Banquet and Prom Marked Meeting of Interracial Fraternity in Baltimore

A banquet, followed by a dance, marked the week end for Beta Sigma Tau Interracial Fraternity, Friday evening in Baltimore. The banquet session was held at the Penn Hotel, and was attended by, left to right, first photo, John Jamison, the Rev. Leonard Detweiler, and Walter Cooper. Second photograph shows Malvolm Taylor, secretary of the Lincoln University chapter, Morta Rosenbaum, Donald Ballott and Warren Redd, all of Lincoln. Third picture shows Arthur G. Murphy, Baltimore graduate chapter; Walter Cooper, president Lincoln chapter; Robert Torrence, secretary of the Baltimore graduate chapter, the Rev. Mr. Detweiler, of the Johns Hopkins chapter; and Eugene Chase, recording secretary of the Baltimore chapter. Miss Cora Williams and William Parrott were among couples who danced at the affair at the York Hotel, following the banquet.

Baltimore Delta Sigma Theta Sorors Mark Founders' Day

Restoring Masculine Ego Top Challenge, Delta Sorors Told

The greatest challenge to women is to restore the racial ego of men, Mrs. Elsie Austin, Washington attorney, told some 60 guests, Saturday, at the Founders' Day banquet, Epsilon Sigma Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Mrs. Austin formerly was national president of the sorority. She is the only colored woman graduate of the college of law, University of Cincinnati, and was a delegate to the first World Organization Conference called by the United Nations.

Miss Blanton Heard

Special feature of the banquet at the YWCA was the rendition of a Debussy prelude by Miss Carol Blanton, concert pianist, and professor of music at Morgan State College.

Mrs. Austin called for co-operation rather than competition with men. She said women must guard against the development of the sex complex which creates hostility between the two sexes.

"We must make them (men) know that freedom can mean contribution, and not competition," the attorney asserted, tracing the role of women in the years of struggle for equal rights. This struggle, she added, always has been associated with the rise of minorities.

Mrs. Austin held that as women are given more opportunity to contribute to the thinking of world patterns, there will be more advancement toward peace.

"For," she went on," Any culture that degrades woman passes that degradation on to the next generation." Here she called for a restoration of pride and ego in men so that the good traits may be passed to the future generations.

Gifts to Founders

Delta founders who were special guests at the affair were Mrs. Vashti T. Murphy of Baltimore, and who was presented with a scarf; and Mrs. Jimmie Bugg Middleton of Washington, presented with a jewelry set.

Greetings to the group were sent by Founders Ethel Cuff Black of New York; Eliza Shippin and Florence Toms of Washington; and Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, honorary member of the sorority.

Mrs. Evelyn Bass sang "The Lord's Prayer," and Miss Bernita Clayton opened the program with a meditation.

Former national president Mrs. Mae Wright Downs introduced the founders. Others at the speaker's table were Mrs. Gladys Shepperd, former national president; Mrs. Muriel Johnson, regional director; and Mrs. Pearl Cole Wilson, chapter president.

The presentations were made by Mrs. Lydia Mussenden. Mrs. Ellen Fisher, chairman of the committee on arrangements, presided.

Out-of-town Deltas present included Julia McDaniels of Washington; Mildred Jackson of Annapolis, Carlita Jones of Buffalo.

Others on the committee were Elsie Robinson, Lydia Mussenden, Bernita Clayton, Ruth Rosedom and Velma McEwen.

Guests included:

Sorors Mary Allen, Juliet Bragg, Evelyn Bass, Carol Blanton, Bernita Clayton, Ann Calhoun, Kay Carter, Rebecca Carroll;

Sorors Minnie Caesar, Gloria Basfield, Vivian Chamberlain, Mae Dyson, Ethlyn Evans, Ella Edemy, Ellen Fisher, Sally Fletcher;

Sorors Sara Gwaltney, Martha Gover, Ethel Hucles, Grace Hunt, Elmyra Hull, Dorothy Johnson, Mildred Jackson, Ruth Jones,

Sorors Ardell Jones, Annette Johnson, Kathryne Lane, Gwendolyn Lee, Frances Lucas, Lydia Mussenden,

Sorors Mary McPherson, Julia McDaniel, Florence Merchant, Mae Morris, Velma McEwen, Charlotte Mebane, Bernice McDaniel, Barbara Nelson;

Sorors Marguerite Peterson, Margery Prout, Betty Phillips, Carlita Jones, Dorothy Roberts, Inez Reed, Ruth Rosedom, Elsie Robinson;

Town and Campus

BLANCHE HILLEN JONES

Quite a "gone time" was had at the York Hotel Blue Room last Friday night, when Beta Sigma Tau fraternity, a newly formed inter-racial Greek organization, held forth.

Strapless gowns, platform shoes, gay woolen jerseys and blue serge suits were the attire that spotlighted the evening in the "fashion way." In the "food way," a banquet was held at the Penn Hotel, before the party, in which sirloin steak and french friers took the limelight.

Responsible for this affair were:

Robert Norris (Morgan) as president, Fredrick Scott (John Hopkins) as vice president, James Walters (Loyola) as executive secretary,

David Mitchell (Morgan) as treasurer, John Garrett (Morgan) as finance chairman, William Parrott (Coppin) as historian, Leon Holsey (Morgan) as senior advisor, Wallace Johnson (Morgan) as keeper of the ritual, James Robinson (Morgan) as pledgemaster, Warren Sheffey (Coppin) as social chairman.

