Union, N.C. College, Va. State Highly Rated in CIAA Play

Lincoln, Shaw Held Tourney Dark Horses

By ART CARTER

WASHINGTON

The team picture for the fifth annual CIAA basketball tournament had crystalized almost completely this week, though the battle for the seventh and eighth spots still left a few snags in the tournament machinery. As matters now stand, it could be the same teams and the same script for the semi-finals and finals of the three-day CIAA dribble derby which will get under way at Uline's Arena on Thursday, March 9, at 3:15 p.m.

West Virginia State (16-1) has clinched the conference visitation championship and is a certainty for the No. 1 seeded spot, with Union (13-4), Va. State (13-6), and North Carolina College (11-5) gunning for the Yellow Jackets' scalps and conceded an excellent chance of upsetting the dope.

Lincoln (9-3), with two games unreported, and Shaw (13-11) are rated the tournament dark horses and will share the role with Delaware State, Johnson C. Smith, Winston-Salem, A. & T. College or Howard, depending upon which of the latter five teams make the grade.

Many Upsets Loom

The conference basketball committee will work out the final standings, based on the Dickinson Rating System, as soon as all results are in Saturday night, and then make seedings and pairings.

Regardless of which teams get in, W.Va. State, Union, Va. State and N.C. College loom as the teams to gain the Friday night semi-final round, if form holds true. Upsets, surprises and form reversals, however, have marked every one of the four tourneys in the past years, and it is highly probable that any of the other selected eight teams will change the complexion of things as the heated competition moves toward its Saturday afternoon climax.

Record Crowd Expected

The tournament, expected to draw the biggest crowd in its five-year history, will highlight the last appearance of the towering and seemingly unconquerable West Virginia aggregation. Four of the Jackets' standout stars will be playing their final games for the two-time tournament champions.

They are Earl Lloyd, 6-foot-5 center; Bob Wilson, 6-foot-2, and Frank Enty, 6-foot-4, forwards, and the steady and dependable Clarence Clark, 6-foot-1 guard. This quartet has been the backbone of the Jackets' teams which have captured two CIAA visitation titles, two tournament crowns and compiled a record of 83 wins against 10 losses, including a string of 33 straights in three years.

Lloyd's Last Stand

Lloyd, a product of Parker-Gray High School of Alexandria, Va., and a former All-South Atlantic Conference scholastic luminary, will be making his last appearance before a hometown crowd.

He is the key man in the Jackets' slow-breaking, control offense, but is certain to get tough competition from such pivotmen as Leroy Banks of Va. State, William (Trees) Taylor of N.C. College, and Channing Phillips of Union, provided either of those teams draw the Jackets in the pairings.

With every team gunning for the Jackets, who showed slight evidence of wilting under the terrific strain of road competition earlier this week when supposedly weak St. Augustine and A. & T. College played them to two and one-point victories, respectively, the three-day dribble derby should produce the best basketball seen in this area in many moons.

Eagles Hurler Gets Chance

Deal May Be Made If He Looks Good

By SAM LACY
AFRO Sports Editor

VERO BEACH, Fla. — Rufus Lewis, 26-year-old fireballer of the Houston Eagles, will be under observation of the Brooklyn Dodgers during the current spring training session at the camp here, the AFRO learned, late Tuesday.

Lewis, who broke into baseball with the Newark club of the now defunct Negro National League, is due here Thursday or Friday.

There has been no official announcement concerning the big righthander, but informed sources say Lewis is being brought for a Dodger look-see.

Reports are that the Brooks were interested in purchasing Lewis from Houston, but that the price was prohibitive.

The Dodger alternative was to invite him here so that they could observe him before closing a deal, one way or the other.

Big Rufe, broken in by Newark under Bizz Mackey, was sold to Houston when Abe Manley disposed of his holdings to the Texas ownership.

Jackson Sparks Mules

BETHLEHEM, Pa.—Elmo (Bill) Jackson, Muhlenberg College forward, scored 10 points as the Mules trimmed Lehigh University, 86-64, in a basketball game here Monday night.

MONTREAL — Bob Montgomery, former lightweight champion from Philadelphia, dropped a unanimous decision to Johnny Greco, Canadian welterweight titlist, in a 10-round boxing bout here Monday night.

The defeat was the second in a row for Montgomery, who recently launched a comeback attempt. He weighed 142½ pounds and Greco 149.

