WALTER WINCHELL had all Baltimore standing on its smoggy ears Sunday night, Feb. 26, when he gave out with his "stand-by Baltimoreans" signal for a rocking "scoop!" WW then told us that George P. Mahoney would soon announce his candidacy for Governor of the State.

WHAT WW AND GPM didn't know was that this column made up GPM's mind with the lead paragraph on Friday, July 2, 1949—reading as follows: "George P. Mahoney, former Md. racing official, IS going to toss his hat into the ring for Governor IN 1950." In racing parlance, we took the inside track and beat WW to the wire by seven months and 26 days—which was no "sleeper."

POLITICAL TRIVIA — The Metropolitan Republican Club members who attended the last session of the Legislature at Annapolis, will throw in two colored candidates for the House of Delegates.

THE NEXT REGISTRATION in July will find that three precincts in the 16th Ward will be the key to the councilmanic victory in the Fourth District. A heavy registration in the remaining eight precincts will have a decisive effect in the Fifth.

UPTOWN QUIZ—The boys Uptown are asking just why the 14 appointments made by the city administration fell upon the shoulders of seven doctors and three lawyers?

BUSTED RANKS—This column understands that if the Governor signs a bill passed by the Legislature, the physical therapeutists will be just plain "Misters."

IS IT TRUE?—That the Colored Women's Democratic Campaign Committee is threatened with a wide-open split. That the Beauticians Political Committee will follow the dictates of their own political curls. That some of the city judges are dealing from under the bench in political matters.

TWO DEMOCRATS, who received appointments under the city administration, have been the subject of discussion as to their value as vote getters. As Dave Hyman puts it: "Give Fellows like that those kinds of jobs when they can't get three votes?"

GENERALLY SPEAKING—The Dallas Four quartet sang for the Dallas Social Club on Sunday at 926 N. Gay St., during an oyster roast. Sitting were: Garrison Veney, Laura Baker, Gladys Pack, W. A. Hunt, Evelyn Rodgers, William Carter, Abe Smith, Al Mack, Sam Toles, Dorothy Denkins, George Lee, Dorsey Fowlkes, Magnolia Fowlkes, William Elliott, Al Taylor, Al Freat and Mel Travis.

NEW NUMBERS—The John McCargoes (she Juanita), welcomed a daughter on Monday at Johns Hopkins.

TOWN SIGHTS — A monkey washing the spots on a leopard's back on a billboard at Jasper and W. Franklin Sts. That sports arena in the 1600 block Pennsylvania Ave. taking shape with crews working around the clock.

THE MAID of Susan Peters who played behind a picket line in a downtown theatre, learned the full Baltimore Story while trying to make a purchase downtown. And we're still observing Brotherhood Week. It should apply to Sisters, too.

DOTS AND DASHES—Prophet K. Costonie spending a week in our town . . . Reginald Moore handing out with the Synthetic Spook . . . Doc Woingust back on his feet after a session flat on his back . . . The do-pe-ra-me boys taking a vacation from the vicinity of a local high school.

ON THE AIR—Oliver Travis to be featured on the regular monthly broadcast of BIMA, Sunday, March 5, at 10:00 a.m., over WFBR . . . Also at 10:00, the Rev. C. Baker Pearle, now of Chicago, will be heard on CBS's Church of the Air, WCAO . . . Jesse Owens on Horace Heidt's program, Sunday p.m., at 9:30, and Jackie Robinson at 10:30.

THE OLD QUIZZER — "Osa Johnson" will hit the "Sing It Again" jackpot, Saturday nights at 10. "Stop the Music," Sunday nights at 8, with "Fond of Chewing Gum."

MAUDE THOMAS, the blues singer, sends regards from the Bal Rue Lounge in Fort Wayne, Ind. . . . The Alverta Snowden-Billy Cornell-Marion Ford trio, up and out after a near-fatal auto accident . . . Freddie and Flo, comedy team, who created a sensation along the Stroll, now playing the RKO Alhambra in NYC.

FILLING AN ORDER — The Clarence Johnsons (she Willye, Casino waitress), 508 W. Lafayette Ave., expecting a little tray in July . . . Sherman Lewis's band will tackle Eddie Trovato's outfit in a battle of swing, Wednesday, March 8, in the Roll Arena at Havre de Grace, where no discrimination will be shown either among the tooters or the tootsie draggers . . . Matthews Butler and "Biddle" chasing cold shivers with hot toddies at the Avenue nightery . . . "Drop That Gun, Gal" was the cry in a local spot Thursday night. Picture at the Met billed: "Deadly Is the Female."

Q-BALLERS — Askew Gatewood trying for championship honors in the Casino's favorite pastime. Little Willie hasn't been thoroughly converted to the game . . . Gamby's offering competition with a miniature bowling alley with Mapp trying for honors.

IRMA CURRY, Baltimore chirper, recently lifted by Lionel Hampton, playing Detroit's Fox Theatre with the band.

THAT'S ALL FOR NOW, except —I'll B Cee'n U at the good time spots.

