perfectly willing to see her son punished for any crimes committed."

However, she said, she felt the Police Department or whomever was responsible for the beatings —had "definitely carried things too far."

Held in Store Burglaries

One youth is charged and the other is expected to be booked similarly with burglarizing two Pennsylvania Ave. Royal Stores, a S. Fremont Ave. grocery store and of a Linden Ave. confectionery store on April 14, 20, 22, respectively.

Allegedly caught on the scene by the confectionery store owner, one of the youths implicated the other, who was arrested at home.

Officers connected with the case are Henry Peffer and Jerome Glass.

of Christians and Jews. Instead, however, Dr. Bunche said he would attend a $10 a plate dinner on the same day at the Waldorf which will be sponsored by the American Association for the United Nations.

Dr. Bunche was quoted as saying in a letter to the NCCJ that "little people can't afford $50 to pay tribute to me or anyone else" in turning down the invitation.

Top Officers In Clear

The NCCJ told the NNPA News Service last Tuesday that the arrangements for the dinner had been made without the full knowledge of its top officers and said a dinner will not be a $50 a plate dinner and will not be a fund raising dinner.

Rumors were that the $50 a plate dinner for Dr. Bunche was being worked up in Harlem under the direction of Dr. Alphonse Heninburg, a member of the NCCJ. Plans for the dinner were announced at a luncheon at the Waldorf two weeks ago.

Heninburg Not to Blame

The NCCJ said last Tuesday, however, that Dr. Heninburg was merely a friend of Dr. Bunche and was not promoting the dinner.

In announcing his refusal to attend the $50 dinner, Dr. Bunche issued the following statement through Arnold DeMille, a Harlem publicist:

"Unfortunately there seems to be some public confusion about the dinners to be given in my honor, which I feel obliged to dissipate. The projected $50 per plate dinner at the Waldorf on May 9 under the sponsorship of the National Conference of Christians and Jews has been canceled at my request.

"The date of May 9 at the Waldorf has been taken over by the United Nations Association of America which is honoring me on that night and which is mailing out invitations on a sample cost per plate basis."

board. Dr. Ralph J. Young, East Baltimore physician, whose term has just expired, will be replaced by Dr. J. Canby Robinson, executive secretary of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association.

The dynamic civic worker who was the first woman grand juror in Maryland will replace Dr. Esther Richards.

Other Advisors Named

Other new board members are Thomas B. Sprague, former chairman of the Cheltenham Training School board of managers; and Harry Cohen, president of the Maryland, District of Columbia and the Baltimore Federation of Labor.

fare where I worked six and a half years as a case worker," Mrs. Alleyne said, in commenting on her new appointment.

A resident of Baltimore since 1930, Mrs. Alleyne has given service in a wide variety of fields.

Scored Numerous "Firsts"

She was the first industrial worker for the local YWCA, the first woman president of the Association of Colored Municipal Employees and first minority group employee to serve as supervisor of project services of the Housing Authority of Baltimore.

A native of Tennessee, Mrs. Alleyne attended Knoxville A and I State College and taught in that city for six years.

She then moved to Chicago, where she was coordinator of the Negro Business Organization and then attended the Chicago School of Social Work Northwestern University and later the Brookwood Labor School in Tacoma, N.Y.

Served on Red Cross

It was while she was with the NBW that Mrs Alleyne was given leave to give three years' service to the Red Cross where she headed the colored blood bank activities.

After the war she became executive director of the Fuller Products Co.

Mrs. Alleyne is president of the Metropolitan Council of Women's Clubs, a member of the Aloha Wives, the Iota Chapter of Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority, St. James PE Church and is State vice president of the National Penny Society.

17 Years' Volunteer Work

For 17 years she has done volunteer work with the Prisoners Aid Society and has helped direct recreational programs for both races.

This year Mrs. Alleyne was one of the assistant chairmen of the relief fund of the Red Cross Drive. The wife of Dr. Bruce Alleyne, dentist of 1219 Druid Hill Ave., she is also a member of the International Assembly of Women in World Affairs.

were being scuttled."

"He was busy spending billions to prosecute the 'Cold War,'" was the doctor's answer. And this explains why the Ober Bill has been imposed to prevent free speech on civil fights and other basic issues, he added.

H. Lester Hutchinson, Labor Party member of the British Parliament, said today's problem is how to bridge the gap, how to heal the differences between East and West, and that he does not think the Atlantic Pact will help.

