Dunbar Has Easy Time at Sollers

Bill (Sugar) Cain and his Dunbar High School basketers had an easy time of it disposing of the Sollers Point High School cage quints on the latters' court Wednesday afternoon.

The Poet Varsity collected a 55-26 decision from the Sollers Big Five, with Samuel Powell and John Boykins showing the way. Powell chalked up 13 points and Boykins was runner-up in individual scoring with nine.

In the Junior Varsity encounter the East Baltimore lads registered a wallopping 59-5 decision.

The Poets are off this afternoon (Friday) but travel to Washington, Monday, and tangle with Phelps Vocational High.

Seton Hall-Morgan Duel Forseen in Mile Relay

Stanfield, Sprint Champ, Slated to Compete; Rhoden to Lock With Geo. Guida McKinley

BULLETIN

George Rhoden, quarter-mile ace of the Morgan State College track team, in all likelihood will be available for service in the South Atlantic AAU championships at 5th Regiment Armory Wednesday night. Rhoden suffered a spike wound in the Millrose Games at New York last week, and Dr. Charles R. Campbell said Thursday he believed recovery is sufficient to permit him to compete in the Armory affair. Dr. Campbell, however, advised against Rhoden's participation in the Boston A.A. Games in the Hub this weekend.

Judging from the star-studded list of entries it would be safe to assure that the 5th annual South Atlantic AAU indoor track and field championships, to be held Wednesday night at 5th Regiment Armory, will easily surpass any meet that has been staged in this city.

Added to the already imposing lineup of sprinters, routers and jumpers will be the speedy Seton Hall team which last week turned a sparkling 3-19 victory in the college mile relay.

Bears in Relay

Fred Liedig, meet director, told the AFRO Thursday afternoon, that the Jersey aggregation will lock in the night's feature with Eddie Hurt's classy Morgan State College foursome and the shifty Police Sports Association quartet, of New York City.

George Rhoden, national outdoor 400-meter champion, will represent the Bears in this year's 600-yard renewal, and he promises to be a prime factor in a heated duel that will also involve George Guida, ex-Villanova star, and Herb McKenley, world record holder for the 440-yard event. Guida has captured the last two runnings of the South Atlantic 600.

Stanfield Due

Plenty of excitement is offered in the sprint was well as in the longer tests. Andy Stanfield, the national champ, will toe the mark in the 60 against Henry Thresher, of Mercersburg Academy, who became the big surprise of the Evening Star games in Washington last month. Jimmy Fielding, of Georgetown, Morgan's Bob Tyler, and George McGowen, fleet-footed star of University of Maryland.

The half-mile may prove a humdinger as well, what with Phil Thigpen, Millrose 880-yard titlist, destined to face a stellar field including Bill Brown, of Morgan; Browning Ross, Villanova star racing in the colors of Penn. A.C., and Carl Joyce of Georgetown.

Morgan in Duel

Coach Eddie Hurt had his Morgan College thinclads out for a warm-up this afternoon (Friday) at 5th Regiment Armory, prepping for the annual South Atlantic AAU games. The Bears engaged in an informal dual meet with the Baltimore Olympic Club, beginning at p.m.

Dunbar Five Bows to Trenton High

TRENTON, N.J.—With Buddy Logan scoring 30 of his team's points, Trenton Catholic High defeated Dunbar High (D. C.), 58-48, here Tuesday night, on the winners' court.

Catholic High, who will play Dunbar in a return game, Feb. 22, in Turner's Arena at Washington, D.C., scored its margin of victory mainly from the free throw line. The winners tallied 18 times to Dunbar's 10, and bested the visitors, 20-19 in field goals.

Donald Lipscomb, diminutive guard, returned to a forward position, and promptly showed why he should be permitted to remain there by scoring 21 points. Teammate Oliver Thompson followed with 11 points.

Cougar-Adelphis preserved their unbeaten record for the season by snatching a thrill-packed 39-37 verdict from a clever Ten Strong quint. The latter held the lead throughout most of the game but saw victory slip from their grasp in the last two minutes. Trailing by one point in the closing seconds, Fleetwood Wise hooked the deciding tally from the sideline, the ball dropping through the cords as the final whistle blew.

