Jim-Crow Army Spurner Guilty as Draft Dodger

Tells Court He Refused to Sign Loyalty Pledge Because He Hates Discrimination

WASHINGTON

Hoyt F. Wilkerson, 25, of 1040 42nd St., N.E., was found guilty of violating the Selective Service Act of 1948, last week, by a District Court jury.

The convicted draft dodger, who is awaiting sentence, testified in District Court he refused to sign a loyalty pledge required of all inductees, because he objected to discrimination in the service.

When he was indicted by a grand jury in June, 1949, Mr. Wilkerson asked, "What per cent of an American am I?"

Questions Own Loyalty

He faced two counts. The first alleged that on Nov. 16, 1948, he refused to take the required mental classification test; the second charged that on Jan. 4, 1949, he refused to be inducted into the Armed Forces.

The refusal, according to court papers, was based on arguments that Wilkerson is colored, that he could not be loyal to the United States and that he does not have the rights and privileges of other citizens.

He would, because of his race, be liable to segregation and lynching in the Armd Forces, his complaint set forth.

Injustices Clouded Mind

Mr. Wilkerson told the AFRO shortly after his indictment:

"The reason I wasn't able to go any further on the mental test when I was called is that my mind was clouded with the injustices done colored people in this country.

"I don't even believe I am a citizen; I'm not granted the rights of the majority.

"Frankly, I feel that I am an outcast. Anyone knows that the flag does not recognize me and neither does the country.

"I'm willing and ready to cooperate when many of these injustices are corrected. I've always tried to avoid trouble and cooperate. In this case it appears that I can't avoid the trouble."

Navy Yard Worker 2 Years

The soft-spoken Mr. Wilkerson, who worked on an essential job in the Navy Yard for two-and-a-half years during the war without a vacation, said he considered this an excellent record.

"I certainly co-operated beyond the point of the master mechanic, a white man, who took a two-week vacation, and without a doubt he is regarded fully as a citizen," he declared.

Mr. Wilkerson, a native Washingtonian, is a graduate of Dunbar High School. He went into the Navy Yard as an apprentice machinist, gained the rating of machinist third-class, and resigned two years later, "under pressure of a biased white foreman."

Jackie Jr. on Hand to Greet Dad in Hollywood

Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn Dodger star infielder and the National League's most valuable player of the year, is shown as he arrived in Los Angeles by plane from New York to begin work on the motion picture "The Jackie Robinson Story." He was greeted by his son, Jackie Jr., and his mother-in-law Mrs. Zellee Isum. The film based on his life and meteoric rise to diamond fame with the Dodgers will be released by Eagle-Lion.

Federal FEPC Bill Lashed as States' Rights Enemy

of Fair Job Measures, Hits McGrath Proposal Senator Hill of Ala. Says States Wary

WASHINGTON (NNPA)—To all of the old stereotyped arguments used by opponents of fair employment practice legislation has been added the doctrine of States' rights.

In a minority report on the FEPC bill, filed last Saturday, Sen. Lister Hill, (Dem., Ala.), says that the bill purports to establish a new civil right and that the power to create a civil right, unless specifically delegated to the United States by the Constitution, has been reserved to individual States.

The FEPC bill violates the Ninth Amendment by proposing that Congress usurp rights retained by the people, and the Tenth Amendment because Congress would assume a power reserved to the States, and nearly every other right protected by the Bill of Rights, Senator Hill asserts.

States Wary

It is significant that the States themselves, even though they hold the power to set up in their respective jurisdictions fair employment practice commissions such as that proposed by the Administration bill, "have been 'wary of exercising their power,'" he added.

He pointed out that 12 States—Illinois, Arizona, Montana, Minnesota, Nebraska, North Dakota, Utah, Indiana, California, Delaware, Michigan and Pennsylvania—have rejected FEPC bills in their Legislatures or have allowed such bills to die.

Senator Hill also protests that under the McGrath FEPC bill the employer would be subject to a commission "having wide powers of rule making, investigation, and the issuance of cease-and-desist orders. But the right of trial by jury is denied and judicial review is provided with a clearly recognized inferential power to punish contempt-of-court orders."

Suburb to Mark History Week

WASHINGTON

"The Significance of History Week" will be the subject of an address by Mrs. Margaret Key Kelson, Sunday morning, at ceremonies marking the observance at First Baptist Church of Fairmount Heights, Md. The Rev. E. A. Luckett, pastor, will preside.

Mrs. Thelma Luckett is chairman of the committee on arrangements. A large crowd is expected to participate in the observance of the church, one of the oldest in Maryland's only all-colored municipality.

Mrs. Kelson Fraternal Leader

One of Washington's outstanding leaders, Mrs. Kelson recently returned from a tour of Mississippi and other Southern States with Mrs. Mary M. Bethune.

A long-time member of Asbury Methodist Church, Mrs. Kelson is also founder of Redemption Chapter No. 14, Order Of Eastern Star; past grand most ancient matron of Julia A. Jackson Grand Court, Heroines Of Jericho; and a member of the Elks Grand Lodge committee on education.

