them while firemen extinguished the blaze.

Children Alone

The children were alone in the house when the fire broke out. Their mother, Mrs. Anna Chase, was at work. Firemen were still at the scene when Mrs. Chase returned home.

Origin of the blaze which destroyed a chair and swept the front wall of the living room, has not been determined.

Victoria told the AFRO she was asleep in a chair when Samuel awakened her and said someone was knocking on the door.

Wall in Flames

"When I woke up, the whole wall was in flames. A neighbor had seen the fire and was knocking on the front door."

The 11-year-old girl led the boys out the back way and picked her sister from the play pen on the way.

South Baltimore Notes

The Trustees Aid Society of the Star of Bethlehem AME Church met Thursday and completed plans for its third annual excursion to Atlantic City, N.J., on July 3.

The group also decided to complete repair work now being done at the church and to install a light in front of the church building.

William Polk is president of the group; Mrs. Ernestine Christian, secretary; and the Rev. W. R. Chews, pastor of the church. The next meeting of the organization will be held on May 17.

Women's Day Observed

Mrs. Margaret Allen was guest speaker at the Mount Winans First Baptist Church Women's Day exercises last Sunday. The Rev. Herbert Moore is pastor of the church.

South Baltimoreans are still talking about the decisive victory their own Terry Moore won from Doug Ratford, highly-touted New York welterweight.

Moore out punched and outboxed the Gothamite at every turn and proved to his loyal supporters that he is still able to take care of himself, despite recent defeats.

Playground Benefit Held

Despite heavy rains, the Baltimore Singers put on their benefit performance for the South Baltimore Playground Campaign, Monday night, with a near-capacity crowd. The affair, held at Leadenhall Baptist Church, was sponsored jointly by the Harris Radio Sales and Service Co., and Developers Inc.

Among those present were 15 AFRO carrier boys who were given complimentary tickets to the concert by Carl and James Murphy.

Unique Trio's Concert Approved

Kappa chapter of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority presented Penelope Johnson, violinist; LaVerne Hutchinson, tenor; and Bernice Orndoff, in concert here last Sunday at Enon Baptist Church. These young concert stars are under the auspices of Noble Sissle, the internationally known orchestra leader and composer.

Sissle's Concert Trio in Pleasing Recital at Enon

Noble Sissle's Concert Varieties, including Penelope Johnson, violinist; Bernice Orndoff, harpist and pianist; and Lavern Hutcherson, tenor, were greeted by a large audience Sunday evening at Enon Baptist Church in a concert sponsored by the Kappa Chapter, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority.

The artists displayed unusual skill in the performance of their selected numbers.

The violinist, a very talented and trained musician, rendered "Minuet" by Kretsler, "Andante" by Mendelssohn, and "Scherzo-Tarentelle" by Wieniawski, as the opening part of the program.

Substituted for Thomas

The artists' playing of these numbers ranked her as one of America's leading young violinists. Her bowing, legato and phrasing was of the highest and last number in the group highlighted her repertoire. It was masterly done, and the audience was vociferous in its applause.

Due to illness Buel Thomas was unable to appear with the trip, however, Mr. Hutcherson, a former member of the cast of 'Carmen Jones," substituted as tenor soloist.

Displays Good Breathing

Tenor Hutcherson has an excellent voice and used to advantage in every selection he sang. He displayed good breathing and a legato which a well-trained singer should have. He captivated his hearers in all of his songs.

Miss Orndoff is a versatile musician. She accompanied Mr. Hutcherson and Miss Johnson on the piano, and also was heard in three numbers on the harp.

The harp selections were "Largo" by Handel, "The Last Rose of Summer" and "Fraichuer (Zephyrs) by Carlos Salezdo. The artist delighted her audience with flawless playing.

Sissle Speaks

Mr Sissle made a surprise appearance at the church. He said that he has turned temporarily from the field of popular music to lend a helping hand to the young artists in the field of classical music.

These concerts which will be given throughout the country are for the benefit of encouraging young people to prepare themselves for concert work. The famed artist also said that we should encourage our musicians to study American music.

The program concluded with the three artists playing a trio arrangement of three medleys from George Gershwin.

Services Told

Organized in 1910 by the late Robert W. Coleman, the association has aided in the purchase of crutches, special shoes and braces for crippled children, and bought hundreds of pairs of glasses for others.

Serving on the board of directors are Mesdames W. A. C. Hughes Jr. and Nellie Moore whose terms expire in 1950 and 1951 respectively. Mrs. Vernice Wynn is a member of the nominating committee.

Equipped 1st Nursery

Work of the association has included leadership training, public education through meetings, and radio programs and lecture courses through its information service.

Members of the association equipped the first nursery school in Baltimore and later participated in establishing The Lola.

In 1947, the association became a member agency of the Community Chest. It has 27 groups of mothers, still working as did the first member, to become better parents and to understand the nature of children better.