Agates Win And Lose In Cage Tests

The AFRO Agates basketers thumped the Turner Station Olde Tymers, 40-23, Saturday, only to drop a heart-breaking 51-41 game to the Horsemen the following night, in an M4A league setto.

In mid-season form, the Agates gave the Olde Tymers a basketball lesson in the new Sollers Point High gym but were slightly off for the more experience Horsemen.

The Agates' 12-0 first period lead was held despite the frantic shots of elongated (Rev.) Harold Nixon and diminutive (Dr.) Arthur Johnson.

The Tymers used 13 players to aid the cause, a benefit for the March of Dimes Campaign, contributions to which were collected by Mrs. Marie Johnson during the evening.

Gross High Man

Scotty Gross led the Agates with 11 markers; Herndon White made 10, Roger Bowie 8, Stu Adams 4, Briscoe 3 and Wood and Gilbert 2 each. T. Venable sank 8 counters for the losers.

The Horsemen's game was a seesaw affair with the lead changing hands down to the closing minutes.

The Newsmen's Herndon White looped 6 2-pointers and 4 free throws for 16 markers. Gross scored 11 and Bowie 8. R. Brown tallied 14 to lead the Horsemen, followed by teammates Gilliam with 10 and E. Lewis with 8.

M4A teams are entering the second half of the league with games being played week ends in the St. Francis Xavier Hall, Eden St. near Eager. This Saturday, the Agates meet St. Pius at 7:30 p.m. —P. GRAY

Eagles Romp

Unleashing a devastating second half attack, the Eagles scored in a rout over the Clowns, last week, 60-35. The absence of height in the South Baltimoreans' lineup had much to do with their inability to cope with the victors.

Carver Rallies to Down Phelps

Trainers Overhaul Foe to Cop 5th SAC Win

Overcoming a 23-19 halftime deficit, the Carver Vocational High School basketers of Baltimore, registered their fifth South Atlantic Conference win of the campaign on Wednesday, downing Phelps Vocational High, 42-36, in the latter's gym.

The Tradesmen went into the van at the outset, holding a 13-8 advantage at the end of the first quarter and clinging to the lead until late in the third period. It was not until the closing minutes of the quarter that the visitors were able to move ahead.

Roseborough Tops

Roseborough's 16 markers played a major part in the annexation of Carver's fifth triumph in six conference starts.

Little's 10 points were the most potent contribution to the Phelps cause.

Coach Sodie White takes his Trainer youngsters to Annapolis this afternoon (Friday), to engage the Wiley Bates High School five.

Tan Fighters Annex 4 of 8 Army Tourney Titles

Rezendes Chills Monaco In Stunning Upset at Myer

Terry and Simmons Cop Crowns In Thrilling Finals of Regional Boxing Championships

WASHINGTON

Staging the biggest upset in the Military District of Washington boxing tourney finals, Jolting Joe Rezendes of Army Medical Center chilled Charles (Blackie) Monaco of Fort Belvoir to lead tan fighters to four of the eight championships Friday night at Fort Myer.

The Providence, R.I. puncher captured the welterweight crown by scoring a brilliant knockout over Monaco, a heavy favorite in 1:23 of the second round. Disregarding Monaco's three tourney knockouts with a devastating right hand, the stocky, muscular 144-pounder Rezendes made quick work of this opponent.

Straight Right Stops Monaco

Rezendes battered Monaco around the ring, flooring him twice in the first round. Monaco fought back desperately trying to slip his powerladen right hand in. He succeeded in staggering Rezendes several times, but was trapped in a neutral corner where Jolting Joe belted him out with a straight right to the jaw in 1:23 of the second round.

Rezendes, who was kayoed in the quarter-finals of the District Golden Gloves tourney by Tommy Hawkins of the 12th St. YMCA, chalked up his third knockout of the Army tourney. His opening effort was a round knockout over Bob Tibbs of Fort Bevoir and Red Bank, N.J.