8 Knockouts Feature Meet

Favored Boxers Win in CIAA Tournament

By FRED LEIGH

WASHINGTON

Eight knockouts, seven of them technical kayoes, coming in the first 11 bouts, marked the opening of the annual CIAA tourney, Wednesday, at the 12th St. YMCA as seeded fighters advanced to the finals.

The finals held last night (Thursday) at Turner's Arena such favorites as Howard University's Monte Hickman and St. Augustine's Joe Clayton, defending 145-pound champion, were in rare form.

Hickman, former CIAA welterweight king, got off to a good start in the tourney by hammering Julius Twyne of Hampton into submission in the first round. The elusive, bobbing Bison fighter earned a TKO when Twyne failed to answer the bell in the second.

Clayton, a busy-body southpaw, blasted out Morgan's Francis Green in 13 seconds of the second round with his close pressing style. A smashing left hand to the jaw dropped Green to the canvas.

Laxity on the part of tournament officials to provide adequate matting, and other equipment was a glaring weakness in the meet. The ring lacked a two-foot apron, while the ropes were so loose until the fighters tumbled out of the ring with regularity.

Fighter Injured

Because the ropes weren't tight, Cecil Watkins, 155-pound fighter from Winston-Salem, sailed clear through and out on the floor where he injured his knee and face. Unable to continue because of the bad knee, he lost on a technical kayo to Waverly Pryor of Bluefield. He later was removed from the ring on a stretcher.

Poor organization and lack of ample equipment hampered efforts of officials to speed up the matches. The bouts scheduled at 11 a.m. began at 1:30 p.m. Conducting a tournament in this manner does little to encourage boxing in the CIAA.

Worker Told About His Social Security

It is the responsibility of every employee to keep complete and accurate records for Social Security purposes, the U.S. Social Security Agency has announced.

In addition to maintaining proper records for his own reporting obligations, the employer must also provide his employees with statements of their employment, which must show the amount of wages paid to them.

These statements or receipts must be in writing but need not be in any special form so long as they are in a form suitable for retention by the employee.

Receipt Due Worker

The receipt must be given each time wages are paid. Or, the receipt may cover one or more, but not more than four calendar quarters.

In other words, the worker must be given a receipt at least once a year.

If for any reason a worker leaves his employment he must be given a receipt with his last pay.

Each statement must show the name of the employer, the employer, the employee's name, the period for which the receipt is issued, the total amount of wages paid, and the amount of the worker's tax on such wages.

YMCA NEWS

Plans were made last Tuesday, to organize program and membership committees in the men's division of the Druid branch YMCA to perform duties now carried out by the men's division committee.

When these proposed committees begin functioning, the men's division committee will be abolished.

Houston R. Jackson, division committee chairman, said the change is being made to keep pace with the Y's rapidly expanding facilities and its anticipated membership increase. The current committee will hold its last meeting on March 14.

"Camera Bugs" Sought

Men with an interest in photography are being sought for membership in the photography club now being organized at the Y, according to Charles F. Michael, men's division secretary.

Persons wishing to join the organization or to get additional information should telephone Mr. Michael at LA. 4464.

The YMCA will present a program at 11:30 a.m., over Station WBMD on March 15, called "Party Planners." Mr. Michael is to be among the participants.

The broadcast is designed to give helpful suggestion on planning an effective party. This program will deal with an April Fool's Day party.

Police Head Asks Legislators to Okey Warrantless Searches

ANNAPOLIS—During a hearing in which Northwest Baltimore was described as having the city's "greatest concentration of crime," the House Judiciary Committee was asked, Tuesday, to pass a bill permitting searches without warrants in deadly weapon cases.

Leading supporter of the bill was Beverly Ober, Baltimore police commissioner, who urged the legislators to give his force greater freedom in searching suspects for concealed weapons.

Commissioner Ober told the committee that during 1949, there was a 37% increase in armed robbery in Baltimore. At present, the commissioner explained, weapons found as the result of a search without warrant are inadmissable in evidence under the Bouse Act and convictions cannot be obtained.

Situation Growing Worse

Also speaking in favor of the measure was Orris S. Byrd, president of the Mount Royal Protective Association, who headed a delegation of Baltimoreans who supported the bill.

Mr. Byrd told the all-white audience in the committee room that Baltimore's crime rate increase was "outrageous." He continued:

"In the last few months 200 holdups by armed bandits and thugs have made our streets and highways no longer safe for our people. Because conditions are steadily growing worse, something must be done."

It was William J. O'Donnell, assistant State's attorney assigned to the Northwestern police district, who told the solons that the district has the city's greatest concentration of crime.
