MORGAN HONORS GRID'S 'MEN OF THE YEAR'

Others who praised the achievements of the CIAA and national football champions of 1949 included Walter Driskill, business manager of the Baltimore Colts (standing), and Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, president of Morgan, who is seated with Mrs. Jenkins. Thirty-five lettermen received awards.

Dr. R. L. Gill, grand historian of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, presenting achievement plaques on behalf of Morgan's Pi Omega chapter of the Greek-letter organization to the Morgan coaching staff for their outstanding accomplishments in the field of sports. Left to right, are: Dr. Gill, Coach Edward P. Hurt, Assistant Coaches Daniel N. Clark, Talmadge L. Hill and Kenneth E. Brown. Coach Hurt also received the "Coach of the Year" award.

Rooks, Robinson Elected Grid Co-Captains for '50

Omegas Honor Coaches for Outstanding Achievements; Players Lauded by Hill

The 35 lettermen who were honored along with coaches and cheer leaders at the 20th annual football banquet at Morgan State College, Monday night, elected George D. Rooks, fullback, and Charlie R. Robinson, guard, co-captains of the 1950 football team. At the same time, the Bears adopted the slogan, "The Bears will be nifty and swifty in fifty," replacing the old slogan, "The Bears will be fine in forty-nine," which was upheld in every respect.

The election of Rooks and Robinson, who succeed Co-Captains Athelstan E. Nelson and Albert C. Gilbert Jr., climaxes a heap of gridiron honors for both men. Both will be seniors next fall, and playing their final season with Morgan.

In addition to the letters, gold footballs and scrolls presented the players, the four coaches of the championship Morgan team were presented plaques in recognition of their outstanding achievements in the field of sports.

Coaches Get Plaques

The awards, made by Dr. R. L. Gill, grand historian of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, on behalf of the Pi Omega chapter, went to Coach Edward P. Hurt and his assistants, Talmadge L. Hill, Daniel N. Clark and Kenneth E. Brown.

Coach Hurt, who has guided Morgan to 13 CIAA championships in 20 years, also was awarded a citation as "Coach of the Year," and Rooks and Gilbert presented awards by Charles E. Reed, president of the Student Council, for outstanding performance and sportsmanship on the gridiron.

The many speeches made were highlighted by an expression from Coach Talmadge L. (Marse) Hill, who recalled the first Morgan championship banquet in 1930; traced the achievements of the Bears from the "lowest level of the first division in 1949 to the lofty pinnacle of conference championship in 1949," and commended the champions for the sacrifices they had made to achieve success.

Seniors Praised

Hill said the team's success was particularly noteworthy because it had been accomplished "against the best opposition the CIAA has had to offer in its 37 years of existence."

In a spirited talk, he hailed the title-winning Bears for their confidence and courage, honesty of purpose, allegiance, moral tone, persistence, intelligence, obedience, nerve and spirit—the combination of the first letters of each quality spelling the word, "Champions."

Hill paid especial tribute to the senior members of the squad and expressed a fervent hope for success for the new co-captains. He said Morgan was proud of its champions because members of the squad had accepted the philosophy that "success would come only as a result of thorough scientific preparation."

The invocation and blessing was given by the Rev. Howard L. Cornish, director of the Morgan Christian Center, and Edward N. Wilson served as toastmaster. Music was furnished by the College Orchestra, directed by R. Hayes Strider.

Among members of the college athletic committee present were Dr. Thomas P. Fraser, chairman; Mrs. Juanita G. Starke, secretary; James H. Carter, George C. Grant, Charles Reed, George H. Spaulding and Mr. Wilson.

Norm Skinner Paces Columbia's Victory

ANNAPOLIS, Md. — Sharing high scoring honors with his teammate, John Azary, Columbia University's tan cage star, Norm Skinner, paced the New Yorkers to a 45 to 37 victory over the Navy Academy, here, Wednesday.

