In Baltimore Churches

The Rev. Harold Nixon, pastor of New Life Presbyterian Church in Turner Station, will exchange pulpits on Sunday at 11 a.m. with the Rev. Benjamin Coleman, white, pastor of the Dundalk Presbyterian Church.

At the white church located at Dundalk and St. Helena Aves., the Rev. Mr. Nixon will preach on "The Christian Church and the New World Order." Both ministers will be accompanied by their choirs.

New Life Presbyterian Church, now holds its services in the recreation room of the Ernest Lyon Housing Project. It plans to begin a building program in the near future.

The Dundalk Church, the nearest church of the same denomination as the New Life congregation, has offered its assistance since its organization.

Exchange Approved

The invitation to exchange pulpits was made with the unanimous approval of the Dundalk church "Session," its governing body.

Speaking Monday at the Baptist Ministers Conference, the Rev. Hiram Smith expressed the belief that all possible was not being done to effect the passage of the FEPC bill.

At the same meeting the Rev. Mr. Smith deplored the lack of leadership stating, "Leaders spend their time fighting one another."

The conference approved the appointment of a special committee to consult Gov. W. Preston Lane Jr., on the matter of relief and jobs.

6 on Committee

Accordingly, the Rev. Luke J. Reynolds, president, named the Revs. G. A. Crawley, Hiram E. Smith, A. L. Bailey, Simon Williamson, James A. Moore and T. B. Davis on the committee.

The "order of the day" was a sermon by the Rev. Baxter L. Matthews. "Contend With God" was his subject.

He said in part, "If you put yourself at God's disposal, He will make a mighty power of you. To accomplish this, you must go into partnership with Him.

"Planting a Church in a Pagan City" was the subject of the Sunday school lesson given by the Rev. I. C. Reddie.

Churches and charitable organizations throughout the State are taking advantage of a new Tithing Plan which helps the giver while it benefits the receiver.

Tithing Plan

The tithing plan is offered by the Lasting Products Company, which maintains direct-from-the factory paint stores in every section of the city.

Clerks at these factory stores give to each customer on request, a card representing 10% of the amount of the purchase. These cards are turned over to the church or group.

In turn, the cards are redeemed by the Lasting Products Company at the end of the tithing period. Tithing cards are available at the main factory, 200 S. Franklintown Rd., and at the following paint stores:

103 S. Conkling St., 3005 Hamilton Ave., 210 Cold Spring Lane, 1124 S. Charles St., 310 S. Broadway and 407 Eastern Ave., Essex.

Choirs From D.C.

Choirs from two Washington churches are slated for appearances here.

At 8 p.m., Sunday, the choir of Mt. Zion Methodist Church will present a concert of formal church music, hymns and spirituals at Sharp St. Methodist Church.

The choir director is Edward G. North; the organist, Miss Lucille Clark. Soloists will be Clarence Hayes, baritone; and Miss Betty Booth, soprano.

On Mar. 5 the senior choir of Turner Memorial AME Church will give a program at Waters AME Church at 8 p.m., under the sponsorship of its Young People's Choir.

A prayer and meditation hour is being observed on week days during Lent from 12 noon to 1 p.m. at Bethel AME Church where the Rev. Harrison J. Bryant is pastor.

The Rev. Arthur J. Payne of Enon Baptist Church addressed the Brotherhood of his church during the organization's annual program there last Sunday.

Participating on the program were Jackson Scott, president; the Rev. Nathaniel Johnson, second vice-president; James Lincoln, secretary; William Scott, first vice-president; Solomon Baylor, Calvin Parker and Edward Jones.

Presbyterian Church Slates Women's Day

Members of the Penny Club will serve as hostesses for the Friendship Tea at 6 p.m. Sunday, at Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church, which is observing its annual Women's Day.

The morning speaker will be Mrs. Pearl C. Wilson, grade supervisor in the public schools. Her subject is "Women in a Challenging World." Music will be furnished by the Memorial Baptist Choir, under the direction of Charles Stanley.

At 5 p.m. there will be a musical program by the Interracial Fellowship Choir, Dr. J. Edward Moyer, director, according to Miss Eugenia Hardy and Mrs. Irene Templeton, Women's Day program co-chairmen.