Senate Balks Poll Tax Bill

Lucas of House Okay Marcantonio Reminds

WASHINGTON

Senate majority leader, Scott W. Lucas, was charged with overlooking the anti-poll tax bill passed by the House by using the FEPC controversy as an excuse, this week, by Rep. Vito Marcantonio (ALP, N.Y.).

Said Congressman Marcantonio: "The House passed the anti-poll tax bill, last year. Why not take up the anti-poll tax bill in the Senate now?

Administration's Apathy Hit

"It is obvious that the Democratic Administration is using the discussion over FEPC to conceal the act that it can take up anti-poll tax legislation in the Senate now.

"If the Truman Administration is on the level on civil rights, it should call up the anti-poll tax bill in the Senate without delay.

"Failure to do so is akin to the double cross of FEPC that is taking place in the House."

Job Drive Set for March; League Cites 1949 Results

WASHINGTON

The Washington Urban League's annual Vocational Opportunity Campaign has been set for the week of March 12-19, James E. Pawley, industrial secretary announced this week.

The League's vocational program, through which about 2,000 in-school and out-of-school youth participated last year, has proved highly successful.

The objective of the campaign is to stimulate youth to train and prepare for jobs; and to improve employment opportunities for them.

Mr. Pawley says the need for the program is shown by the fact that 880 persons applied at the League's office last year for jobs.

About 4 out of every 10 applicants were between the ages of 16 and 21, and half of those registered were male.

But only one out of five applicants under the age 21 knew what kind of a job he would like best or what he was best qualified to do.

All persons interested in participating in this year's program should contact Mr. Pawley at MIchigan 2300.

Women to Sponsor Douglass Day, Feb. 12

The fourth annual Frederick Douglass Birthday observance sponsored by the Washington and Vicinity Federation of Women's Clubs will be held Feb. 12 at 8 p.m.

The affair will be held at Zion Baptist Church, 337 F. St., S.W.; the Rev. Joseph Edwards, pastor. Slated to appear on the program are Kester L. Kemp, soloist; Miss Dorothy C. Washington and Miss Betty Parham, reading.

A movie of the Douglass home wil be shown.

Sacred Lily of India

A plant, known as the "Sacred Lily of India," that blooms with soil or water is a proud possession of Mrs. Ardelle C. Burton, of 1528 Corcoran St., N.W., Washington, a collector of flower plants. The "mystery" plant gives off a "pungent odor" Mrs. Burton explains, and blooms for about three days. The flower is deep ox-blood color at full bloom and fades to a delicate pink.

National Council for Permanent FEPC Agrees to Work With Mobilization Unit

Will Retain Position as Leader in Fight for Federal Law; Randolph Satisfied

WASHINGTON — ANP) —The National Council for a Permanent FEPC, which has spearheaded the fight for Federal fair employment practice legislation for seven years, hereafter will function in co-operation with the National Emergency Civil Rights Mobilization.

This arrangement was decided upon at a secret meeting of the executive committee of the National Council and the steering committee of the Mobilization. Present at the meeting, held in the offices of the Council at 930 F St., N.W., Tuesday, January 31, were:

Roy Wilkins, acting secretary of the NAACP; Max Delson, Isaiah Minkoff, George L. P. Weaver of the CIO Committee Against Discrimination.

Theodore E. Brown, director of research and education of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, representing A. Philip Randolph, co-chairman of the Council; Lewis Hines of the American Federation of Labor; Arnold Aronson, secretary of the National Community Advisory Council; Viola McG. Gunther of Americans for Democratic Action and Robert R. Church.

A Victory for Randolph

The decision for both groups to work together was regarded in some circles as a victory for Mr. Randolph, who was chiefly responsible for the issuance by President Roosevelt in June, 1941, of the wartime FEPC order and who in 1943 organized the Council to fight for a permanent FEPC.

Others regarded the arrangement as a partial victory for those who wished to take over the fight for FEPC legislation, leaving Mr. Randolph as the nominal head. Despite denials from Mr. Wilkins, reports persisted that the plan was to have the Council taken over by the Mobilization.

The Mobilization was a mass demonstration in support of civil rights legislation, held here Jan. 15-17, and was authorized at the NAACP annual convention last June.

Proposing to exploit the "momentum" of the Mobilization, Mr. Wilkins suggested at the meeting here that a joint letterhead and the same offices be used by the Council and the Mobilization. He also suggested the release of a joint statement indicating the action taken.

Mr. Minkoff reported that he had talked with Mr. Randolph, who was in the South, and said that Mr. Randolph had expressed confidence in the Mobilization's steering committee and felt it would do the right thing. Mr. Randolph reportedly favored the issuance of two separate statements.

Mr. Randolph also was quoted as having said that the Council is willing to join in a co-operative effort so long as the Council is autonomous.

It was reported that Mr. Randolph insisted, and it was agreed, that the staff and office facilities of the Council should be continued.

It also was agreed that the stationery should carry the wording, "National Council for a Permanent FEPC in Co-operation with the Mobilization Conference," with the officers of the Council listed on the left-hand side of the page and the officers of the Mobilization listed on the right-hand side.

The bottom of the stationery is to carry the slogan, "Dedicated to the Enactment of FEPC Legislation." All monies collected by either group are to go to the Council and be banked in the name of that organization.

