200 Reception Guests to Meet Afro's Ideal Mother with Lula Jones Garrett

During the star studded week end which will honor Mrs. Lena B. Duncan of Salisbury, N.C., the AFRO-AMERICAN'S Ideal Mother of 1949, 200 guests will greet her at a reception at the YWCA on Friday evening, the thirteenth.

The affair will be one of several which will fete the mother of 18, who will be guest of the publishing company from Thursday through Sunday of next week.

The following day (Saturday) Mrs. Duncan will share honors with Miss Escobeda Posey of Newark, N.J., at the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority's annual mother-daughter luncheon also to be held at the YWCA. Miss Posey, national director of the sorority's Job Opportunity Project, will be guest speaker. A program of social affairs has been planned, also, for her stay in Washington.

The Friday evening affair, sponsored by the AFRO-AMERICAN and catered by the Hughes Company, will also have as special guests mothers who won honorable mention in this year's contest, who reside in or near Baltimore.

NURSES CUT SWARTH

All week long the natives have been trying to figure out which was snazziest, Chi Eta (Phi nurses) Sorority's formal prom or the flock of Greek and all parties the girls flung.

Anita and Roland Henson poured cocktails early, gathering about them the William Lewises, Dr. and Mrs. McDonald Bando, Iris Brown, the Andrew Chatmans, the Raymond Combs, Louise Henson the Marque Hollidays, the Theodore Johnsons, the Charles Morrises, the Edward Peck's, the George Pecks, the Melvin Peters, Vivian Roberts, Leander Street, Dan Spaulding, the Robert Torrences, the Cecil Walls of Orange and the Harry Wilsons.

After the dance the Hensons joined the Torrences who had a breakfast party for the Wallses, their housequests. The Mark Hollidays and the Theodore Johnsons were also there.

Then there was Minnie Johnson's cocktailer at her Carver Hall apartment, with the William Addisons, the Diggses, the Isiah Whites, the William Rileys, Bernard Smiths, Lowman Danielses, E. Leroy Gordons, Irbington Williamses, Amy Levi, Leah Lampkins, Mildred Richardson, John McGuire, Fletcher Greene and Mary Fitchette, Ethel Bynum, Loretta Evans, John Gittings and Burton Thompson.

The Bernard Smiths had a breakfast, and listed:

The William Addisons, Lowman Danielses, Isiah Whites, William Rileys, William Lewises, Charles Morrises, Richard Washingtons, M. Groses, Leroy Gordons, Mary Fitchette, Lawrence Lee, Mamie Johnson, Fletcher Greene, Florence Roberts, John Gittings, Minnie Corbin, Vivian Roberts, Welton Waiters, Iris Brown, Owen Lee, Loretta Evans, and Burton Thompson.

And another double - decker party which began with cocktails, sandwiched the dance between, and closed with breakfast was that the Carlton Bynums held at their North Avenue maison.

MRS. LENA DUNCAN

Mamie Bowen, in a blue crepe, silver-trimmed hostess coat; Daisy Johnson, in peach satin, and Minnie Corbin in a bustle-backed taffeta and gold accessories, aided the hostess.

Guests were the B. Johnsons, Cleophus Wilsons, Thelma Owens, Loretta Evans, Florence Roberts, Vivian Roberts, Weldon Johnson and Thurman Phillips.

PHI BETA SIGMAS DANCE

The evening before (Thursday) practically the whole town had been out a-dancing with the Phi Beta Sigma brothers, at their formal at Monumental Hall. 'Twas a pretty affair, with decor in the fraternity colors and a flock of lovelies in the loveliest of frocks.

Corrine Procope in tiered brown lace and Hazel Phillips, also in lace—pink this time. Helena Richardson wearing a smoothe white eyelet embroidery over black taffeta, and Juanita Hill wearing an empire affair of white, with navy midriff. Harriet White in white chiffon and Juliet Bragg in a strapless embroidered organdie. Naomi Canton selected a snarky frock, 'Twas of black taffeta with minute insertions of pink and green forming a geometrice design, and Lucille Marcus's black, gold sequined frock showed off a pair of superb shoulders.

PEREGRINATORS:

Alma West, who had been down in Winston-Salem at a regional meeting of Chi Eta Phi Sorority over the week end, slipped 'twixt planes for a visit with Dorothy Gibson this week. 'Twas in her honor that the latter entertained at luncheon on Wednesday, with Husband Bill fairly snatching the host laurels from beneath her nose by gifting each of the gals at the party with corsages. The guests had Ah'd over her lace draped table and delectable luncheon, but how they Oh'd as they pinned pale yellow roses and orchid sweet peas to their shoulders.

To meet Mrs. West were Emma Williams of Chicago, who was visiting Vivian Alilleyne while in the section with Dr. Williams, who attended a meeting of the executive committee of the National Dental Society in Washington; Josephine Williams, Ruth Brown, Mary Hickman, Irene Dodson and Lula Patterson. So gay got the going that Mrs. West has decided to stay over until Tuesday. Hence the supper party on Saturday night being planned for her by Mrs. Hickman, the Monday night party the Cortlandt Browns are concocting, and a get-together the Nimrod Dodsons will edge in somewhere between. Another of the Chi Eta Phis, Fanida Friend of this town, joined Hortense Johnson of Washington, and the two flew to Pittsburgh over the week end to set up a chapter of the sorority there.

Mrs. Willis J. Winston has just returned from a conference for camping leaders, held at Bryden-Wood, Pa. The conference was sponsored by the International Council of Religious Education, directed by Rev. Edward Schilingman and Dr. Isaac K. Beckes. Mrs. Winston filled the quota of one alloted to the National Baptist Convention, United States of America, where only 80 leaders were invited to attend. She is responsible for Camping for the Youth Department of this convention.

She was the only non-white member in attendance at the conference.