Skinner and Azary scored 14 points each and were the big guns in the Lions' last period drive which carried them from a narrow 33-32 lead with 6½ minutes to go to the comfortable victory margin.

Navy led at half-time, 20-19, but Columbia surged to a 33-30 lead near the end of the three-quarter mark in a game that saw the lead change nine times.

Bear Cagers Off on 2-Day Road Trip

Morgan State College's basketball aggregation, now 2-2 in the CIAA race, come face to face with two of the teams they apparently must overhaul if they are to get top recognition in the battle for tournament consideration.

The Bears, who showed much improvement in downing Delaware State last Friday, 79-71, leave today (Friday, Jan. 20) for a two-day trip in Virginia. They meet Virginia Union in the Richmond school's Belgian Building tonight, then swing over to Petersburg for a crack at the tough Va. State Trojans on Saturday night.

This marks the second road trip of the campaign, and unfortunately the Bears are encountering a pair of the most highly rated clubs in the conference on successive nights.

Faces Tough Task

Union which spilled Howard, 58-36, Tuesday night in Washington, boasts a 7-1 conference record the lone loss being to West Virginia State which the Panthers also defeated. Zeke Clement, captain and playmaker for the Panthers, hit for 15 points against Howard and will be the man to watch in the Richmond affray.

Va. State, led by lanky Leroy Banks, with 28 tallies, whipped St. Paul, 79-59, Tuesday night, and has lost only two games thus far this season. It will be recalled that St. Paul upset Morgan, giving some indication of the herculean task facing the Bears in Virginia.

M4A Basketball Standings

The Easterwood Progressive A.C. took undisputed possession of first place in the Maryland AAAA Unlimited League by nosing out the Horsemen A.C., 29-28, last Sunday.

It was the fifth straight league win for the interracial five, and the first loss for the South Baltimore aggregation.

With the score never more than four points difference until the end of the third period, when Easterwood led, 28-21, the Horsemen led by Brown and Carter came within two points of tying up the ball game. The interracial five called time out with less than a minute to go, then kept possession of the ball until 10 seconds remained when Carter of the Horsemen stole the ball and made a desperate attempt to score, but

Agates Stubborn

An upset was nearly pulled by the Afro Agates when the newspapermen lost to the Sportsmen, 68-65. The Agates, led by Scotty Gross, put up a stubborn battle all the way.

In other games, the United Public Workers notched their first league victory by downing the St. Pius A.C., 42-25. The Social Security five was led to victory by Yancey who scored 19 points. The Royal Panthers won on a forfeit when the Rinks failed to appear.

Robins Threatened

The tall and rangy Red Robins gave the Cougar-Adelphi a real battle but were nosed out, 27-25, in an Intermediate League game of the Maryland AAAA.

The Red Robins threw a scare into the defending champions when they took an early lead and held it until the last two minutes of the tight ball game. With the Adelphi's behind, Johnson of the Cougars converted two fast lay-ups to tally four important points which meant the ball game.

The Eagles gave the Crusaders a tough battle but were finally downed, 36-30. In the other game, the NWPBC looked polished and cool in taking the Enon Baptist Warriors into camp, 42-25. Thomas of the Boys Club was high man with 16 points.

Unbeaten Lincoln in Stiff Test Against Md. State

PHILADELPHIA

The prestige of the CIAA will be riding on Lincoln University's shoulders this Saturday when the Lions oppose the stellar Maryland State College unit in a basketball doubleheader set for the University of Pennsylvania's Palestra, 33rd St. below Walnut.

Maryland State, since its reorganization several years ago, has been campaigning independently and successfully among the colleges which would schedule them. Up until this year Virginia Union was the only CIAA school to maintain athletic relations with the Raiders.

Since the Virginia Union Panthers have had little recent success against Vernon McCain's boys, its now up to Irv (Moon) Mondschein's veterans from Lincoln to turn the tide.

Despite the eight-point advantage which the smart boys predict Maryland will win by, many Lincoln rooters are "taking all of that we can get."

