League Plans Bureau Tour

The Employment Committee of the Maryland League of Women's Clubs is planning a bus trip to the Women's Bureau in Washington, D.C. as a follow-up of the employment session held during the League's 1949 annual meeting.

All members of the League are invited to visit the Women's Bureau in order to tour the Bureau, to secure information on its program, publications, specific and general information about women's position in this country and abroad.

The group is leaving from the YWCA—1912 Madison Avenue on Friday, January 20 at 10:00 a.m. Mrs. Alice B. Arrington is president of the League and Mrs. Clinton D. Hull is chairman of the employment committee which consists of Miss Vivian Young, Mesdames John W., Rich, Kelly Jackson, Edna Rawlings, John Duvall, Mazeell Dickerson. Details can be secured by calling the chairman at the YWCA.

AKA's, Deltas Set Plans for Concerts

with Lula Jones Garrett

What with Alpha Kappa Alpha fetching up Slavenska and her Ballet Variante at Polytechnic Institute on Wednesday night; Delta Sigma Theta issuing permits for its presentation of Marian Anderson at the same place on March 26th; and the new Morgan State College series well under way with the presentations of Elizabeth Davis at Sharp Street Church the past Monday night, the lorgnette set is pretty well entrenched in its winter cultural groove.

After Epsilon Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha presents

the ballet next week, they will have the brilliant young soprano, Camille Williams, as guest artist at Enon Baptist Church on March 5th, and Leonard dePaur's 35 singing veterans, at Polytechnic.

Of course Miss Anderson's first appearance here in years is drawing top attention, and is to be followed by a reception by her AKA sorors. Delta Sigma Theta will, incidentally, mark its founders' day, here, Saturday, with Elsie Austin, D.C. attorney, as guest speaker.

Miss Davis, clad in a portrait gown of deep garnet velvet, it's off-shoulder decollete evening, low in the back, following the lines of the skirt which swept into a brief train, was as vivacious and generous as ever, giving encore after encore at the concert, and later at the reception given in her honor by her sorors of Zeta Phi Beta, was quite the piece de resistence of the party.

Hostesses at the affair included;

Sorors Marguerite Carroll, Mildred Goodrich, Hazel Phillips, Catherine Mayo, Gwendolyn de Cecilio, Thelma Ashe, Beatrice Banks, Lillian Webb, Catherine

Sorors Lillie Ross, Marian Waters, Beatrice Hall, Ethel Payne, Mary J. Taylor, Hilda King, Alice Taylor, Ruth Russell, Lillian Richardson;

Sorors Alice Hall, Althea Cornish, Emma Duvall, of Alpha Zeta Chapter and Magdalene Barbour, Virginia Briscoe, Iris Boswell, Flora Hill, and Dorothy Robertson of Alpha Omicron Chapter.

Among the guests were:

Dr. Martin Jenkins, Mrs. Mildred Seaborne, Dean Thelma Bando, Mrs. Edna O. Gray, Dr. C. Blanche Ash, Mrs. Alice Arrington, R. Strider, Mrs. Ida Washington, Mrs. E. Stevenson, Mrs. Melba Rawlings, J. Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Baker, Dr. Robert Hill;

Miss V. McCarroll, Dr. James Finney, Miss Vessell, Miss Roslyn Chandler, Dr. Faggett, Miss Phillis Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. H. Stubbs, Arthur Reagin;

C. Payne, Dr. Socratis Saunders, J. Waters, Dr. and Mrs. G. Brandon, the Rev. L. Putts, Mrs. W. J. Lockwood, Mrs. Fairfax King, Roland Cunningham;

Mrs. Eva Brown, Christopher Lipscombe, Lawrence Middleton, Samuel B. May, S. McIntyre, Philip Braxton, Mrs. Dorothy Banks, John Day, Mrs. Margaret Johnson, Roy Bates;

Miss Yvonne Land, Josef Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Lunor Mishoe, John Woodhouse, Mrs. Rowena Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. William Procter, William Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. William Driggins, and Hubron Blackwell.

CUPIDOOLING

Top nuptial news of the week came through an engraved announcement on Tuesday, telling of the marriage of Miss Esther I. Lyons to the Rev. George M.

REV. G. M. EDWARDS

Edwards, pastor of Pennsylvania Avenue AMEZ Church, the day before.

The bride is the clerk of the church. The Rev. Mr. Edwards is a widower of seven months. The couple will have a reception at the church on the 26th. Mamie Rideout, Douglass High School commercial teacher, is wearing a ring from Dr. Nelson Williams, I hear. And Anita Edwards hove wearing a sparkler (from Dr. L. E. in from New Orleans, last week, Posey of Southern University) on that telling finger.

