Coppin Unit, Urban League Quiz Lane on School Plans

Governor Lane was asked, this week, for specific information about the future of the city teacher training program in a letter from the Coppin Parents Organization and the Urban League's educational committee.

They expressed their dissatisfaction with the announcement that the present Coppin students will complete their training in the city. The groups asked for answers to these questions:

1. Does the announcement apply only to the present senior class?

2. What is to be done for and with the students now in the first, second, and third-year classes?

3. What provisions will be made for those 1950 high school graduates who ordinarily would enter Coppin next September?

4. How soon will such permanent provisions be made available?

Want School in Baltimore

Referring to the last two questions, the group insists that an accredited college be made available by the State in Baltimore or its immediate suburbs for the city teacher training program.

The letter states that the two groups had been unable to substantiate the statement that the City School Board had taken action to provide facilities for the present Coppin program to be culminated.

"The obligation resting upon the State in this matter is clearly spelled out in both the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment and the "separate but substantially equal doctrine," the letter said.

Gateway to Gayway

By GEORGE D. TYLER

Like many other singers born in this man's town, regardless as to what you have on the ball, unless you go away and win acclaim, you are a dead duck—just another singer. So after winning fame, especially throughout the west, George Bias, possessor of a sweet tenor voice, is back home and highlighting the current revusical at GAMBY'S. Four lovely gals, the Beige Beauts, rate high for their spic and span costumes and dance routines, especially for the punishment they take while dancing with some of the patrons during the finale. There is comedy and dancing by Underwood and Ray, singing by Hattie Green and Bertie Pilgrim goes through some stripping action. Vernon Hutchins does a nice job of em ceeing the whole thing.

The coronation of the King and Queen of the SPHINX Mardi Gras is scheduled for Monday nite when the third annual fracas comes to a close. Truly a rollicking riot of color, music and fantastic costumes. Charley Tilghman and "Doc" Waingrut have scored again.

For real fun and good humor the BRIDGE can't be beat. Betcha you can't find a cozier and homey rendezvous to while away the time than EDS lounge.

Guest Stars Galore

They have been having so many guest stars and celebrities at the OLDE MILL that you are sure to miss something unless you can afford to be on the go every night. Recently Mr. Lewis from the Dixie, which features sepia musicians, dropped in with dancer Rose Mitchell (formerly worked the Comedy with Earl O'Mara), who showed her versatility by executing the most sensational and dramatic fire dances that has ever been uptown. Rose left town with several Canadian commitments.

We find that some of the boys have made switches in the past week. Sam Taylor and his Be-Bop-pers are back at the KNOTTY PINE doing weekend duty while his drummer Joey Adams has joined Johnny Sparrow. Tanfeet former Sparrowite, has his own combo working the PRESTON and Josh Tate is footing sax, his first uptown appearance in months and Sunday's . . . The oddest combo in town—but no less terrific and entertaining is Jimmie Greene's musical trio doing weekend stints at JONES' plus a Sunday matinee.

Vi Burnside, ace femme saxer, and her combo due to return to the musical bar at ye COMEDY Monday nite (13th). Dick Wade, pianist, soloyox and singer, continues as an added attraction . . . its In The Air! Seeks to Modernize Musical Ping Pong

TRINIDAD, B.W.I. — Boxill Jackson, Trinidad-born band leader, is now back in Trinidad from New York to study the fundamentals of ping pong, the only instrument in the steel band orchestra, with a view of perfecting it in the United States.

Jackson, known on the American stage as 'Lord Radar,' said that the steel band was still in its crude stage and he was attempting to find a medium to bring about an instrument of, the same effect which will be more pleasing and less harsh to the ear.

200 Attend Rites Held for Hit-Run Car Victim

COCKEYSVILLE, Md.—Funeral services were held in Bas' Chapel here Wednesday afternoon for William Wright, 23-year-old laborer who was fatally injured when he was struck by a hit-run car on Feb. 26.

Some 200 colored and white residents of this community packed the small chapel to pay their last respects to the youth.

Meanwhile, James F. Frantz 24-year-old white youth, is at liberty under $1000 bail on charges of causing Wright's death, reckless driving, and failing to stop after an accident.

Nabbed After Tip

Frantz was arrested by county police on a tip supplied by white patrons of a Cockeysville tavern.

It is widely believed that Wright was the victim of mistaken identity in a planned murder. Patrons of the tavern say Frantz and another white youth, Roy Sheeler had an argument on the night of the fatality and Frantz swore he would kill Sheeler.

According to the story Sheeler left the tavern and walked towards his home along with Wright whom he met on the road. Later Sheeler was given a lift and Wright continued to walk along the dark road.

He was found lying in a ditch, unconscious, by county police officers and removed to Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore

LONGER HAIR Amazes Leading N.Y. Beautician

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Miss Vivian Ford, pictured above, owner of the Vivian Ford Shop, 736 St. Nicholas Avenue, New York City, stated that she used full strength Kotalko for a period of six weeks on one of her customers, whose hair was dry, cracking off, and brittle due to lack of sufficient natural hair oils. With the scalp and hair conditions normal, using Kotalko regularly to supplement these natural oils, she was amazed with the results achieved.

By special arrangement with this newspaper you too may use the very same Kotalko right in the privacy of your own home that Miss Ford uses on her New York customers.

In these days of scientific achievements and beauty miracles, why have short, flimsy, unattractive, unmanageable hair? For just a few cents you may have the silkier, smoother, longer, more lustrous hair that men and women admire. Order medicated Kotalko and three times larger bottle of roomy Kotalko Special Shampoo. Both work wonderfully in hard or soft water. Use the coupon below or secure nerveless Kotalko at your druggist or send no money, just pay postman plus C.O.D. charges.