Lincoln Strong

Actually Lincoln appears to have one of the finest quintets it has ever floored. Led by triggerman Ben Brown from Baltimore, the Lions have a squad capable of sharp shooting and controlling the backboards at the same time.

Lanky James (Stretch) Williams, last year's court captain, will be lost, via the graduation route, following the Jan. 21 contest. He is rated as the best defensive man in the East and is certain to make his swan song one to be remembered by the 6,000 witnesses expected at the court classic.

Lincoln has thumped decisively this season, Morgan, Howard, St. Paul, Moravian and Lebanon Valley.

Custer, Jones Set for Coliseum Card

A week late but still attractive to ring fans, the boxing doubleheader featuring two 10-round scuffles will be staged at the Coliseum Monday night.

Clem Custer, rising smacksmith from Detroit, will face Sammy Angott, former lightweight champion from Washington, Pa., in one of the headliners, with Harold (Baby Face) Jones, also of Detroit, battling Teddy (Red Top) Davis of Brooklyn in the other 10-rounder.

The double feature originally was scheduled for last Monday, but a postponement became necessary when Angott and Jones, stablemates, and their manager, Jack Laken, were involved in an auto crash near Frostburg while en route to Baltimore.

Back in Shape

Laken, most seriously injured of the three, was still in a Frostburg hospital early this week. The fighters emerged from the accident more fortunately, but cuts and bruised sustained by Angott made the postponement necessary. Jones was only bruised and shaken up. Both are expected to be back in tip-top shape for their assignments next Monday.

Two weeks ago Angott made his first Baltimore appearance and, fighting before one of the largest crowds here in years, the former ring king made a solid hit in walloping out a draw with the popular Sonny Boy West, undefeated locally.

Adams Sets Hot Pace in Main Line League

PHILADELPHIA

Stu Adams, Wayne ace, appears headed for the individual scoring title in the Main Line Basketball League. In his team's first 14 games he tallied 301 points, 79 more than the second highest scorer in the loop.

Charles E. Reed (right), president of Morgan Student Council, presents scroll to George Rooks, All-CIAA fullback and co-captain-elect of the 1950 Morgan team, for his outstanding achievements on the gridiron. Rooks was "Player of the Year."

Lions Top Elizabethtown, Howard, Moravian Quints

PHILADELPHIA

The undefeated Lincoln University basketball team, coached by Irving Mondschein, extended its winning streak to six games over the week end by defeating Moravian College in Bethlehem, Pa., 60-57; Howard University, 63-46, at Lincoln on Friday night, and Elizabethtown College, 71-57, on Saturday night, at Elizabethtown, Pa.

The Moravian College and Elizabethtown College victories were interracial encounters while the victory over Howard was a conference tilt. In conference games the Lions have now won three games, a record which boosts them to the top of the league.

Break Deadlock

Against Moravian, the Lions had to really put on the pressure. Behind 19-6 at the end of the first quarter, the Lions, aided by the rebound activity of Jim Cooke, 6-foot-6 center and the sharp shooting eye of Ben Brown, gradually caught the Greyhounds and at the end of the half had tied the score at 29-29.

Stretch Williams and Bobby Smith assisted in this drive by throwing up timely shots. Ben Brown walked away with the top scoring honors of the night by contributing 21 points, followed by Williams who tallied 13 points. For Moravian, Werpehoski and Wieder scored 18 and 11 points, respectively.

Special note must be given to Jim Cooke, however, for he kept the Lions in the ball game. Controlling the backboard offensively and defensively, Cooke directed the Lion offensive from the pivot post and assisted the scoring by adding eight points.

Check Booth

Against their arch rival Howard, the Lions were fired up at the beginning of the game. Angry over the Bison's 30-6 gridiron victory on Thanksgiving Day, the Lions took the tap-off and converted it into two points right from the start. Warned over the scoring ability of the Bison's lanky center, Frank Booth, Coach Mondschein assigned Stretch Williams to this potential danger and Williams did the unbelievable job of holding Booth to four points, two of which came via the charity route, and sent the Howard threat out of the game at the start of the second half by virtue of five personal fouls.