He followed through on Wednesday night by stopping Jim Mustain of Fort Belvoir in the second stanza. Mustain had two tourney knockouts to his achievement before facing Rezendes.

Other tan performers winning crowns included the following:

Terry Wins

Hiawatha Terry of Fort Belvoir, 208-pound heavyweight from Elm City, N.C., who decisioned Joe Presberry of Army Medical Center and West Chester, Pa. Both are colored. Terry advanced to the finals by flattening Fort Myer's Jim Brown in 2:05 of the second round.

Jasper Colson of Fort Belvoir and native of Nyack, N.Y., copped the light heavyweight title by decisioning Fort Myer's Frank Cannata in the finals.

Colson drew a bye the opening night, but encountered a tough participant in Bob Parish, white, of Fort McNair. Colson was hard pressed but scored a close decision over Parish who previously had decisioned Ed McCullers of Fort Myer and chilled Dan Sullivan of South Post, Fort Myer.

Virginia State Tops Bears

Avenges Early Loss in Baltimore Game

Virginia State College's cage quintet, battling to stay in the forefront of the CIAA race, avenged last week's defeat by Morgan State College here Tuesday night.

The Trojans, with Leroy Banks sparking the offense, downed the Bears, 68-55, on the Baltimore court. Ten days ago, the Bears had edged the Trojans at Petersburg, 51-50.

In Tuesday night's contest, the Trojans took the lead from the outset and maintained a slight bulge throughout the game. At half-time, the Trojans were in front, 23-20, and they continued the winning pace by outscoring the Bears, 45-35, in the second period for the final count.

Banks Stands Out

Banks, lanky center from Newport News, Va., cashed seven foul shots and eight field goals for high-points honors with 23 tallies. Ralph Sealey, the Brooklyn youth, who is the Morgan sparkplug, hit for 16 points to lead the losers.

The only other two players to record double figures in the scoring column were Ritter and Williams of Va. State, who racked 13 each.

Bowling Group Ignores Bid for Registration

WASHINGTON

Charges of discrimination against minority group bowlers were made against the National Duckpin Bowling Congress, an affiliation of the American Bowling Congress this week.

Robert Toles, head of the Strike-Rite Bowling Alleys, 1000 U St., N.W., said that two registered letters to the NDBC seeking sanction as a member have not been answered. Mr. Toles said he was informed by a local representative at the last NDBC meeting that his letter was brought up, but no action was taken.

Mr. Toles's charges followed a story earlier this week that the AFRO, which works hand in hand with the NDBC, denied the organization was monopolistic or discriminatory.

Groups Work Jointly

It is to be made clear that the ABC sanctions alleys with ten pins while the NDBC sanctions alleys with duck pins. However, both groups are co-ordinated.

The two groups are under fire for their strong lilywhite policy in retaining in their constitution a clause limiting membership to white males only.

Currently the State of Wisconsin through Attorney General Fairchild has asked the court to enjoin the ABC from operating in Wisconsin until the discriminatory practices are eliminated.

Attacking the ABC's argument that "We stop nobody from bowling. We don't control the alleys and we make no objection, to the use of the alleys by other groups," Mr. Toles said this is a way of shifting the blame to the alleys.

If the alleys already sanctioned did not conformed to the ABC and the NDBC policies, then they would be barried from the tourneys themselves, he said.

Issues Challenge

Two of the top members of the Strike-Rite Bowling Alley, Nebraska Clements and Edward Artis, pointed out that there are numerous outstanding tan bowling stars who if given a chance would bowl with the best in the ABC and the NDBC.

Among this list of bowlers are Detroit's Billy Rhodman, J. Kilgore, and Jack Marshall; Chicago's Billy Hampton, Billy Brown of Indianapolis and Joe Jordon of New York.

In an effort to coax the ABC out into the open, Our World Magazine has posted $1,000 for a match between the winner of the lilywhite ABC singles champion, Johnny Small and any one of the three tan ten keglers, Rhodman, Marshall or Hampton.—LEIGH