The Rev. Reginald J. Daniels is pastor.

Woman's Day Speaker

Mrs. Abbie C. Jackson of Louisville, Ky., who wil be guest speaker at Pennsylvania Ave. AME Zion Church Sunday, Feb. 26.

Program Arranged for Capping Exercises

An elaborate candelight program has been prepared for the annual capping exercises of the Provident Hospital School of Nursing class.

Mrs. Maida Brannon, director of nurses, will present the caps to the six pre-clinical students who have successfully completed their probationary work.

The services have been set for 8 p.m., March 12 at Bethel AME Church, Druid Hill Ave. and Lanvale St.

All guides, clubs and auxiliaries affiliated with the hospital and its staff have been invited to participate in the services. Junior hosts and hostesses will be the children of doctors and dentists.

Louisville Leader Guest Speaker at Local Church

In the observance of its 19th Annual Woman's Day the Pennsylvania Avenue AME Zion Church presents as guest speaker, Sunday, at 11 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., Mrs. Abbie Clement Jackson of Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Jackson is the executive secretary of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the AME Zion Church; recording secretary of the United Council of Church Women; member of the Race Relations Department of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

She is also a member of the executive committee of the Louisville Council of Church, Women and the Louisville Interracial Fellowship Hour.

She was an accredited visitor to the First World Assembly of the World Council of Churches, Amsterdam, Holland, in August of 1948.

Mrs. Jackson is a member of the Board of Trustees of Broadway Temple A.M.E. Zion Church in her home town, and is the president of the Woman's Missionary Society of her church.

Aternoon Program

A program of local talent will be presented at 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Edna K. Waynesboro is general program chairman. Others assisting in arrangements are Mesdames Pearl Evans, Lucille Anderson, Virginia Thomas, Esther I. Edwards, Lucy Sanders, Willie Valentine, Ruth Alexander, and Mildred Quille.

The Rev. G. M. Edwards is pastor.

Baltimore Observes World Day of Prayer

A "World Day of Prayer" service was held at noon today (Friday) at First Baptist Church, Caroline and McElderry St., as one link in the prayer chain being observed this year in 90 countries.

The celebration is interdenominational, interracial and international in scope, sponsored by women's devotional groups throughout the world. In this country it is under the auspices of the United Council of Church Women.

Open House Sunday for Red Cross Group

The leadership of District 5 of the 1950 Red Cross Fund Campaign will hold open house at its headquarters, 1714 Park Ave., at 3 p.m. on Sunday.

Dr. Willard W. Allen, district chairman from 1947 to 1949, will be honored. At the same time the 1950 chairman, Dr. Robert J. Hill, will be introduced.

Guests will be John A. Rich, former Red Cross field director; and Chaplain DeLeon Felder of the U.S. Army. There will be refreshments and music.

Chairman's Background

Dr. Hill, a native of Govans, was educated at Howard and Temple Universities, becoming a doctor of chiropody at the latter institution in 1930. Since then he has practiced in Baltimore.

He is a member of the board of directors of the Frontiers Club; secretary-treasurer of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. He is also illustrious potentate of the Jerusalem Temple No. 4 of the Shriners and an honorary 33rd-degree Mason.

District 5 has a goal of $7,500.

"DADDY" BISHOP R. F. FIELDS
WISDOM WAY CHURCH OF CHRIST
GOOD HOPE HALL - - - 655 W. LEXINGTON ST.
"Daddy" Says Meet Him Sunday 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.

"Daddy" Bishop Fields, one of the world's greatest faith men came to Baltimore because God sent him here and the way things have been going it looks just that way. Thousands flock to hear the Bishop and have been blessed thru his prayers. "God answers prayers."

Bishop Fields established the Wisdom Way Church of Christ here January 8, 1950 at 933 Linden Avenue, now the general office. This building became too small for him and his followers so they moved to The Good Hope Hall, 655 W. Lexington Street, where they hold their services Wednesday—Friday nights at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. They will be there until summer.

Bishop Fields built his Wisdom Way Church of Christ in Tulsa, Okla., at 700 E. Pine Street, and owns many rental units there. He made his greatest contribution to Tulsa and the north side during the depression years by feeding hundreds of needy families, visiting and praying for the sick, leaving offerings, visiting hospitals and jails.

