A concerted effort is being made in the Turner Station area to raise funds for the March of Dimes.

DEVOTED CHURCH WORKER

MISS DORA NELSON

The Emmanuel Christian Community Church is indeed fortunate to have such an active and tireless worker as Miss Dora Nelson, of 713 Lafayette Avenue, has proven herself to be.

Unlike so many of us—Miss Nelson gives more than just "lip service" to her church. She is a member of the Deaconess Board, Financial Secretary of the "Whosoever Will" Circle affiliated with her church, and also sings in the Shrine Light Gospel Chorus.

Miss Nelson was born in St. Mary's County, Maryland, moved to Washington when she was only twelve, and graduated from the Cardova Business High School in the Nation's Capital. In 1938, she moved to Baltimore—and it wasn't long before she found out about HENDIN'S.

"My good friend, Mrs. Allean Butler, first told me about HENDIN'S and your wonderful fashions. It's a beautiful store. I've always found the nicest clothes at HENDIN'S—and the sales girls are very nice, too!"

Store Now Open to 9 o'Clock on Monday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday Nights.

Cocktailer High Spot Women's Anniversary

with Lula Jones Garrett

Mesdames Elaine Davis, Inez Reed, Jimmy Finney, Rebecca Carroll and Bernice M. McDaniels. Mrs. Jones will return home with her two boys, Jackie and Tony, Tuesday.

PEREGRINATORS

Viola Jackson and Gwenivieve Harris, representing the Baltimore club, went up to Wilmington, Saturday, for one of the prettiest luncheons of the season, when that chapter of the National Association of College Women celebrated Founder's Day. The national president, Dr. Flemmie Kittrell of Washington, was speaker. Mrs. Lillian Copeland is here from Los Angeles, Calif. visiting her relatives. For four months. From here she will return to the Coast, then off to Japan to join her husband, Sgt. Alexander Copeland. She is the former Lillian Dameron of this town.

After her address at the annual meeting of the Madison Avenue Branch YWCA, Thursday evening, Mrs. Inez Wilson was guest of Mrs. Pearlie Pennington, for a brief chat with friends. Thereabouts were Mesdames Theresa Waters, Anita Thomas, Verda Welcome, Virginia and Eleanor McGuire of Washington and Alice Arrington. Mrs. Wilson, en route from New York to Washington, was house guest of Mrs. Arrington, and her guest at breakfast on Friday morning when Mrs. Vivian Alleyne was other guest.

DATE DATA

The Auxiliary to the Funeral Directors Association met this week, planned a cocktailer and fashion show for Feb. 12 at the York Hotel, at a fee, which they will donate to a project at Henryton Hospital. Mae Locks heads the group and Alice Young is chairman. Come this Saturday and the Baltimore branch of National Association of College Women will hold forth at their Founder's Day symposium, at the YWCA. The same day the Women's Democratic Campaign Committee has a party set for the York Hotel beginning at five-thirty.

WIVES CELEBRATE

The Alpha Wives celebrated their third birthday Tuesday night by entertaining themselves at dinner and cards in the Blue Room of the York Hotel. A beautifully decorated cake was cut by the president, Ella Edemy, and the virgin slice given to Flossie Dedmond, the first president. Greetings came from Olivia Dixon who was unable to attend and at whose home the Alpha Wives were born.

The Wives sang "Happy Birthday" to themselves and then retired to card tables for a session.

The lucky ones who garnered beautifully wrapped gifts, to find they had toilet water, perfume and French soap were:

Audrey Butler, Frances Mackay, Mattie Connor, Ruby Walker, Jacqueline Watts, Ellsworth Rhetta, Madeline Murphy, Marguerite Brown, and Dorothy Gibson.

