To Dedicate Center

Bishop C. C. Alleyne of the AME Zion Church, who will dedicate the Pennsylvania Avenue AMEZ Christian Center, Sunday, at 3 p.m.

In Baltimore Churches

Fountain Baptist Church, which recently completed a six-week campaign to raise $2,000, used a new plan this time called the "Battle of the Colors," which was suggested by one of its members, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Brown.

The congregation was divided into three groups:

The "Reds" consisted of all members who elected Bro. Rev. Dennis Barrow, pastor; the "Whites" were all members whom the pastor had baptized, and the "Blues" were composed of members who joined by letter or Christian experience during his administration.

Each group was considered organized with generals, captains and company commanders. Each Sunday the soldier's morale was raised by the company commander who gave pep-talks.

Armistice Signed

After six weeks of "battle," the "Armistice" was signed with the "Reds" the "victors" leading the "Blues," their closest opponents by more than $200.

As a result of the "Battle" more than $2,000 was added to the church's treasury.

During the month of March the services of Bethel AME Church are being broadcast over station WMAR-FM each Sunday from 11 a.m. to 12. The Rev. Harrison Bryant is pastor.

The Volunteer Circle of Enon Baptist Church will present a musical tea, Sunday, March 19 from 4 to 7 p.m., at the church.

More than $1700 was raised by the women of Mt. Moriah AME Church, Annapolis, Md., recently at their annual Women's Day Program Broadcast.

A special feature was the evening service where Mae Johnny Styles was guest soloist. The program was broadcasted. Mrs. Cecil B. Green was president of Wom

The Royal Ambassadors, a Lott Carey chapter of men and boys dedicated to missionary work, have been organized at Union Baptist Church. Cecil Coleman is counselor, and Mrs. Baxter L. Matthews the pastor's wife, is president and sponsor.

St. John's AME Church recently installed a set of chimes. Their candlelight communion, held the first Sunday in every month, also is a new innovation.

When the AME ministers met Monday at Bethel Church, they heard progress reports from various churches. Next week the Rev. J. C. Beckett of Washington will be the guest speaker.

The Rev. M. C. Carpentier of the AME Church in Havre de Grace, is in the process of organizing a P-TA group for his Sunday School.

The pastor, choir and congregation of Douglass Memorial Community Church will worship with Ebenezer Church at 3 p.m. Sunday.

Mrs. Cornelia Smith, policewoman of the Southwestern district and will speak during the Woman's Day program at Trinity AME Church Sunday at 3 p.m.

The Baptist Ministers Conference voted on Monday to send a letter of commendation to Morning Star Baptist Church on the way in which they selected their new pastor, the Rev. N. L. Wirks.

"The pastor was chosen by unanimous vote of their 900 members in special session, out of 15 preachers who are members of the church.

A Jubilee Evangelistic Campaign opens Sunday at Grace Memorial Baptist Church, Eden and Chase Sts., where the Rev. C. E. Griffin of Norfolk will preach special sermons.

The Sunday Bible School now conducting basic studies from the book of Acts, will join in the morning services.

A neighborhood canvass is now under way. Teams of two persons are seeking out the unsaved and unchurched.

Campaign Ends March 16

The campaign lasts until Thursday, March 16, when the Young Peoples Choir, Miss Mildred M. Williams, director, will sing, along with the two senior choirs.

Beginning promptly each night at 8 p.m., the meetings will provide trained workers for persons who will be converted. The Rev. Eugene T. Green is pastor of Grace "The Church on the Frontier."

Zion to Dedicate Center on Sunday

The new $11,000 Pennsylvania Avenue AME Zion Christian Center, next door to the farmhouse of the Rev. G. M. Edwards pastor will be dedicated at 3 p.m., Sunday.

The Rev. W. A. Stewart pastor of Union Wesley AME, Zion Church, Washington will deliver the sermon; and Bishop C. C. Alleyne will dedicate the building.

The new building which contains eight classrooms and a library, will house the Sunday school, which has outgrown its present quarters.

7-Day Week Use Planned

The Rev. Mr. Edwards plans to keep activities and crusades going in the center seven days a week.

He also hopes in the near future to put a bowling alley in the basement. The building will be open for inspection from 4 to 6 p.m. Sunday.