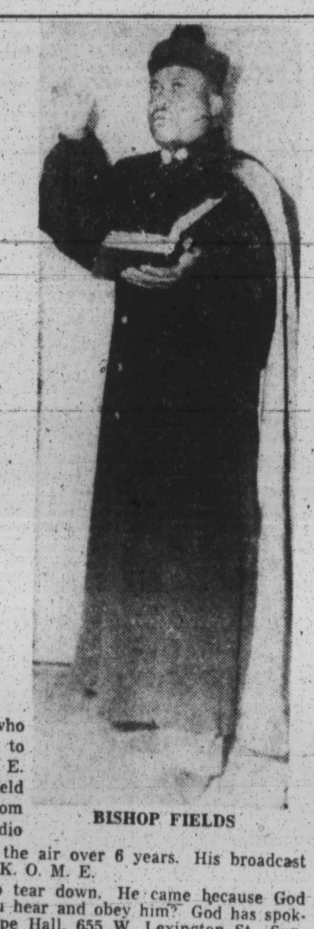
Bishop Fields helps all, bars no race, color or creed. All are "one in Christ" to him. Born in Algiers, La., Dec. 7, 1905, he started preaching and prophesying when he was 12 years old. He helped many and started teaching all and is now called the world's greatest faith man. He predicts great things for Baltimore. He is a Democrat because he believes they will help his people. His intentions are to help every minister in the city that is willing to work with him. He plans to build or buy a church here and predicts his Wisdom Way Church of Christ will grow bigger in this city. He started this church here by himself and now has over 1000 followers. God is good and in Him there are no failures. The Bishop every morning opens his doors that he might invite God in. Prayer changes things. He is an early riser and walks many blocks asking God to help his people.

Daddy Bishop Fields made a smash hit Friday, night, Feb 19. He read from the scriptures, 23rd Psalm, 2nd and 3rd verses which reads as follows:

"He maketh me lie down in green pastures; he leadth me beside the stil waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

Daddy Bishop Fields, one of the world's grestest faith men, known from coast to coast, has helped thousands of Baltimoreans through his belief that prayer changes things. He is a native of Algiers, La.



BISHOP FIELDS

Thousands are expected to—
HEAR HIM PREACH SUNDAY AT 11 A. M. and 7 P.M.
COME AND SEE THIS MAN OF GOD.
LUNCH WILL BE SERVED IN THE BASEMENT ALL DAY.

Listen Monday thru Saturday at 7:45 a. m. over Station WSID. Sundays at 1:30 p.m. Don't miss your blessing thru prayer Sunday. All are welcome. He closed his sermon Sunday, Feb. 19th, by reading the 62nd Psalm and the 8th verse.

Will he build here too? Daddy Bishop Fields, who has built this Church in Tulsa, Okla. has set his goal to build again. Will he? This building is located at 700 E. Pine Street, Tulsa. His Annual Conference will be held in this city next summer. He is the founder of—Wisdom Way Church of Christ. The Bishop was the oldest radio minister in the city of Tulsa, Okla. He had been on the air over 6 years. His broadcast was heard 11 P. M. every Sunday night over Station K. O. M. E.

He says he came to Baltimore to build up, not to tear down. He came because God sent him to help his children out of bondage. Will you hear and obey him? God has spoken to him to tell you. Meet Bishop Fields at Good Hope Hall, 655 W. Lexington St., Sunday at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. Dinner served all day by the choir.

DO YOU NEED BLESSINGS?

2000 persons are expected to see and hear Bishop R. F. Fields, a native of Algiers, La., the World's Greatest Faith Man.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 26th — 7:00 P. M.
GOOD HOPE HALL - 655 W. Lexington St.

