Brown Buddies Prom Hostesses

When the Brown Buddies invited their friends to dance with them Saturday evening at Biddle Hall, the club members were as pretty as a picture. They gathered before the dance at the Bentalou St. home of member Ruth Lewis where they had a gay time.

For the affair, President Nellie donned a black marquisette off the shoulder gown with gold-lined bodice; Ruth Lewis was in orchid taffeta; Vernell Poole wore rose satin; Ann Tilghman, black moire taffeta with a scalloped collar;

Anna Cheatham also selected black moire taffeta; Margaret Cover was attractive in a green and black crepe and Jimmie Brown's gown was a blue moire taffeta off-the-shoulder number.

Miss Bullett in Lace

Augusta Bullett selected black lace and yellow taffeta was becoming on both Eva Holcomb and Lillian Lindsay. Agnes Fowlkes in black crepe and Izrea Simone in black taffeta trimmed with white lace, were the other club members about.

The girls are all Sparrows Point residents or former residents of the Point and they've been organized two years.

Among out-of-towners here for the dance were Mesdames Mozell Boyd, New York; and Doris Calloway, Philadelphia; Miss Mary Smith, Stanford Tilghman and Randolph Richardson, all of New York and James Allen of Greer, N. C.

A partial list of the other guests follows:

Messrs. and Mesdames William Dixon, Joseph Jackson, Booker Hilson, Wayland Wilson, Radcliffe Finney, James Foster, Wilton Powell.

Jobs Now Available for Stenographers

Openings for skilled stenographers and sales personnel featured the list of positions announced yesterday in a release issued by C. Pierce Taylor, Philadelphia district manager of the State Employment Service.

Experienced stenographers between the ages of 17 and 40 years are needed who are able to take dictation in Spanish and English.

Pay $35 Weekly

Mr. Taylor pointed out that a general shortage of stenographers exists for positions paying $30 to $35 a week.

Applicants who can qualify for these positions should apply to their nearest local office of the State Employment Service.

Valentine Motif Sparks Gala Prom Given By Iota Phi Lambda

A Valentine motif sparked the swank decor of Biddle Hall on Friday night, transforming it into a place of beauty for several hundred formal dance guests of Kappa Chapter Iota Phi Lambda Sorority.

Cherubic looking cupids were clustered about a huge heart which revolved in the center of the dance room floor. The sisterhood's emblem glowed softly from a corner near Deck Bedford's orchestra.

Punch flowed fountain-wise from an amusing rainbow-lit contraption at the soft drink bar.

Sorority officers are Margaret Johnson, president, Gladys Plummer and Marie Lewis, vice-presidents; Gladys McCoy, Mary Crump and Claudine Franks, secretaries; Jessie Nicholson, treasurer, Evelyn D. Wilkey, dean of pledgees, Fannie E. Poulson, parliamentarian; and Josephine E. Wallace, journalist.

Medical Auxiliary Discusses Need for Democratic Living

At the February meeting of The Women's Auxiliary To The Monumental City Medical Society there was a panel discussion on Civil Rights, in connection with the National theme for the year "Working for a True Democracy through Practice of Civil Rights in Our Community."

Those participating were Mesdames Violet Hill Whyte, Reba Lewis, and Thelma Bando.

In answering the question "What Does Democracy Mean to Us as Individuals?" Mrs. Whyte declared that the true meaning of democracy in its varied significance is not understood. Further she stated that people are inclined to take events as a matter of course and that our frustrations are traced to a lack of interest.

An illustration given was that of a child 7 years of age who ran away from home, collected 50 cents begging, bought cigaretts and matches, and committed several misdemeanors without attracting attention and was not apprehended until he had set fire to a car that brought 13 engines to the scene. The desire for recognition prompted this child to attract attention by doing a number of spectacular things.

Mrs. Whyte felt that the lack of interest in the underprivileged, poor housing conditions, and the general indifference of the public to take measures to understand the true meaning of democracy is the cause of delinquency.

Blames Frustrations

Mrs. Reba Lewis stated that the potentialities of many children are neglected by lack of equal rights and that they suffer from frustration. She maintained that any child growing up in a segregated city cannot be a normal child, and that there cannot be a normal pattern of life within a segregated area. White children who have little colored friends question why the colored children cannot attend their schools.

She went on to say that in a survey it was shown that white southerners are poor mathematicians due to deep rooted prejudice, which is a lack of reason. As for civil rights legislation, Mrs. Lewis was not optimistic and believed it unlikely since the congressmen are not saying anything about the civil rights bill and on the question of Negro rights.

Morgan Dean Speaks

Dean Thelma Bando declared that basic rights are the backbone of civil rights; that civil rights grow out of basic rights; and that basic rights must be recognized and practiced before we can have security.

She also said that too often we neglect people whom we do not know and that individual potentialities lie dormant because no one has sufficient interest to find out about them or to develop them.

A child may be born into an environment not aware of what the child can do. She stressed the importance of the right of every family to have proper education and housing conditions, and that the social and political rights of all be recognized. In presenting the Adler theory, she stated that we must seek causes and place the responsibility where it belongs and not take refuge in defense mechanisms.

That one who withdraws is not an asset to society and is really very unhappy. Dean Bando also stressed the need of people being supplied with basic necessities, not luxuries. The need to give attention to an introverted child rather than to an extroverted child in order to help the introverted child gain confidence in himself. In conclusion she stated that social and civil rights cover a great deal of territory and the great need is to help people acquire better mental hygiene.

Mrs. Mussenden Hostess

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lydia Mussenden and the following served with her as hostesses: Mesdames Julia McDaniel, Hazel Phillips, Ruth Lighston, Xavier McDonald, Eldica Noville, Patricia Page and Mae Adams. The meeting was largely attended.
