Provident Airs Open House Plans

Visitors to Provident Hospital during Open House Day on Sunday will have pointed out to them a number of improvements to the physical plant of theDivision St. institution, according to John L. Progoe, superintendent.

Among them are the expanded dental clinic, the new supply and waiting room, improvements and new equipment in the dietery department and a recreation room in the nurse's home.

The pre-mature nursery is now in the process of renovation.

Gifts to Be Displayed

Visitors will also see a num ber of the gifts which have been given Provident during the past years.

These an ice-maker from the Provident Guild, an incubator from the Companions Club, a sterilizer purchased by the Just Us Girls Club and an electrical food heater from the Jack and Jill Club.

Student nurses and members of Girl Scout Troops will serve as guides.

YWCA Notes

Seven teen agers from the YWCA left on April 29, for a trip to Abington, Pa. They were Shirley Robert, Dunbar High Lea Amies Club; Doris Harden, Carlene Hamlin and Dorra Stewart, Douglass High Semper Fidelis Club; and Jean Jackson, Gordon Stills and Eldred Wilkins, YWCA Teen Canteen representatives.

These girls and boys were accompanied by Miss Linese Miller, who is with the Teen Age Department at Madison Ave. YWCA. Some 210 participated in the three-day conference.

On Friday tne teen agers attended a movie "Make Way for Youth," which was followed by a discussion and a dance. The movie was based on how racial and religious hatred and prejudice were stamped out in one community.

Small Discussion Groups

On Saturday after the keynote speaker and discussion period, they all had lunch and attended one of the sessions on job futures, co-ed recreation, world citizenship, living with others, family living, and to drink or not to drink.

This was followed by a trip to Valley Forge That evening everyone went to Willow Grove Park.

Sunday's activities, included going to church and hearing the Fellowship Trio in the afternoon.

Joseph Lee from the Druid Hill YMCA, took seven delegates (teen agers) to the conference also.

Hold Variety Show

The Blue Triangle Industrial club and the Sewing Class of the YWCA, presented their annual variety show last Thursday, with Mrs. Vera L. Cole, assistant director of the Health Education Department serving as narrator.

The program included:

Walter Gill, tapster; Doris Hamm, recitation; Louise Plunk and Audrey Briscoe, members of the YWCA Modern Dance Group, in a jitterbug ballet; Muriel Wilson, piano selection;

Esther Jenkins and Robert Lee, dance team; and Duran Johnson, also a member of the "Y" dance group, in a dance number.

Members of the sewing class who modeled were Phyllia Taylor, Lucille Naylor, Clara Hazrell, Essie Wright, Lena Blackwell, Isabel Taylor, Faye Redfern, Mildred Johnson, Margarete Lloyd and Rosa Terry.

Miss Lucy Wright is director of the sewing class. Added attractions consisted of the Six Sparks and Verna Hall. The musical background was furnished by Ken Murray's septet, featuring Eva Cooper, vocalist.

Miss Wright, and Mrs. Lena Johnson, president of the Blue Triangle Club, awarded gifts and prizes. Miss Jeasye Brown received a gift for selling the largest number of tickets. Mrs. Louise Boyd was chairman; Miss Alice L. Parks is the YWCA worker with this group.

Quiz Program

The Y-Teens of School No. 126, had a Quiz Program on April 28. The winners were awarded cartoons of tooth powder. Questions centered around the YWCA and its work.

Miss Carrie Tripp is the club's president; Mrs. Mary Poole, adviser; Mrs. Elizabeth Henderson, school's principal. Miss Linese Miller is the YWCA worker with the group.

The Y-Teens of the school are now in the progress of collecting bundles of clothing to be presented to Goodwill Industry. "Bundle-Week" will begin on May 2.

Church Group Busy

The newly formed Y-Teens of Fountain Baptist Church are planning to present a drama on the last Sunday in May. The play will center around the Sunday school.

This group is also planning to have a social evening at the Chick Webb Center on Friday, May 13. Miss Thelma Stevenson is the president of the club; Miss Fentress White, advisor, and Miss Linese Miljer, the YWCA worker.

The Somerettes of Somerset Homes collected clothing for some poor families in East Baltimore. Officer Dennis Mello aided in the distribution of the bundles. Miss Linese Miller is the Teen Age program assistant; Miss Gloria Briscoe, president of the club.

The Jolly Gals of Dunbar Junior High School made a tour of Chick Webb Center on April 28. Mr. Harrison consented to tutor the girls in table tennis on Thursdays. Miss Helen Harris is the club's president, and Miss Linese Miller, YWCA worker.

Business Girls' Book Review

Miss Ethel Dorsey, librarian at Branch No. 1, was presented in a book review at the Business Girls' Luncheon Club in the YWCA dining room, last Thursday. She reviewed "Double Musicadine," by Frances Gaither.

Those present at the luncheon includes Misses and Mesdames Alberta Wylie, Marian Barbour, Dorothy Cash, Sarah Boyd, Mildred Williams, Delia Vaughn, Irene Thompson, Elizabeth Morse, Pauline Boyer, club president, and Alice L. Parks, staff advisor.

Dancing Class Begins

The Jolly Teen Timers (Y-Teens at Dunbar Junior High School) have initiated a social dancing class at Dunbar High School. The samba, tango, rhumba, fox trot, waltz and jitterbug, will be taught.

Smith Thomas, from the North Avenue Studio, is the instructor. Miss Beatrice Benford, nurse at Dunbar, is assisting the group. About 300 youngsters have registered. The classes will be held each Thursday from 3 until 4 p.m.