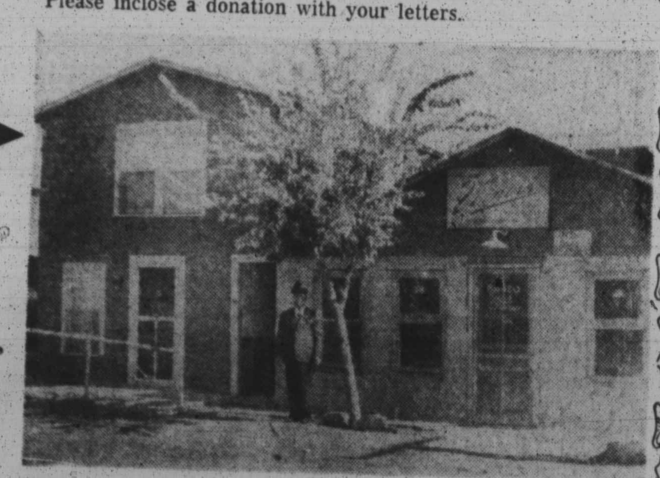
Hundreds were turned away last Sunday evening. SO COME EARLY TO GET A GOOD SEAT. "Daddy" has a SPECIAL BLESSING for you. Be sure to HEAR and SEE this man of GOD. Many have been helped through his prayers. If you live away from Baltimore, Write or Telegram Daddy at:

WISDOM WAY CHURCH OF CHRIST or "DADDY" BISHOP FIELDS, 933 LINDEN AVE., BALTIMORE 1, MD., or Phone Mulberry 3983.

Please inclose a donation with your letters.

The apartment house of Bishop Fields. This structure is located at 1429 Hartford Street, Tulsa, Oklahoma. This hotel was constructed from the ground through his faith and the Wisdom Way Church of Christ. Bishop Fields is married to one of Tulsa's leading young matrons, the former Miss Arlena Breadlove. Mrs. Fields was raised in the house of life and continues to do this splendid work. She is known as an outstanding pianist, efficient secretary and a leader ready and willing to do her job. She conducts his Sunday night broadcast over Station K. O. M. E., A. B. C. Network. The Bishop and Mrs. Fields are expecting to be proud parents in a few months. He is doing splendid work here trying to establish another Wisdom Way Church of Christ, that he may help many Baltimoreans.

Rev. Rone Ashford has been appointed general manager of the church. Rev. Mrs. Jessie Carter is assistant. Hear this man of God Sunday 11 A. M. and 7 P. M. He says God sent him here to help the people. Come early to get seats. 2000 expected to see Daddy Sunday night. Don't worry any more. He wants to help you to be happy.



See "Daddy" Fields and be Blessed. He can be heard daily over Station WSID—7:45 a.m. and Sunday at 1:30 p.m. "Daddy" says meet him at GOOD HOPE HALL, Sunday, February 26 at 7 p.m. "Daddy" is doing much in this city to help the less fortunate. He pays many people's bills and helps many to secure jobs. So meet this man of God who is known from coast to coast for his good deeds.

Civic Unit Urges Slum Clearance

Baltimoreans are being urged by the Citizens' Planning and Housing Association to press the City Council for passage of the bill that would pave the way for slum clearance through public housing.

The ordinance, by which the Housing Authority would begin construction of three low rent-projects, has been pending in the Council for several months. The entire Council is scheduled to study it further today (Friday).

Objection to the bill has been raised by real estate interests which claim that public housing produces an increase in real estate taxes, and does not serve low-income families.

One for Cherry Hill

Housing Authority officials point out that the construction of such housing is necessary before those persons now living in slum areas can be moved. One of the three projects under consideration would be located at Cherry Hill. The others are for whites.

Specifically, the ordinance in question ratifies an agreement between the Housing Authority and the City regarding operational expenses of the projects.

Residents to Petition to Keep Police Station

During a meeting held Tuesday at Concord Baptist Church, residents of the area of the 900 block Franklin St. planned to petition Police Commissioner Beverly Ober not to abolish Western police station.

Speakers at the meeting included Deely K. Nice, prominent Republican; Mr. and Mrs. Ian Ross MacFarlane, radio commentators; Arlington Phillips, president of the Poe Homes Men's Club; and the Rev. Willard L. Clayton, pastor of Macedonia Baptist Church.

Mrs. Annie E. S. Wells presided.

Wheatley School Notes Amity Week

The combined activities of the music, dance, public relations and history clubs of Wheatley School No. 110-110A produced programs, this week, which helped them realize the significance of the theme, "Brotherhood for All Americans."

On Monday, classroom discussions were held on the lives of famous persons and comparisons were made with outstanding contributors of other races.

Tuesday, the school viewed the films, "The Life of Dr. George Washington Carver," "The Sydenham Plan," and "The Color of a Man."