Alliance Held War Bait

"History teaches us that military alliances lead to war. A country putting its capital in arms must fight to avoid going bankrupt."

He added that British social reforms are popular with the people in spite of what Americans may read.

Michele Glua, educator and member of the Italian Senate, the second of Henry Wallace's European guests, called names of Italian fascists — one purged by the liberation commission — who are now returning to prominent governmental posts.

These men, brassserted, are getting their jobs back because of pressure brought to bear by "American plutocrats and the Vatican."

That statement of policy set forth as follows:

"Students applying for admission to the graduate and professional courses of the University of Maryland are now being accepted or rejected on the basis of their educational qualifications, character and other factors that are common to the admission of all students, regardless of race, creed or color.

"This is the present policy of the university as instructed by the president's explicit instruction to the deans of the professional and graduate schools."

They could not agree in ideas, he said, and so agreed to separate.

He was represented by Thomas Knox, attorney.

A divorce went to Mrs. Annabelle Harris of 1701 Madison Ave., who charged that Nothers Harris deserted her in 1943. They were married in 1936.

Mrs. Harris testified that he simply walked off and when she heard from him five years later, it was through a letter in which he asked her for money.

Mrs. Claire Peck Parker, city school teacher, divorced James L. Parker, this week, after testifying that they were married on Nov. 15, 1947, and separated on July 15, 1948, when her husband left, saying that he was tired of both her and marriage.

Four complainants filed petitions for divorces. They were:

Mrs. Lula M. Myrick vs. Joseph Ernest L. Perkins, attorney; Mrs. Dorothy H. Clash vs. Archibald; Roy S. Bond, attorney; Mrs. Arizona Clarence vs. George F.; Roy S. Bond, attorney; Rudolph vs. Rose C. Dorothy Simmons, Gregory Hawkins, attorney.

2 Given Time, 1 Set Free in Three Murder Trials

Three murder cases in which the victims were the son of a political figure, a wife found in her under clothes in another man's home and a man struck by a white bartender were aired on Wednesday in Criminal Court.

Thirty-one-year old Raymond Malone, slayer of Lloyal Randolph Jr., 21, son of the well-know Democratic leader, was senteneed to eight years in prison for shooting down young Randolph on March 25.

In a second case, Theodore Turner, 28, who said he found his wife in her underclothes at a rival's home and stabbed her to death, was sentenced to two years for manslaughter.

White Bartender Acquitted

The third trial resulted in an acquittal of Charles Percimone, white bartender, charged in the death of James McCarter, 37, who died several hours after he was pushed from a tavern.

Judge Robert Prance presided over each trial.

Malone of the 1500 block Calhoun St. pleaded guilty generally and was convicted of second degree murder in the fatal shooting of Mr. Randolph, near a tavern at Vincent and Cairo Sts.

He contended that his victim moved as if to attack him for speaking to a young woman acquaintance before he (Malone) drew a pistol from his belt and fired. The two did not know each other, it was revealed.

Had murdered previously

William J. O'Donnell, prosecutor, revealed that Malone previously was sentenced to 20 years in Richmond, Va. for first-degree murder there.

Mr. Randolph died from a bullet wound of the heart, the autopsy report showed. Malone confessed the shooting to Sgt. Wade Poole of Northwestern District station.

Malone was defended by Michael Freedman, attorney, who also represented Turner. The husband, who is a little deaf, testified that his wife, 34, mother of four children, had been unfaithful for several years.

Follows Wife to Rendezvous

He said that on March 21 he fed the children, put them to bed, and went to a house in the 1500 block W. Lanvale St., where he looked in the window and saw his wife with a man.

The man, Turner went on, disappeared when he entered the house through the back way and found his wife undressed.

Turner said she had been drinking and threatened him with a knife before he stabbed her in the chest several times with a paring knife he had brought along.

The Turner's lived in the 1200 block Smithson St. Immediately after the stabbing, the husband called the police.

Bartender Denies Blow

Percimone, who manage a stag bar for his parents at Lexington and Exeter Sts., denied that he struck Mr. McCarter.

He said the man reached toward his back pocket and he (Percimone) pushed him out of the place. The incident occurred because Mr. McCarter took issue with the bartender for telling his wife to shut the door of the place, it was testified.

Joseph F. DiDomenico, attorney for Percimone, pointed out that when McCarter collapsed, he was a block away from the tavern, about a half an hour later.

