Bassett Has Easy Time With Heinhold

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.—Percy Bassett, highly-regarded Philadelphia featherweight, pounded out a 10-round decision over Proctor Heinhold, a greatly out-classed Oklahoman, in the windup of a boxing show here Monday night.

Referee Joe Mangold gave Bassett nine rounds and Reinhold one.

Speedy Lawrence, Philadelphia welterweight, outpointed Julius Reed, of this city, in the six-round semi-feature. Another steer pairing a Philadelphia welter with a local fighter saw Bucky Slocum, of the Quaker City, gain a decision over Eddie Holtz.

Sonnyboy West to Meet Ike Williams Tonight

NEW YORK — Unexpectedly projected into the spotlight of the world lightweight title scramble, Sonnyboy West, popular 20-year-old Washington, D.C., boxer, will go against the king of his division tonight (Friday) at Madison Square Gardens.

The Capital youngster was thrown into the Garden main event on short notice, accepting the bout when Bernie Docusen, of New Orleans, was floored by an attack of influenza and had to pull out of the clash with Champion Ike.

It is a 10-round, non-title affair.

Both Have Won Nine Straight

Williams, with a winning streak of nine in a row, will be making his 13th Garden appearance and the 118th as a professional fighter. The Trenton lightweight king has lost 11 of his battles, won 50 by knockouts and had four draws. He fought 11 times in 1949, losing twice to Kid Gavilan for the unofficially defended his title twice, kayoing Enrique Bolanos and whipping Freddie Dawson. In his lone fight this year, he stopped Johnny Bratoon in eight in Chicago.

West, who will not be 21 until May 13, the same birthday as Joe Louis, and who is a great nephew to the late Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion, has never appeared in New York. The 5 foot, 6½ inch youngster is regarded as one of the outstanding lightweight prospects in the country. A tireless fighter with a good punch in either hand, he has lost only four of 42 ring battles, reversing three of the decisions against him. In his last appearance on January 30, he knocked out Leroy Willis, a fighter who went the limit with Sandy Saddler, Willie Pep and Beau Jack. He has beaten Ernesto Aguilar, Alfredo Prada, Underwood, and kayoed Willie Beltram and Johnny Williams. He is unbeaten in-his last nine fights.

YMCA Big Five Drubs Cougars

Druid Hill Varsity Registers 87-73 Win

The YMCA varsity basketball team won its second game on their home court Friday, downing the Cougar-Adelphi Club by a score of 87-73.

The Y team was led by its 6-foot, 5-inch center, Solomon Rose, who garnered 15 baskets and six fouls for a total of 36 points. He was closely followed by Lawrence Peterson, who also broke that 30 point mark with 14 baskets and five free throws for a total of 33 points.

The game was nip-and-tuck until the closing minutes, when the height and experience of the Y team began to have a telling effect.

Adelphi was led by its center, Forbes, who garnered 16 points and Barber, its shifty forward, who dropped 14 points through the hoops.

The next game is Friday, with the strong Stags Club from Annapolis, Md., in town. On Feb. 24, the YMCA quint from Wilmington, Delaware, will invade the Druid Hill gym for a game.

Easterwood Win Streak Snapped After No. 22

The Philadelphia Blazers put an end to the 22-game winning streak of the Easterwood Progressive A.C., by nosing out the latter's racial five in a thriller, 64-62 at the Richmond Market Armory, Sunday afternoon.

A bitter game right from the start, it was tied up 16 times. And the Philly quintet had to come from behind in the last five minutes to overcome a seven-point deficit and hold onto the two-point edge until the final whistle.

The first quarter ended with both teams tied, 12-12 and at half-time Easterwood led 31-28. At the three-quarter mark, both teams were tied again, 51-51. At the start of the final period Easterwood began to move ahead on field goals by Gribbon, King and Gray, while Traynam scored two foul shots.

At this point, however, the Blazers perked up and, led by their center, Dixon, who was the day's high scorer with 22 points, grabbed the lead at the two-minute mark.

Easterwood tried desperately to get possession of the ball and finally Gray, of Easterwood, picked up a loose ball and fired the length of the field to Gribbon. But the pass was too high and Philadelphia regained possession. This was the last chance for Easterwood. The Blazers held possession for the last seconds of the game.

Junior Skaters Score 16th Win

WASHINGTON

The Junior Skaters, launching a scoring spree in the second half, half, defeated the Commanches, 48-37, Sunday at Turner's Arena for their 16th victory in 23 tilts.

Trailing 19-12 at halftime, the Skaters forged ahead in the third period on the fast-breaking offensive performance of Eddie Savoy, and Don Harden who tallied 13 and 11 points, respectively.

Mar. 4 Set as Tourney Deadline

WASHINGTON

The CIAA basketball tournament which has become the most popular indoor sports event in the Seaboard area will hold its fifth annual renewal at Uline Arena, 3rd and M St., N.E., on March 9, 10 and 11, the tournament committee announced Thursday.

Following a meeting of the tournament committee at Howard University, Chairman Talmadge Hill said eight teams again will be invited for the tourney play which will be spread over three days with two afternoon and two night shows.

The first and second rounds will be played Thursday, March 9, the semi-finals on Friday night, March 10, and the championship game Saturday afternoon, March 11.

The top eight teams, based on the win-loss records determined by the Dickinson Rating System, will get bids for the tournament, the deadline date for games to be counted, in the final listing being March 4. The drawings and seedings are scheduled for March 5.

Besides Chairman Hill, members of the tournament committee include John B. McLendon, North Carolina College; John H. Burr, Howard University, and Harry R. Jefferson, Hampton Institute.

CIAA Ring Tournament Lures 175

The annual CIAA boxing and wrestling tourney set for Feb. 28 and Mar. 1 and 2 with Howard University as host school is expected to attract more than 175 participants.

While more than a dozen schools will have full teams in boxing, six schools have indicated they will enter complete squads in wrestling. Among these are Hampton, defending champions, Howard, Lincoln, Morgan, Delaware and Virginia State.

In order that the meet will be conducted successfully, there will be a meeting of all coaches and officials who will handle the matches on Tuesday night, Feb. 28, at 8 p.m., at Howard University.

Drawings for both boxing and wrestling will be held on the following morning after weighing in.

Preliminary activity in boxing will get underway at the 12th St. YMCA while wrestling will be conducted at Howard on Feb. 1. Both will start at 11 a.m.

Finals in both boxing and wrestling will be conducted at Turner's Arena, beginning at 7 p.m., and ending at midnight.
