Crusaders Capture Intermediate League Cage Crown, Clip Cougar-Adelphi Five

The South Baltimore Crusaders won the championship of the Bureau of Recreation's Monumental Intermediate League and city-wide honors by defeating the Cougar-Adelphi last week in a best two-out-of-three play-off.

The Crusaders shut off a Cougar-Adelphi rally to win at Lexington Center Thursday, 61 to 47, after previously beating the Cougars, 34 to 30, at Douglass High earlier in the week. The victory gave the champions possession of a 22-inch trophy emblematic of the city championship to be awarded during Sports Award Night in April.

The Crusaders completed their round robin with ten victories and no defeats to top the Northern Division of the Intermediate League. The runner-up, Cougar-Adelphi, led the Southern Division with nine wins and a lone loss to the Crusaders.

Roster of Teams

The roster of the second place Cougar-Adelphi follows: Leroy Barber, captain; Walter Billips, Gean Castle, George Bolling, George Kimball, Will Pinnock, Harvey Blair, Lennel Johnson, Fleetwood Wise, Warner Hargroves, Henry Forbes, and Jesse Reid, manager.

All Monumental Intermediate League teams who completed their round robin schedules are entered in a Double Elimination tournament which starts this week. A special trophy will be awarded to the winner.

Classy Field of Boxers Set for S.A. Tournament

Navy Base Team, Headed by Henry Ebron, Rated Heavy Choice for Championship

One of the classiest—and biggest—fields ever to enter the event is ready for the referee's opening nod Saturday night in the Baltimore Gardens where the annual South Atlantic Association's boxing tournament gets under way.

An entry list—expected to go well over the 200 mark—will begin quest for the championships in all classes from bantamweight to heavyweight in the four-week tourney grind. The tourney will continue through March 11, 17 and 25.

Henry Abron, a heavyweight who hails from Norfolk, Va., and who will be carrying the hopes of the Severn River Naval Command, heads a team of ten fighters from the Navy outfit in the tournament.

Sailor Highly Rated

Ebron is rated as one of the contenders for Joe Sanchez's heavyweight crown. The sailor has had 40 fights, winning 33 and losing just seven—and one of these losses was a split decision to Jesse Manigault. Ebron also holds a knockout over Warrenall Barrott, the titleholder of the heavyweights in last fall's Maryland State championship.

Ebron was runner-up for all-Navy honors last year and was undisputed heavyweight champ of the Hawaiian area as well. Among Ebron's teammates are Lubbie Edwards, 145-pounds, from Kingston, N.C.; Johnnie McKenney, welterweight, from Talladega, Ala.; John Webster, 155, of New York City; Tom Newsome, 118, also from Kingston; Garcia Newsuan, of Philadelphia, and Wincent Smith, 175-pounder from Boston.

Smith has an impressive record to carry into the tourney and against Manigault, popular Baltimore boy who holds the light-heavyweight crown. In 24 bouts Smith has lost only four times. Newsome, the bantamweight, is a petty officer in the service.

Ringside Team Strong

Manigault and Herman Thompson will be Officer Harry Scott's chief sources for his team title hopes. Scott, who coaches the Northwestern District Police Boys Club boxers, will have Thompson in the welterweight division and Manigault defending his 175-pound bauble.

Meanwhile, another strong team—title contender—the Ringside A.C. which won the Maryland State crown—returns to action with a strong set of boys. This club's main hopes lies in Elmer Barksdale, classy 126-pounder.

Elmer defeated Willie Clark, of the Baltimore Athletic Club, in the finals of the Maryland State to win that title following his victory in the Baltimore City event last January.

In Action Saturday

Jesse Manigault, captain of the Northwestern Police Boys Club boxing team and State and South Atlantic AAU champion, will see action tomorrow (Saturday) night at Baltimore Garden when the amateur eliminations get under way for this year's nationals.

Douglass Jayvees Win

Piling up a 13-0 lead in the first quarter, Douglass High School's Jayvees went on to defeat the Banneker Junior High School of Catonsville, 39-21, on the Banneker floor Monday.

Easterwood Tops Eastside

231st Five Also Wins in Heart Fund Games

The Easterwood A. C. scored a convincing 69-43 victory over the Eastside Sportsmen, and the 231st Battalion defeated the YMCA Big Five, 63-55, Friday night, in the Heart Fund benefit basketball doubleheader at the Richmond Market Armory.

Ray King paced Easterwood with 23 points as the club extended its victory skein to 26 victories against only one setback. Easterwood took a 15-9 lead at the first quarter, increased the advantage to 39-22 at half-time then coasted to victory.

In the second half, Easterwood outscored the Eastside cagers, 30-21, to leave no doubt about the final outcome. Burton and Levy scored 10 and 13 points for Easterwood, while Richburg was best for Eastside with 15.

In the second game, the 231st Battalion found the going tough all the way but managed to pull ahead in the final quarter to gain the triumph. They maintained a slight edge over the YMCA aggregation throughout the contest but the Big Five always was in threatening reach of the soldiers.

Big Five Fades

The 231st quintet had a 15-12 advantage at the first quarter, and a 30-26 lead at half-time. Both teams added 13 points to their respective totals in the third period but in the final stanza the 231st outscored the Big Five, 20-14, for the 63-55 victory.

James, with 13, and Sugar Cain, and Jerome, with 12 and 10 respectively, sparked the Y Big Five, while Harvey Brown's 21 points topped the 231st and was best for the game.

The lanky Y team was led by its 6-foot, 5-inch center, Solomon Rose, who garnered 22 points, followed by Peterson, with 15 points, and Robert Grey with 13.

The Druid Hill team led from the opening gun and at halftime the score was 43-27. The Wilmington five, paced by Robinson and Rush, began to find the range in the closing moments to cut down the huge lead of the Druid Hill team, they had too much to overcome. Robinson scored 16 points.

The Druid Hill team will travel to Wilmington on March 11th for a return engagement with the Wilmington aggregation.

Charles-Beshore Set for March 29

BUFFALO, N.Y.—The off-again, on-again fight between NBA Heavyweight Champion Ezzard Charles and Freddie Beshore of Buffalo probably will be held Wednesday, March 29, Promoter Dewey Michaels said Tuesday.

The title fight originally slated for Feb. 28, but postponed when Jake Mintz, manager of Charles, announced the champion had injured a rib in training, was first rescheduled for April 5.

Softball Fan Lauds Mixed Loop Proposal

William Johnson is enthusiastic over reports that an interracial softball league will be organized in Baltimore. He writes the AFRO sports department, as follows:

"I learned a few days ago that an interracial softball league was being formed. Personally, I think that this is one of the things softballers as well as fans should appreciate. It will mean more popularity for the game, something badly needed.

"Teams like the Finos, Athenians and Toppers need more and better competition. Add the Mohawks A.C. and Red Hawks of Turners Station and you have the city's most outstanding teams which would do well in such a league.