Central District officers testified that the man's wife told them he had "passed out" from drinking when they found him on the side walk.

McCarter died of a head injury several hours later at Mercy Hospital. He lived in the 700 block Druid Hill Ave.

2 Enter Aldermen Race in Annapolis

ANNAPOLIS—Two Republican candidates from the Fourth Ward tossed their hats into the ring this week for aldermen's posts in the coming city election.

They are Dr. Theodore H. Johnson, a 36-year-old physician, and Dr. Norman H. Williams, 40, a dentist.

Both candidates were recently endorsed by the Metropolitan Republican Club and are expected to make a campaign issue of the proposed State Roads Commission's plans to run a highway through the Fourth Ward, the city's main colored section.

Dr. Johnson Set Up Clinic

A native of Flushing, N.J., Dr Johnson received his primary and secondary education in New York City and Annapolis where he was graduated from Bates High School in 1930.

He received his A.B. degree from Lincoln University, his M.A. from New York University and his medical training from Howard University.

In 1945, he established the Johnson Maternity Clinic here, after other hospitals refused to accept colored maternity patients.

Dr. Williams Howard Graduate

Dr. Williams is 40 years old and a practising dentist here. He is a graduate of Syracuse University and the Howard University Dental School and was formerly an agriculture teacher.

Earlier two other men filed for candidates for the aldermanic positions from the Fourth Ward. They were the incumbents, Charles A. Oliver and Dr. Oliver W. T. McNeill.

2 Who Robbed Cabbies Given 10 Years Each

Ten-year sentences were imposed Tuesday upon two men who pleaded guilty to holding up and robbing two cab drivers on successive nights, netting $34.40.

The men are Ulysses Brown, 31, and John Simmons, 21, both of whom refused Judge Robert Prance's offer to furnish them with an attorney.

Work on Neck, Pockets

Both robberies occurred in the vicinity of St. Mary's and Tessier Sts. after the men hailed cabs on Pennsylvania Ave on Apr. 22 and 23. Simmons, it was said, would throw his arm about the driver's neck while Brown reached into his pockets.

J. Harold Grady prosecuted. Arresting officers were Sgt. Fred Koenig. Officers Jacob Simonson, Joseph Carroll and Casoner Monkewski, all of Northwestern police station.

65 YEARS OLD, HE HAD 62 JARS OF MOONSHINE

RICHMOND

A 65-year-old man, Moses Bullock of 819 N. 17th St., was arrested by officers here last week on charges of storing 62 half-gallon jars of illegal corn whisky — almost a jar for each year of his age.

New Democratic Club Formed in 15th Ward

A new Democratic political group, known as the Northwestern Democratic Club, 15 th Ward was organized Monday and elected temporary officers.

T. R. Pitts, chairman, announced, that the activities of the club will be civic, benevolent and political. The second meeting will be held at 9:30 p.m. at 1911 Pulaski St.

Other temporary officers are S. D. Robinson, treasurer; Mrs. M. Frye, recording secretary, J. De Neal, chairman of the planning committee, and Mrs. M. Sivers, chairman, entertainment committee.

AN OPEN LETTER TO PRESIDENT TRUMAN

DEAR PRESIDENT TRUMAN:

Since July, 1948, when you issued your Executive Order on Fair Employment Practices in the Federal Government, the conditions of Negro workers at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing of the Treasury Department have worsened rather than improved.

Fifteen hundred Negro women, many with seven years experience, are on the verge of losing their jobs because of an arbitrary application of the Civil Service Commission's displacement procedure. In spite of your Order fewer than ten Negro workers have been advanced to clerical, crafts or supervisory jobs, notwithstanding the fact that the 3,000 Negro workers constitute the majority of the Bureau Personnel.

1. Granting permanent job status to the 1,500 Negro women, non-status workers, at the Bureau.

Forty Negro World War II veterans have been denied their rightful opportunity to advance to jobs as skilled printers.

Negro workers are still segregated on the job and in locker rooms.

These violations of your Order have been brought to the attention of the officials of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the Treasury Department, the Civil Service Commission and the Fair Employment Board but nothing has been done to correct these conditions.

Mr. President, we therefore call upon you to take immediate action to implement your Civil Rights Program by doing the following:

2. Providing opportunity for Negro veterans and other qualified Negro personnel to achieve the promotions they deserve.

3. Eliminating in this Agency any and all forms of job discrimination and segregation.

Respectfully yours,
