"That sunny flavor is a sure sign of Quaker Corn Meal"

You just taste a piece of hot, new-baked corn bread made from Quaker Corn Meal. See if you don't agree that it has a flavor that's fresh and sweet as a spring day—a real sunny flavor. Yes, and notice its texture. Quaker Corn bread is light . . . and smooth, too.

Quaker's sunny flavor comes from water washing—gallons of water pour over every grain 'til it's clean. Then it's spout-proofed. That means we remove most of the oils that give a bitter flavor to ordinary corn meal. Serve piping hot, sunny-flavored Quaker Corn Bread today.

You can taste the quality in Quaker Corn Meal and Quaker Grits

Food Economies for the Week

Serving good flavored food is one of the goals of every homemaker, for it is the flavor which adds zest to eating.

One of the most popular and versatile vegetables used for flavoring is the yellow onion. A hint of onion in a salad, in meat, in a casserole, and even in fruit combinations, adds an indefinable flavor which enhances the whole meal.

Onions Good Buy

Yellow onions head the "best buy" list this week, with prices down in the low brackets, according to Virginia C. Sherburne, Food Economist for the Baltimore Office of the State Department of Markets. This is welcome news to most homemakers, who have been finding high price tags in the onion department, until recently.

When choosing onions, select those that are bright, clean and hard, with dry skins. If the seed stems are developed and sprouted, the onion is undesirable. Decay can be detected by the evidence of moisture at the neck or spots on the outer or center scales. Since decay spreads rapidly, onions should be spread out when stored at home.

To prevent the unpleasant "crying" usually associated with peeling onions, try pouring scalding water over the onions before peeling, or peel them under water.

Carrots Plentiful

Other vegetable economies this week include white and pascal celery, turnips and bunched carrots. Florida cabbage and tomatoes. Virginia kale is in plentiful supply and prices are reasonable. Receipts of Florida snap beans are increasing and prices are taking a corresponding drop. Supplies are expected to increase during the coming month, provided weather conditions are favorable. The first fresh asparagus offerings are now available, but supplies are very light, and prices high.

Fruit prices are fairly steady this week, with apples offering the outstanding value. Citrus prices are about the same, large sized oranges and grapefruit are high, and medium and small sizes are moderate to high in price. The strawberry market is strong this week, due to the prolonged dry weather in Florida, which has affected quality and yields. The recent cool weather has slowed down ripening, too.

Pork Prices Up

Meat is steady to generally higher this week. Pork loins are up, and sausage prices show an increase. Beef is steady after last week's sharp rise in cost. Rib roast and sirloin steak are the highest they have been for the past five years at this time. Lamb and veal remain about the same. The best poultry "buy" is hens or stewers. Fryers are higher this week.

Eggs are the most economical protein food available now, with Grade A large eggs offering an excellent value. These are a delightful Lenten dish, too. With meat prices on the upgrade, budget-minded housewives are urged to feature eggs more often. Cheese is another good choice now.

FRENCH ONION SOUP

6 large onions
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 slices bread cut in halves
1 cup grated cheese
2 quart meat stock

Peel onions, slice and saute in butter until light yellow and tender. Add 6 bouillon cubes dissolved in 1 quart boiling water may be used). Simmer a few minutes to blend well. Toast bread, preferably from a French loaf, float on top of soup and sprinkle with cheese. Set in hot oven 500° F. about 10 minutes, until cheese melts, or finish under grill.

BAKED CARROTS

7 carrots
½ cup butter
1 cup rolled wheatflake cereal

Wash and scrub carrots well. Boil in salted water about 15 minutes. Carrots should be done but firm. Roll carrots individually in butter, then rolled wheatflake cereal. Brown in the oven. Serve hot. Garnish with carrot tops.