Grandma's Recipe

Another Madera Wine that is winning more and more friends every day is Madera American Blackberry Wine. This is truly an old-time treat, full of the good, rich, blackberry flavor that Grandma's used to have. Only the plumpest, juiciest Oregon blackberries are fine enough for use in Madera American Blackberry Wine. To bring out every last bit of the blackberry bouquet, extra sugar is added. Every sip of this wine will bring back memories . . . memories of the good old days when no home was complete without a bottle or two of blackberry wine. An old recipe is the secret behind the wonderful flavor of this wine. This recipe is followed carefully, step by step. If ever you knew the pleasure there was in a glass of Grandma's own-make wine, you'll find it again in Madera American Blackberry Wine. It costs so little . . . tastes so good!

Wins Popularity Test

Madera California Wines are the largest-selling wines in Maryland. More people ask for Madera Wines than any other wines. The reasons for this tremendous popularity can be found in the very first glass of Madera Wine you drink. You'll realize that, regardless of price, there is no finer California Wine on the market than Madera Wine. Yet, Madera Wine is yours to enjoy at a popular price. Huge volume and the last-word in modern bottling equipment enable us to sell Madera Wines at a popular price. So, be sure to ask your dealer for Madera Wine. You, too, will agree that Madera Wines taste so good, yet cost so little.

Wines Through The Centuries

Wine has played a part in everyday living for as far back as man's memory goes. Plutarch and Plato, Shakespeare and Kipling, Dickens and Milton, Jonathan Swift and Benjamin Franklin are among the host of famous poets, writers and statesmen whose thoughts on the virtues of wine live with us today.

Sherry Big Favorite

Take Madera Pure California Sherry for example. This is the most versatile bottle of wine you could have in your home. It is the most popular wine of all, because it can be served in so many ways. Madera Sherry is delicious with appetizers before dinner, or with sandwiches, cakes or cookies at any time.

No Special Glasses Needed

It's the taste of the wine . . . not the glass it's in . . . that counts most. Madera California Wines taste good from any glass. Even a water tumbler is "correct" glassware in which to serve it. Pour your wine right from the bottle, too. When you serve Madera Pure California Wines, you're serving California's finest, made from fresh, sun-ripened grapes, matured until ... and completely ... don't worry about ... be sure to serve ... may be sure your ... it. Madera Wines ... cost so little.

ILL-FATED COUPLE IN NEW BI-LINGUAL PICTURE

The ill-fated couple in the bi-lingual film, "Without Pity," Sergeant John Katzmiller, shooting clay-pigeons, and Carlo Del Poggio, his sweetheart, in one of their happier moments which cements the bond between them. At right, Carlo is killed in a hail of bullets in a war between a gang of outlaws. The film opens March 1 at the Rialto Theatre in NYC.

New Harlem Theatre Unit Hears Plea for Education

NEW YORK—Before a brilliant gathering of stage stars, newspaper and magazine writers, Charles Bailey, special representative of Schenley Distillers, urged a strong educational movement that could well assist colored persons in achieving the freedoms so long denied.

The address was delivered at "The Actor Meets the Press" buffet luncheon, sponsored by Schenley at the newly opened Actors' Theatre, 77 West 125th St., where the three-act drama, "The Greener Grass," begins on March 13.

"Many of us are inclined to feel that crying on our cups or complaining bitterly of racial disadvantages will tend to soften the contributing factors.

"Disadvantages have never been dissipated by tears, or the solicitation of sympathy," said Mr. Bailey. "Forthright leadership with a definite aim and a tenacity of purpose rarely fails to achieve its goal," he added.

The goal of Actors' Theatre is the revival of the legitimate stage in Harlem.

"Plays have been written and acted with kings, presidents, and inventors as the central characters. When will someone write a play centering around Blanche Kelso Bruce, a colored Congressman from the State of Mississippi?" the speaker asked.

Schenley, it was pointed out, strongly endorses cultural advancement, and recognizes the aim of "Actors' Theatre as a contribution with far-reaching possibilities."

'Brave' and 'Pinky' Make Encyclopedia

HOLLYWOOD (ATLAS) — "Home of the Brave," the Stanley Kramer-United Artists film, has been selected by Encyclopedia Americana for inclusion in its permanent record of fine films in an article written by Philip Hartung entitled, "Fine Films of 1949."

Twentieth Century-Fox's film, "Pinky," likewise has been paid special honor by Britannica as one of the top films of the year. The famed compendium has requested special photographic material from the film for inclusion in its 1950 Book of the year, which is the annual supplement covering all important events of the previous year.

"Home of the Brave" was the first of several American films of 1949-50 to dramatize the story of colored people in the United States, and has been designated by several leading organizations as the best and most helpful of these films to advance the cause of better race relations.

"Pinky" was one of the top money makers of 1949, and reached the "Golden Circle," the coveted place of films that has made, or show promise of earning $4,000,000 or more.

'Lost Boundaries' Spotty in London

LONDON—"Lost Boundaries," one of America's top films of 1949, has proved somewhat of a flop in London.

Veteran observers and critics, who rate the film as being superb but disappointed at its drawing power place the blame on the fact that there is no colored problem in England.

But, despite the spotty box office draw in London, the film is doing a colossal business in the Provinces.
