Teen-agers Launch Fight Against Tuberculosis

Haywood Harrison, chairman of the East Baltimore Health Committee's teen-age group, looks on as Sanford Maddox, a committee member, is "X-rayed." Arnold Refkin is operating the machine. The committee, headed by Dr. Robert McDaniels, was formed to aid in Eastside health problems. It is currently interested in getting 2,500 persons X-rayed at Chick Webb Center from May 9 through 12. The X-rays are being conducted by the Maryland Tuberculosis Association.

Co-op Job Finding Formula Shaped by USES, Urban League

WASHINGTON

An agreement designed to broaden employment opportunities for minority Job seekers in the District was reached this week by the local office of the United States Employment Service and the Washington Urban League.

James A. Pawley, secretary of the league, told the AFRO that Fred Z. Hetzel, director has agreed to cooperate ties for minority job seeks in the in obtaining jobs for workers on the basis of skills, abilities and job qualifications.

Specifically, the plan provides for the exchange of information between the two agencies as it applies to the placement of minority groups.

This will include labor market data, anticipated opening of new industries and building programs and expansion or retrenchment by industries within the area.

It also provides for officials of the two agencies to serve on each other's advisory board.

MR. PAWLEY

USES officials will also serve as speakers at forums and conferences arranged by the Urban League to acquaint the community with the program and policies of the Federal Employment Service.

USES officials who took part in the conference besides Mr. Hetzel included Miss Kathryn N. Fox, chief of counseling; E. V. Connolly, assistant director; Victor R. Daly, chief of personnel and fiscal division; and Stanley Petersen, labor market analyst.