Other charter members include Vernon Roberts, Melvin C. Watts, James Camphor, Arnett J. Brown, B. Carlton Scott, and Leon. J. White.

The recently made neophites are:

Arthur G. Murphy, Arthur Scribner, Joseph R. Cook, Daniel E. Dixon, Leroy I. Corbin, James R. Lee, Cleoth S. Grant, Richard F. Watson, Jerome Harris, Travis Vauls, and Winfield O. Creekmur.

Chuck Ldeluga was there also, all the way from Nigeria, West Africa. Charles Moore of Lincoln, Ermon Jones, John Jamisen and Herschel Simms joined in the fun, while Biddy Wood peeked in, so did Adele Ross and Dorothy Talley.

The ladies who waited patiently for the gents to arrive from the banquet were:

Doris Gibson, Peggy Campbell, Cathrine Matthews, Mildred Burke, Juanita Gales, Priscilla Larason, Zemora Young,

Gloria Roberts, Augustine Brown, Mrs. Daniel E. Dixon, Marie Hawkins, Geraldine Stokes, Ida L. Chisholm, Margarett Christopher, Leanna Barnes, Florine Allen, Ernestine Arnold, Delores Fisher,

Helen Jackson, Vernice Graves, Beatrice Fortune, Majorie Epps, Peggy Arnold, Marlene Preston, Nora Murphy, Josephine Wallace, Doris Gibson, Phyllis Hendircks, Leora Powell, Ruth Johnson, Audrey Quarles, Cathrine Matthews, Aris Quarles, Nancy Daniels, Marion Idlitt, Lillie Gilliard, and Mildred Bailey.

FEMININE FRONT

Team Feted

Turkey was the main entree at the football banquet and it tasted as good as the sirloin steak. Yes, the twentieth annual dinner honoring the championship football team of 1949 and coaches of Morgan College held at the Memorial Refectory Monday eve.

Highlighting the banquet were:

The inspiring speech of Coach Talmadge L. Hill, the statistical report of the director of athletic publicity, Dr. O. J. Chapman, the remarks of Jesse Linthicum, Walter Driskill, Ric Roberts, Coaches Clark and Brown, Edward P. Hurt, and Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, president;

The farewell remarks of the champion co-captains Athelstan E. Nelson, and Albert Gillbert Jr., the introductory remarks of the newly elected co-captains Charles R. Robinson and George D. Rooks,

The awards made by the student council president, Charles Reed, the playing of the record by Bill Stern and our own Coach Edward P. Hurt in New York City before the victorious Wilberforce-Morgan game and the melodious strains of music played by the college orchestra under the direction of R. Hayes Strider are banquet memories of 1950.

Incidentally, the team of '50 promises to be even greater!

The Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity held "Freshmen Scholarship Day" at the Christian Center, Tuesday.

If your finals haven't exhausted you beyond movement, drag your weary body down to our "Dust Bowl" on Friday, Jan. 27th and see and enjoy the Speech 214 Class's final. The plays that they will present will be a form of relaxation for "all crammers." The time is 8:15 p.m.

Miss Higgs Praised

Miss Francis Higgs, physical education instructor, also deserves full credit for the most successful "Dance Exhibition" given two weeks ago at the Memorial Refectory.

Don't tell anyone, but I think two of us know the authorship of that "much-talked" about "Rabble Sheet." We are, however, keeping it undercover!

Why doesn't that young town fellow leave that freshman girl alone, for if he only saw what happens on the campus after he takes his departure—he would!

What young handsome basketball player who is supposed to be all "goo-goo" eyes over a freshman girl, took another sophomore fille home from the victorious Morgan-Delaware game, Friday? Surprise!

Orchids or onions? To Warrick Hill and Burnell Ford, it is understood that they are quite the "Romeos" these days. Is it a freshmen or a sophomore? Who will win?

Will "history repeat itself" in the way of a certain lady and Ralph "Basketball" Sealey? Or can Ruth Ann Collins be moved? They tell us that she is as strong as the Rock of Gilbralter and both of them play basketball—common interest!

Who gave who out in front of Washington Hall, Wed. afternoon about 1:00? Eye witnesses said it was a "good one!"

Well, this is quite enough hinting for one week, so—so long!

See you there,—B. H. J.

CHURCH SOPRANO PREFERS HENDIN'S

MRS. LOLA SHORT

To worshippers at the Perkins Square Baptist Church, Mrs. Lola Short, 1010 W. Franklin St., is a familiar and notable personality. Each Sunday, they hear her sweet and lovely soprano voice in the church choir—and few events take place at the church without Mrs. Short's active participation.

"I've lived in Salisbury on the Eastern Shore for a number of years—" she told our Hendin reporter. "Baltimore is a tremendous city by comparison — but people here are just as nice and it's just as easy to make friends in this big city as it is in a small town."

"I suppose you would call my tastes simple," continued Mrs. Short. "I love singing in the choir and I enjoy a good movie. I insist on dignity and good taste in all my clothes, and, frankly, that's why I always buy them at HENDIN'S. They certainly have a fine store, and pick their styles with very fine taste. Yes, I really do enjoy coming to HENDIN'S often."