Williams went on to score 14 points, for a total which was exceeded only by his teammate Ben Brown, who threw up seven field goals and three free throws for 17 points. Warren Barrick, the only freshman on the Lincoln starting lineup and Denny Thornhill, veteran Lion guard, stood out in retrieving lost balls and stealing would-be Howard tallies. Ernie Davis scored 11 points to lead the Howard attack.

Journeying to Elizabethtown on Saturday, the Lions avenged a 73-46 setback handed them last season by Elizabethtown. Behind all the way, the closest that Elizabethtown came to catching the high-flying Lions was at the end of the half at which time the score stood at 42-34 in favor of the Lions.

Garrett Scores 18, But Indiana Loses

IOWA CITY, Ia. (ANP)—With Bill Garrett scoring 18 points the Indiana Hoosiers failed in a last-minute rally Saturday and lost their second straight game, 65 to 64, to the Iowa Hawkeyes.

Garrett had a chance to toss in a game-winning field goal in the final second of the game but his shot missed as the final whistle was blown.

Grandma's Recipe

Another Madera Wine that is winning more and more friends every day is Madera American Blackberry Wine. This is truly an old-time treat, full of the good, rich, blackberry flavor that Grandma's used to have. Only the plumpest, juiciest Oregon blackberries are fine enough for use in Madera American Blackberry Wine. To bring out every last bit of the blackberry bouquet, extra sugar is added. Every sip of this wine will bring back memories . . . memories of the good old days when no home was complete without a bottle or two of blackberry wine. An old recipe is the secret behind the wonderful flavor of this wine. This recipe is followed carefully, step by step. If ever you knew the pleasure there was in a glass of Grandma's own-make wine, you'll find it again in Madera American Blackberry Wine. It costs so little . . . tastes so good!

Wins Popularity Test

Madera California Wines are the largest-selling wines in Maryland. More people ask for Madera Wines than any other wines. The reasons for this tremendous popularity can be found in the very first glass of Madera Wine you drink. You'll realize that, regardless of price there is no finer California Wine on the market than Madera Wine. Yet, Madera Wine is yours to enjoy at a popular price. Huge volume and the last-word in modern bottling equipment enable us to sell Madera Wines at a popular price. So, be sure to ask your dealer for Madera Wine. You, too, will agree that Madera Wines taste so good, yet cost so little.

Wines Through The Centuries

Wine has played a part in everyday living for as far back as man's memory goes. Plutarch and Plato, Shakespeare and Kipling, Dickens and Milton, Jonathan Swift and Benjamin Franklin are among the host of famous poets, writers and statesmen whose thoughts on the virtues of wine live with us today.

Sherry Big Favorite

Take Madera Pure California Sherry for example. This is the most versatile bottle of wine you could have in your home. It is the most popular wine of all, because it can be served in so many ways. Madera Sherry is delicious with appetizers before dinner, or with sandwiches, cakes or cookies at any time.

No Special Glasses Needed

It's the taste of the wine . . . not the glass it's in . . . that counts most. Madera California Wines taste good from any glass. Even a water tumbler is "correct" glassware in which to serve it. Pour your wine right from the bottle, too. When you serve Madera Pure California Wines, you're serving California's finest, made from fresh, sun-[illegible] grapes, matured until [illegible] and completely [illegible] don't worry about [illegible] be sure to serve [illegible] may be sure your [illegible] it. Madera Wines [illegible] cost so little.

UNION STRATEGY ROUTS BISON FIVE

Three-Out and Two-In Offensive Stuns Locals

Visitors Check Sharp-Shooting Booth While Clement Shines on Scoring End

WASHINGTON

Outmaneuvering an erratic shooting Howard University quintet on smart offensive strategy, Virginia Union routed the Bisons, 58-36, for the Panthers' fourth conference win in five starts, Tuesday night, at Uline Arena.