PARTY PRATTLE

Did I mention that Saturday Eve party of "The Clique" . . . and its hundred attending guests, hosted by Anna Stafford, Sylvia Stafford, Cece Williams, Novella Brooks, Doris Williams, Dorothy Boone, Sue Harding and Pat Mitchner?

Or the one coming up, when The Women will dispense cocktails in the Blue Room of the York Hotel on the twenty-first?

Or the dilly the JUG's gave, Saturday night, at the domicile of the John Hagans, that began in the early evening and lasted until next midday?

Or Chi Delta Mu (medical fraternity) initiation on Thursday night, with Doctors Gilbert Banfield, William H. Watts, Thomas Harris, T. W. Anderson, W. Atwell Jones and Bertram Ectwich "going over." 'Twas at the Druid Hill Center, and a banquet followed.

Lambda Kappa Mu to Honor Founders

WASHINGTON

Members of Lambda Kappa Mu, business women's sorority, will mark their founder's day with a "smoker" on Friday, Jan. 20, at Kappa Kastle, 1801 R St. N.W., Mrs. Shelby Rhone, Chairman of the planning committee, has announced.

"NO BUSINESS LIKE SHOW BUSINESS"

Miss Jennie Mae Covington

If you were to ask Miss Covington what she would like to do of an evening, she is most certain to tell you—"Let's go to a show!"

Almost any kind of a show will do for Jennie — movie shows, stage shows and best of all, fashion shows!

"Yes indeed," says Jennie Mae! "I love Fashion Shows. Especially HENDIN'S Fashion Shows, why I still talk about the Fashion Show HENDIN'S put on last July. It was wonderful—and I'm looking forward to their next one."

Miss Covington, a resident of Baltimore all her life,—graduated from the St. Francis Academy on Chase Street—and is now president of the Academy's Alumni Association. She attends the St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church where she is active in the Ladies Sodality and the interracial group that meets at the Cathedral.

A recent illness caused Miss Covington to spend two months in the hospital, but we are happy to report that she is now feeling "as good as ever" and looking forward to wearing those beautiful Spring Fashions that are arriving every day at HENDIN'S entertained on Monday evening with Dr. and Mrs. Berkeley Butler, the P. D. G. Penningtons, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Harmon, Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Gloster, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams as guests, and the party making a second appearance on Saturday with the Penningtons in the host roles.

And there was Ethel Waters Henry's party on the same afternoon, with Gladys Derry, Catherine Adams, Mildred Seaborn and Flavia Thomas garnering gifts after out-bridging Marian Waters, Gladys Randolph, Ida Berry, Pauline Wharton, Lillian Berry, Elaine Nickens, Ruth McAbee, Josie Smith and Sadie Murphy.

MRS. ARRINGTON HOSTESS

Scores of guests shared Alice Arrington's hospitality at her post holiday party on Sunday evening.

Vubrry chi-chi was the hostess in a lace-trimmed black gown as she was assisted in receiving by Elmira Hull and with Edna G. Gray, smart as a whip in a black velvet suit and pearls; at the eggnog and punch bowls.

Among those who dropped in were:

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil H. Scott, Mrs. Bernice W. Welling, Miss Mary Louise Allen, William E. Clark, Miss A. Dukye Wood;

Miss Flora A. Pinkney, Miss Sarah Boyd, Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith, Miss Velma McEwen, Austin Briggs-Hall, Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Alleyne;

Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Hill, Mrs. Vera Woods, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Doles;

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Burgess, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Harmon, Mrs. Ruth Shipley.

MACKAYS FETED

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tyler Sr., were hosts Sunday at an appetizing buffet dinner honoring AFRO Managing Editor and Mrs. Cliff Mackay. The affair was held in the comfortable Tyler residence at Eccleston, Md.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Mackay, guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bourne, Miss Ida Mae Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tyler Jr., Charles Tyler, Misses Charlotte, Mae and Marcia Tyler, all of Eccleston, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Pindolph, Mrs. Minnie Armstrong, Mrs. Bessie Monks and Mrs. Blanche Ford, all of Baltimore.

SYMPOSIUM PLANNED

The Baltimore branch of the National Association of College Women has set its 27th National Day celebration at the YWCA on the 27th.

The affair, this year, a Symposium on "Women of Western Europe and World Peace" will have as speakers three women who traveled in Europe with the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, the past summer. They are Dr. Flemmie Kittrell, head of the department of home economics, Howard University; Mrs. Bertha McNeill, Washington teacher of English, Washington; and Mrs. Nellie Nichols Taylor, vice principal of a Wilmington Del., high school. All are national officers of the organization, being president, journalist and chairman of social relations, respectively. Mae Downs will be moderator.