Strategy Committee Formed

It was agreed also that determination of strategy to be used on Capitol Hill should be in the hands of a committee composed of Mr. Hines, Mr. Aronson, Mr. Weaver, Mr. Minkoff, Mr. Wilkins, Mrs. Gunther, Mr. Delson and Mr. Brown.

Mr. Wilkins and Mr. Aronson were directed to follow up the matter of the letterhead and the joint release. The meeting here was a continuation of a meeting held in New York City on January 26, which Mr. Wilkins denied was a secret meeting.

Wife of Pastor Sues for Support

WASHINGTON

Mrs. Margaret L. Kirkland, who has been married 38 years, mother eight children, two of whom survive, last week asked the District Court to grant her separate maintenance, and support for the two children until they become of legal age.

She charges that the Rev. Choice E. Kirkland, pastor of the Church of God in Christ, 1923 L St., N.W., to whom she was married in Mississippi in 1911, left her last December.

Mrs. Kirkland alleges that her husband refuses to pay anything but $17.45 per month rent for the premises she occupies, and the gas and light bills.

She says she is ill, unable to work, has to depend on neighbors for food, and needs money for necessities and medical attention.

She alleges further that her husband has an estimated income of from $250 to $300 per month accruing from rental of properties at 1923 L St., 2115 12th St., N.W., and 831 13th St., N.W.

Supreme Court Gets Lawyers' Brief Supporting Henderson

WASHINGTON (NNPA)—The Civil Rights Committee of the National Bar Association last Saturday filed a brief in the U.S. Supreme Court in support of the contention of Elmer W. Henderson that race segregation on railroad dining cars is illegal.

The committee obtained permission from Mr. Henderson, the Southern Railway Company, the United States Government, and the Interstate Commerce Commission to file the brief as a friend of the court.

Explaining its interest in the case, the committee pointed out that members of the association are colored lawyers, who must utilize all facilities of the railroads in the pursuit of their profession.

The brief said the question raised by Mr. Henderson affects the rights of every member of the association, and the interests of the association stems from the effects the decision of the case will have on its members.

As colored Americans, the brief stated, members of the association are convinced that the questions presented for review will be more adequately considered by argument and authorities obtained by research of its Civil Rights Committee.

Dr. Kittrell to Talk to Peace League

WASHINGTON

Dr. Flemmie P. Kittrell, head of the home economics department at Howard University, will deliver one of the welcoming addresses at the national board meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom here today (Friday).

The opening session of the three-day meeting, which will extend through Sunday, is being held in the Methodist Building, 110 Maryland Ave., N.E. Doctor Kittrell is co-chairman of the League's Washington branch with Miss Joan Williams, who will also speak on Friday.

A round-table discussion on the organization's legislative work will be conducted this afternoon by Mrs. Annalee Stewart. In the evening Dr. Charles E. Rogers of FAO, will speak.

Pearl S. Buck to Speak

On Saturday the League will usher in its 35th anniversary celebration with a luncheon at the Hotel Emerson in Baltimore when Pearl S. Buck, noted author, will be guest speaker.

The League was founded at the Hague in 1915, under the leadership of Jane Adams. It supports the principle of world organization, to be achieved by co-operation among all nations, and believes in non-violence and the democratic processes to produce social change.

Among its national sponsors are Marian Anderson, Dorothy Canfield Fisher, Edouard Lindeman, Dorothy Thompson, Norman Thomas and A. Philip Randolph.

Expectant Mother Sues Husband for Maintenance

WASHINGTON

Mrs. Laura Tutt, 1511 Simms Dr., S.E., mother of two children, aged 4 and 3 years, this week filed suit against Russell Tutt, 1513 Caroline St., N.W., for maintenance.

The couple married in 1942. Mrs. Tutt, according to the complaint, is expecting another child in June. Since they separated in December, 1949, Tutt is accused of refusing to support his family. In addition to that, Mrs. Tutt charges that he has been cruel and abusive to her.

DON'T GIVE UP! LUCK May Change for You Into Power & Glory!

Read this carefully, then decide! How you may find Good Fortune, Happiness according to legend, same as I found it. I was real down—so blue, confused, just couldn't think what to do. Then I learned how Incense could soothe and calm —how it could relax me, help me meditate what to do. It seemed like magic the way things got. I want you to know the amazing calming power of this Incense that helped me so much. I do not claim supernatural power for my Products nor do I vouch for this legend.

These amazing Products are sold to you for what they actually are—without claim your luck will change or wishes fulfilled.

But if you do believe in the mind helpfulness of Incense and this age-old legend—one's luck may change as fate crosses our path for betterment, send me your name and address for my Fast Luck Brand Incense. And I will mail you a whole pound of Incense with a pretty Receptacle to burn it in. Complete directions for use—and as an added GIFT —16 INCENSE NUMBERS TABLETS (then watch mystic Numbers creep into form.) SEND NO MONEY. You pay postman $5.00 —not a Penny More—I pay all postage to you. If you are not delighted with your Fast Luck Brand Incense, you write me and I'll send your money right back to you.