Evening Panel Discussion

Highlight of the week's activities was the interracial panel discussion held in the Poe Project Auditorium on Wednesday night on the theme of the week.

Mrs. Reba Lewis, the moderator, talked on the life of Benjamin Banneker. Other speakers and their topics were:

Frank Rhoad of the Council of Churches, "Brotherhood in Religion;" Dr. Alexander Walker of Morgan State College, "Brotherhood in Politics;" Thomas Everett of the United Beauty Supply Company, "Brotherhood in Industry;"

William Britt of Harvey Johnson Junior High School No. 106, "Brotherhood in Education;" and Mrs. Marian Banfield, community worker, "The Responsibility of Citizens to Merit the Benefits and Privileges of Brotherhood."

Club Marks 3rd Year

On Thursday, the dance group and school chorus directed by Mesdames Aurora Chambers and Delores Daviis, respectively, presented interpretative dances and spirituals.

Parents and members of the History Club, gave dramatic readings. Friday was "Know Your Community Day".

The History Club in celegrating its third anniversary this month is helping our youth to develop a better understanding of and appreciation for all people.

Mrs. Josephine Williams is president of the club; Thomas M. Boone and Beulah M. Caldwell, directors; and Samuel R. Owings, principal of the school.

Last Rites Held for Mrs. Gates

Funeral services were held in Cumberland, Md., recently for Mrs. Caroline G. Gates who died at Provident Hospital.

She was the widow of David E. Gates of Cumberland where she lived for many years. Recently she came to Baltimore and became a resident of the N. M. Carroll Aged Home.

Mrs. Gates was the daughter of the late Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Loudon W. Briggs.

Surviving are two brothers, the Rev. C. S. Briggs and Bernard Briggs, and three sisters, Miss A. R. Briggs and Mrs. Lula B. Logan of Washington; and Mrs. Fairfax F. King.

Social Therapy Volunteers Needed

Social therapy volunteers from Anne Arundel County are wanted for Crownsville Hospital.

The service will require three and a half hours at the hospital each week, and will include a 10-hour educational program to prepare the volunteers for service on the wards.

Information and applications may be obtained from Mrs. William F. Joachim, 103 N. Market St., in Annapolis.

Group for Laurel Plans Benefit Sale

Renewing efforts to clean up the site since plans to construct a housing project there were abandoned, the Laurel Cemetery Improvement Association will conduct a rummage sale, Saturday.

The sale will begin at 9 a.m. at Centennial Methodist Church. Proceeds will be added to the fund being used to clear the cemetery which has been an eyesore for many years.

Mrs. Estelle Barry, president of the group of lot owners, said that workers already have begun to clean up the cemetery.

The site had been selected by the Housing Authority for a white project. It was discarded, however, after white residents in the area protested to the site's use for such a purpose.

Over 500 Attend Waters's Testimonial

The Men's Advisory Council of the Emmanuel Christian Community Church held a testimonial Sunday night honoring its pastor, the Rev. Wilbur H. Waters.

Among the approximately 500 persons present were Walter E. Kennedy, chief of the Income and Sales Tax Division, who delivered the main address, and Walter Beuchelt; representing the Mayor.

Others were Bernard Melnicove, William B. Dixon, Mrs. Vivian Alleyene, Mrs. Victorine Adams, Mrs. Naomi Camper, Mrs. Owens, Attorney and Mrs. Ernest Perkins, and Mr. and Mrs. Munford Satchell.

Grace to Sponsor Revival Services

Grace Memorial Baptist Church will open a four-day jubilee evangelistic campaign on March 12, to be conducted by the Rev. C. E. Griffin, pastor of First Calvary Baptist Church in Norfolk.

The sponsoring church has already signed up 24 of the 50 evangelistic teams which will help canvass the community to interest persons in attending the revival.

Heads Norfolk NAACP

The Rev. Mr. Griffin is a graduate of Shaw University with the degrees of bachelor of sacred theology, bachelor of arts and bachelor of divinity. He did graduate work at Union Theological Seminary.

He recently completed $71,000 worth of renovations on his church.

Prominent in church circles in Norfolk, the Rev. Mr. Griffin is also president of the NAACP branch there.