MILDRED NICHOLSON HONORED

Mildred Grinage Nicholson was honor guest at her club, the Hobnobbers on last Saturday at the Glenn Tarter's Westwood Ave. home.

They paid tribute to her for a paper which she prepared two years ago advancing the theory that cancers contained fungus growth.

The gang presented her with a corsage of three gorgeous orchids flown by clipper that morning from Honolulu, and showered her with telegrams which arrived at the same time.

Members and husbands present were: the Glenn Tarters, Carlos Hutchines, Guy Baileys, Sherlock Grinages, Ira Moseleys, Jerome Todds, Lyle Roberstes, Maxwell Chatmans; Lillian Lee and Thelma Smith; and Eddie Mallory of NYC, guest of Mr. Hutchins.

SIGMA WIVES MEET

The Sigma Wives met at the home of Mrs. Bernard Harris on Saturday night when she entertained jointly with Mrs. J. E. T. Campbell.

Report on the Christmas party was made, and thank you letters were read from the House of Good Shepherd for the Christmas utility bags distributed by the group, containing toilet articles.

Final plans were made for the card party which will be given Friday at the YWCA.

Those present were Cora Gibson, Anna Smith, Geraldine Smith, Florine Bratton, Elizabeth Tilghman, Naomi Campher, Juanita Hill, Maralena Holden, Mamie Woolford, Catharine Johnson and Hazel Phillips.

QUE-ETTES PLAY

The Que-Ettes had their annual past season champagne sip Friday night, in the Wynns' club cellar.

The party started off with toasts to the new year, after which the band enticed couples to a bit of swing.

Bernice Monroe, who was mistress of ceremonies, welcomed the guests and as per usual did the club proud with her unusual wit.

A midnight buffet supper was served. Hostesses were Mrs. Rose Hampton, Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Helen Lee, and Mrs. Francis Hill.

Officers of the club are:

Mrs. Sallie Fletcher, president; Mrs. Roney Carr, vice president; Mrs. Beth Walker, secretary; Mrs. T. McDonald, treasurer; and Mrs. Wilhelmina Garmer, reporter.

PEREGRINATORS

Marion Webb Waters, holidaying at the home of her husband, Dr. George F. Waters, in Jacksonville, Fla., is back on the home front with gala memories of the visit.

Christmas morning, she and Dr. Waters attended a breakfast given by Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Lawson. Their guests included Dr. O. W. McIntosh, Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Childs, and Dr. E. Mae McCarroll of Newark, N.J. Each lady received as a Christmas present, a white satin bed jacket, and each gentleman a box of handkerchiefs. Before breakfast each guest was served with eggnog.

All day Monday they were guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Smith. In the morning they motored with them to St. Augustine, Florida, the oldest city in the United States. Among the places visited were Fort Marion, originally the Castle of San Marco, the oldest school house, and the Fountain of Youth. After the sight-seeing trip and visiting friends, they were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. David James, in this old city.

Wednesday evening, they were guests of the Flajax Club at its 19th annual Christmas dance, held at the night club, "The Two Spot."

Friday evening, they were entertained at dinner by Mrs. Nancy Patterson, on Sunday evening, were dinner guests of honor of Mr. and Mrs. L. Harrison.

Bernice Buckner is off again to New York to see her granddaughter, taking with her Fernie Saunders.

Their First Project

Marine Cpl. and Mrs. Harold Burke concentrate on their first mutual project, cutting their wedding cake, following their marriage in Baltimore. The bride is the former Miss Idabelle Hansley.

Miss Idabell Hansley Married to Marine Corporal H. B. Burke

Miss Idabell Hansley became the bride of Marine Corporal Harold B. Burke, U.C.M.C., at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold B. Burke Sr., 2128 McCulloh St., recently.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Marion Bascom of Douglas Memorial Community Church. Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Laura Marshall, pianist; and Mrs. Beulah Hines, soloist.

Uncle Officiates

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Joseph Holly of North Carolina. She wore a gown of white French crepe, its high neckline accented with silver sequins and crystal beads, a fitted boddies, and skirt enhanced with fly away panels. Her fingertip veil was held by a head piece of sequins and crystal beads and she carried white roses and baby's breath.

She was attended by Miss Christine Watkins of New York City, maid of honor. Miss Watkins wore blue-gray satin and a halo of pearls. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet. Bridesmaid was Miss Mildred Burke, sister of the bridegroom, who wore dusty pink crep, a halo of pearls, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet.

A reception followed the ceremony.