And the gals dressed for their party too. Vivian Pendleton did honors to a black crepe that had a tricky draped fold in the rear with fringe, Ella Edemy's two piece, very puffed sleeved taffeta was complimented with a gardenia on her bag, Vashti Matthews was cute in her blue taffeta, off-the-shoulder frock with a bit of white peeping out which was really the top of the strapless top. Chic is the word for Mattie Connor who topped her all-black outfit with a sequin beret.

Frances Mackay's dinner frock had pink crepe under its black lace top. A pink sequin-trimmed blouse topped Audrey Butler's black skirt. To be very smart, Marguerite Brown selected a navy sheer wool, with a side beaded drape and matching beads on the tailored collar. Adding color to the group were the red frocks worn by Robbie Chissell and Jacqueline Watts, the blue print by Irene Templeton.

Others about were: Vashti Murphy, Clementine Knox, Catherine Murphy, Charlotte Hackett, Verda Welcome, Miriam Brown, Kay Carter, Llewellyn Walker, Yvette Murphy, Julia McDaniel, Louise Dennis, Bertie West, Lucille Fitzgerald, Virginia Parks, Hilda Higgins, and Mae Campbell.

X* Allenette Gail was feted on her third birthday by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gail at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Edith Gail, who also acted as hostess.

Members of the tricycle set present were:

Richard, Margaret, and Francine Sheppard, Ann Victoria and Nina Bell Adams, Courtney Carroll, Arthur and Stephen Williams;

Eva Marie Lassiter, Vashti, Smith, Robert and Betty Matthews, Warren and Carol Ann Lee, Karen Pinderhughes, April and Arthur Johnson III, William Martin, Toni Wood and Tony Jones, of Buffalo, N.Y.

Others present were:

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Jr., Edward Smith, Miss Audrey Stubbs, Messrs and Mesdames Andrew Faulkner, James Wood, David Scott, Arthur Johnson Sr., Stephen Williams, Osborne Carroll;

Mesdames Evelyn Harris, Audrey Sheppard, Margaret Pratt, Maude Haney, Annie Lee, Mabel Queen, Audrey Pinderhughes, Geneva Watts, Velma Tripp, and Eva Lassiter.

The past week end was a busy one for Gamma chapter of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa. The Chapter sponsored an informal dance on Friday for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund. The winter decorations were much more seasonal than Baltimore's weather. Sorors and guests had a gay time dancing to the music of King Draper's Orchestra. The dance was held at the Elk's Hall.

On Saturday the group held its monthly meeting at the YWCA. Following the business, the sorors enjoyed a delicious repast.

Sorors present were:

Catherine Adams, Victorine Adams, Ethel Bowling, Rebecca Brown, Sadie Bryant, Audrey Butler, Elsie Carter, Elmira Collins, Mattie Connor, Bertha Cross, Lena Dickerson;

Bennie Fatio, Mabel Gee, Sue Harmon, Ruby Grooms, Mary Holmes, Alice Fauntleroy, Delores Hunt, Annie Johnson, Anne Payne;

Carrie Johnson, Romaine Jones, Fannie Lawson, Rosalie McGuire, Mary Proctor, Beatrice Rawlings, Elizabeth Stewart, Merita Stokes, Eva Gibson, Allegra Taylor, Frances Thompson;

Virginia Hobbs, Eula Watkins, Shirley Watkins, Melba Rawlings, Gladys Daniels, Edna Finney, Isabelle Garner, and Ruth Redwine.

"That sunny flavor is a sure sign of Quaker Corn Meal"
You just taste a piece of hot, new-baked corn bread made from Quaker Corn Meal. See if you don't agree that it has a flavor that's fresh and sweet as a spring day—a real sunny flavor. Yes, and notice its texture. Quaker Corn bread is light . . . and smooth, too.
Quaker's sunny flavor comes from water washing—gallons of water pour over every grain 'til it's clean. Then it's spoil-proofed. That means we remove most of the oils that give a bitter flavor to ordinary corn meal. Serve piping hot, sunny-flavored Quaker Corn Bread today.
You can taste the quality in Quaker Corn Meal and Quaker Grits