Union, dealing Howard her third conference setback in five tilts, counted on a fast break from a three-out, and two-in offensive thrust to crack the Bisons' defense with comparative ease for a 28-16 margin at halftime. Thwarting Howard under the backboards and holding Frank Booth, chief scorer, to three points in the first half, the visitors galloped to an overwhelming margin after intermission.

With Channing Phillips and Sam Adams providing the chief assault, Union stretched its lead from 30-16 to as much as 55-25 after 11 minutes of play in the second half. During this drive, Howard tallied only three times from the floor.

Clement Outstanding

Diminutive Ozelious (Red) Clement was the ruffian in helping Howard to her one-sided defeat as he spearheaded the offensive drive which saw the Panthers employ a fast break and pickoff with one of three players backcourt breaking fast across the open and often unguarded center or down the sidelines to hit the hoop with regularity.

Firing with accuracy from the sides, the Brooklyn-bred Clement flipped in three goals from the side, then added six free throws to pace Union's attack in the first half. Clement took scoring honors with 15 points.

Although Howard's Booth, Hilliary Thompson and Whitfield Pollard constantly flurried the goal with back court shots, only a small percentage found their mark. It remained for Ernie Davis to pace the locals' attack with his fiery, competitive play throughout the game.

Davis Registers 14 Points

Davis, 5-foot, 9-inch junior from East Orange, N.J., took top scoring honors with 14 points, nine of these coming in the first half.

The contest marked the Bisons' last home appearance here until February 7 when they return to face North Carolina State's Eagles at Uline Arena.

The Bisons' itinerary will include engagements with West Virginia, Saturday, January 21; Virginia Union, Friday, January 27; Virginia State, Saturday, January 28; and Morgan, Saturday, February 4.

Mexican Quintet Due Here Jan. 27

Latins Re-Scheduled; May Play Md. State

Local basketball fans who had looked forward to a peep at the University of Mexico quintet, which was scheduled to play here several weeks ago but failed to make the engagement, will get the opportunity next Friday, Jan. 27.

Roland Rogers, secretary of the Morgan Alumni Association, which is sponsoring the appearance of the Mexico aggregation, said today (Friday, Jan. 20) that arrangements had been completed for the team to show here on Jan. 27.

Originally, the Mexican quintet was scheduled to play Morgan State College, but the Jan. 27 date will be inconvenient for the Bears inasmuch as final mid-term examinations will be underway at that time.

May Play Md. State

With Morgan unavailable, it is a possibility that the Mexicans will oppose Maryland State College. Efforts are being made to complete negotiations with Md. State this week end, and if the Eastern Shore combination is unavailable, the Morgan Alumni team will provide the opposition.

Mr. Rogers said that regardless of which team provides the opposition, the Mexican team would play on Jan. 27. The game is listed for the Baltimore Gardens.

Last Minute Rally

A scrappy Trotters team from Cherry Hill fell before a last-minute rally by the YMCA Phalanx, 38-26. The losers hustled all the way but were outmanned by the taller Y outfit.

The Trotters gained some consolation in holding the Y team, which has been averaging 55 points per game, to 38 talies. Elsie Peterson and James Mason led the scoring with 8 points. The Y team held its tie with the Horsemen for second place.

Horsemen Win

The Post Office gave the Horsemen the fight of their fives before succumbing to the superior team play of the South Baltimoreans; 29-23. Arrayed in their flashy new uniforms, the Mailmen battled the Horsemen on even terms until the final minutes. Gilliam was high man with 15 points, while Ward led the Post Office with 11.

Trinity Scores

The Cloverdale Cubs and the Trinity Terrapins engaged in a tight struggle for three quarters but Trinity opened up in the final period and swept to a 24-18 victory. The Dennis brothers, Walter and Charles, sparked Trinity's attack as the Cloverdale quint weakened in the stretch. The two scored 15 of the Cubs' 24 tallies.
