Alan Young is also featured in the picture which has an impressive cast.

'Red Canyon' Now Playing Harlem

Jeanette MacDonald in "The Sun Comes Up"

Thrills ride high, wide and handsome in the special screen attraction, "Red Canyon," currently at the Harlem Theatre. The Technicolor drama is high in high-handed adventure and the breaking of wild horses and fighting desperadoes. Wide are the colorful open spaces of Southern Utah where the picture was filmed. And handsome are its stars, Ann Blyth, Howard Duff and George Brent.

"Red Canyon" is the kind of entertainment that should and will please the whole family. Its scenic beauty has plenty of eye-appeal. Its action is crisp and exciting. Its romance is suspenseful with just the right dash of western flavor.

Jeanette MacDonald's glorious voice — Lloyd Nolan's two-fisted ruggedness—Claude Jarman Jr.'s juvenile appeal — Lassie's exciting exploits — Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings's heart-warming story — Technicolor reproduction of the majestic Santa Cruz mountains. These are the highlights of the new M-G-M drama, "The Sun Comes Up," the Harlem's co-feature.

Miss MacDonald plays the role of a concert singer who loses both husband and son only to find a new life and romance through the devotion of a mountain boy and a dog.

Baltimore Boys' Choir Presents Concert in D.C.

The Baltimore Boys' Choir was presented in concert, last week, at Lincoln Congregational Temple in Washington. Raymon I. Johnson was organist; and Samuel P. Kaintuck, narrator.

The appearance was sponsored by the Santa Fe Educational Touring Club. The program included an adaption from Handel's "Messiah," by William M. Birche, director.

May Day at A & T

GREENSBORO, N.C.—"Physical Education In Review" will be the theme of the annual May Day Program at A. and T. College at will be directed by Miss Delores Hines and Miss Sherma Lowe, physical education instructors.

The feature of the program will be the coronation of the May Queen by Dr. F. D. Bluford, college president. The dancing class will do folk dances; and the physical education majors will perform stunts.

'Not in the Flesh,' Fantasy, Sparks Morgan Festival

'May Day Exercises' and Beaux Arts Ball Will Bring Art Week to Close Saturday

An original, dramatic play, "Not in the Flesh," a fantasy written and staged by Mrs. Marian Wall Page, a member of the drama department at Morgan State College, occupied Wednesday night's portion of the Fine Arts Festival being held this week at the Rillen Road Institution.

The play, which concerns a modern Pygmalion and Galatea, a sculptor who after carving out his ideal in stone falls in love with it, was enacted by students of the school, who turned in a commendable performance.

Of Stage Music

Mrs. Wall, who also designed the setting for the play, easily the outstanding offering of the week, followed a sort of movie pattern in that specially written music for the production was played "aside" or on an off-stage piano.

Playing stellar roles in the production were:

Daniel Lyles, Robert King, Donaldson Barnes, Moreane Downing, Delores Fraser, Shirley Johnson, Samuel Briggs, Cynthia Simmons, Doris Scott, Preston Skinner, Bertha Todd, Curtis Thomas, Rosalee Bryan and Ruby Miller.

Combined Concert Thursday

The highlight of the festival on Thursday was a combined choir and band concert held in the Christian Center at 3 p.m., with R. Hayes Strider directing the band and Orville Moseley at his usual post of directing the choir.

Tonight (Friday) at 7:30, Charles Smith of the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, will appear in a demonstration of "block painting" technique in the lounge of the Truman House, and at 8:15, Miss Frances Higgs, dance instructor, will present students in a recital in the chapel building.

Final Events Saturday

Colorful "May Day Exercises," usually the most brilliant outdoor exhibition, will be held on the campus, Saturday, at 3:15 p.m.

The final event of the week, the "Beaux Arts Ball," will be held at night in the Christian Center recreation hall.

Present Original Drama

Marian Page Wall, instructor at Morgan State College, whose original play, "Not in the Flesh," a fantasy, performed by students of the college, was the dramatic highlight of the Fine Arts Festival closing tomorrow (Saturday), at the college.

NOTES

LOS ANGELES—(ANP) — Jimmy Witherspoon, promising young "blues" artist with Supreme Records, is being hooked upon by leading critics as the next blues king.

Expected Happens but Fate Tricks Anticipators

The expected doesn't always happen. Such was the case Thursday afternoon on Arlington Ave., where the city is regrading for a new highway.

A bulldozer was driving up a hill. From time to time, a small crowd would collect. With one accord, the question on their collective mind was what would happened if the bulldozer happened if the bulldozer slipped down the hill.

They came and they went, and they came back. Finally the long-awaited happened. The bulldozer did slip, but those who had watched daily by some trick of fate were not there. Perhaps it was just as well, for nothing really happened.

After the 2-foot slide, the driver got out, was replaced by a second and the machine went back to its job of bulldozing.

Operetta, Concert Slated at Cherry Hill School

Celebrating National American Music Week, pupils of Cherry Hill School No. 159 will present an operetta and choir concert today (Friday).

Both programs will be at the school. The concert is at 10 a.m. and the third grade operetta at 1:30 p.m.
