Benefit Show for His Scholarship

Proceeds from their midnight stage show at the Met Theatre, Friday, March 3, will go towards his scholarship. He's shown holding photo of Mrs. Lloyal Randolph, which he is doing in oil.—(Henry I. 'Washingtonians of 1950' Added to Met Stage Show

Plans are near completion for the staging of the benefit midnight show at the Met Theatre on Friday, March 3, with the addition of Michael Graham's "Washingtonians of 1950," a versatile group who formerly toured with Lucky Millinder's orchestra.

Also included will be an array of local radio, television and night club talents, singers, dancers, comedians and instrumental and vocal groups.

The affair is being sponsored by the Gay Duchess Club to further the artistic career of a local youthful portrait painter, who will demonstrate his art during the show.

Club Membership

The club members are: Doreatha Robinson, Viola Clarke, Juanita McCargo, Florence Dogan, Ada Smith, Marion Allen, Sadie Milbourne and Ruth Bell.

A touch of glamour will be added to the show in the form of a brief fashion parade led by Mrs. Lloyal (Nickie) Randolph, with a mystery touch in the presentation of Dantini, the mystery man, who learned his uncanny and weird illusions in the Orient.

In addition, the best vocalist will be selected for a recording audition.

Among some of the talent listed, in addition to the above mentioned, are: Al Jefferson, Mary Williams, Jean Austin, Willie (Pretty Willie) Jones, Peaches Webb, Silver Echoes Quartet, the Kings Quartet, Johnny Osborne's Junior Red Caps, Boots Hope, Johnny Sparrow and His Bow and Arrows, and many others.

Turner Station Represented

Turner Station will be represented by Jonathan Jonson, Doris Norfleet, Vivian Newton and others.

The musical portion of the show will be headlined by Jimmy Aldrich's Midnight Ramblers, a 10-piece outfit, plus guest musicians.

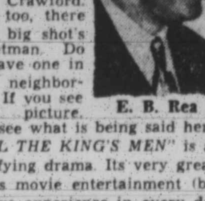
"ALL THE KING'S MEN," coming March 3 to the Royal screen, is a vital picture, fraught with meaning for the average movie-goer. It's the portrait of a political big shot who causes a ferment in the lives of everyone in his State, which could be any State.

AFTER VIEWING this film, you can look about you, and without batting an eyelash, pick out your own rothless big shot, whose morals and manners might fit the screen enactment by Broderick Crawford. Then too, there is the big shot's hatchetman. Do you have one in your neighborhood? If you see this picture, you'll see what is being said here.



E. B. Rea

"ALL THE KING'S MEN" is an electrifying drama. Its very greatness as movie entertainment (but what we experience in every day life) compels seeing the political big shot, who thought he had the world by the tail.

HOW SLOAN'S LINIMENT AIDS LUMBAGO PAINS Now science shows why Sloan's Liniment so often brings amazing relief from lumbago pains, rheumatic aches, stiff neck and sore muscles. Using infra-red rays, scientists have photographed blood vessels below the skin-surface, showing veins expanded after an application of Sloan's. This is evidence that an extra supply of blood has been brought to the pain area to revitalize tissues and to hasten the removal of waste matter and poisons. No wonder Sloan's Liniment helps to bring blessed relief from rheumatic and similar ills. No wonder Sloan's has been called "the greatest name in pain-relieving liniments." Get a bottle today.

Ted Poston Wins $500 Award for Fla. Trial Story

NEW YORK—For the first time in its nine-year history, the Heywood Broun Award has been voted to two men for separate entries, the winners being Ted Poston, New York Post reporter, and Herbert Block (Herblock) cartoonist of the Washington Post.

Each man was awarded a $500 cash prize and a citation by the American Newspaper Guild, sponsor of the competition, for the most outstanding journalistic achievement of 1949 "in the spirit of Broun."

Poston, the first colored reporter to win a Guild award, won recognition for his courgeous coverage of a Florida criminal assault which resulted in two colored youths being sentenced to die and a third sent to prison for life.

Poston was forced to run for his life with another reporter and two attorneys who defended the accused youths, and escaped a lynching party only after a fearful 40-mile flight in an automobile over back-country roads at 90 miles an hour.

Poston previously had received two awards, the Long Island Press Association and the Geist Memorial Award, for his excellent coverage of the same story. Herblock was honored for the general excellence and effectiveness of his cartoons throughout the year.

Mrs. Robeson Hits 'Point 4' Program

NEWARK

"Truman's Point our program, is being paraded as help for backwards countries, is doomed to failure, and so is every other disguised form of exploitation and oppression in the East."

That statement was made by Mrs. Eslanda Goode Robeson, author-lecturer, before 500 women at a meeting of the Congress of American Women in the Hotel Sheraton, Newark, N.J., last week.

Mrs. Robeson, the wife of Paul Robeson, returned last month from the Soviet Union and China. She observed a meeting of the Women's International Democratic ederation in Moscow and in China attended the first meeting of the Asian Women's Conference.

One World Philosophy

What happened in China, she said, will react on what happens here. The fight for full democracy and peace here has been immeasurably strengthened by the liberation of the Chinese people, she declared.

"The warlords of the Pentagon and Wall St., have been confounded by the people of China. They can no longer keep the Chinese people poor through exploitation and they can not win against them," she said, adding:

"Their designs for a war for profit and their oppression, whether it takes the form of colonialism overseas and oppression of minorities here, go hand in hand. It is their war and their fascism. And exploited people will have no part of it."

Chinese People Embittered

Remarking on the frequent saying of the Chinese people now, that "The land is returning home to the people," Mrs. Robeson said, "This land reform is so fundamental that nothing is going to change it."

When she asked about the "terrific welcome" given the foreign delegates to the Asian Women's Conference, Mrs. Robeson said the Chinese women replied:

"You are the first people who have come to visit us in the 5,000 years of our history. No one before has ever come to call to us as friends."

"This," asserted Mrs. Robeson, "Is the essence of colonialism. Every one else had come for purpose."

Tells of Awakened Africa

And not only China, but Africa, is fighting back, she said. She told of the tremendous organization of Democratic Women in Madagascar, which has grown from 10,000 a year ago to one million.

In spite of the fact that 90,000 Madagascarns have been killed by police in the past year, the women are continuing to fight for independence from France, and demanding real citizenship, Mrs. Robeson declared.

When the leaders of the Democratic Women were arrested and thrown in jail, she said, 3,000 women sat down around the jail. The sit-down grew to such proportions, she pointed out, that the Colonial Government was finally forced to free the women's leaders.

"On one side of the picture," she said, "You have colonialism and police oppression. On the other side, you have the people organizing and fighting back.

Hits Point our Program

She stated:

"Point Four money, taken from the American people not only in taxes, but in reactionary measures against minorities and in deliberate undermining of all the ways people can achieve full democracy and a decent standard of living, is beginning to pour into Africa.

"But," she predicted, "it won't get very far."

Muriel Draper, national president of the Congress of American Women, also spoke at the meeting. rMs. Jessie Scott Campbell of East Orange, was chairman.
