VA. STATE UPSETS UNION IN CIAA TOURNEY

Lincoln, N.C. State, W.Va. Also Win 1st-Round Games

By ART CARTER

WASHINGTON—Only one of the four seeded teams failed to survive the opening round as the 5th annual CIAA basketball tournament got under way at Uline Arena, here, Thursday, West Virginia State, North Carolina College and Lincoln University moving into the semi-finals along with Virginia State College which upset third-seeded Union University.

Lincoln eliminated Delaware State, 80-61, with George Moore, junior sharp-shooter from NYC, pumping in 22 points. The Lions raced to a 43-35 half-time lead, then maintained the margin throughout the second period.

Trojans Triumph

Va. State pulled the surprise of the first round, eking out a 64-62 victory over Union in a nip-and-tuck struggle that was in doubt until the final three seconds of play. The score was tied ten times in the hectic contest, with Union taking the lead only once and that a narrow two-point advantage at 40-38 a few minutes after the second half began.

At half-time, the count was deadlocked at 36-all, the ninth stalemate in the score. After Union moved to its 40-38 lead, Dave Ritter, Trojan forward, put the Trojans even at 40-all, and Leroy Banks, lanky center, cashed two free throws to break the deadlock at 42-40.

Banks Sets Pace

Thereafter the Trojans maintained a slight edge until the final minute of play when the Panthers closed the gap to 59-60, then it was Banks again who staved off the late Panther rally by sinking two foul tosses and sneaking away from the Union defense for an under-the-basket layup.

This carried the count to 64-59 with 33 seconds to go. Howie Jones added a foul shot, and Channing Phillips hit with a set shot to bring Union up to 62-64, as the Panthers got possession of the ball on an out-of-bounds play with three seconds left. They drove in for a final try but never got a chance to make a basket attempt as the time ran out.

It was the best game of the opening round with Banks showing the way for the Trojans with 22 tallies, and Clarence Jeffries superb as a playmaker.

Lions Play Jackets

In Thursday night's encounters, North Carolina College romped to a 87-56 victory over Shaw, setting a new tournament record for a single game high score; and West Virginia State coasted to a 75-48 win over Johnson C. Smith University.

In tonight's (Friday, March 10) semi-finals, North Carolina College and Va. State will tangle in the first game at 8 p.m., followed by West Virginia against Lincoln.

This will mark the first meeting between the champion Yellow Jackets and the Lions.

The consolation game will get under way at 1:30 p.m., Saturday afternoon (March 11), followed by the championship game and presentation of trophies and awards.

Newcombe Hurls 2 Runless Frames

VERO BEACH, Fla.—Don Newcombe, starting on the mound, pitched two scoreless innings before a downpour washed out Wednesday's game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and their Mobile farmhands.

The ace right-hander gave up two hits, walked two and struck out one. The Bums were leading, 5-0, when the rain came, two of the runs being scored on a single by catcher Roy Campanella.

Newcombe was nicked for an infield single with two down in the first, but Campanella picked the runner off with a snap throw on Don's first pitch to the next batter.

In the second, a double and two successive passes filled the bases on Newcombe with two away. But the threat was choked off when Don whizzed a third strike past the final hitter. Newk and Campy, at bat once apice both delivered singles.—LACY.

VERO BEACH, Fla. — Rufus Lewis, 25-year-old righthander who came into prominence five years ago as ace of the Newark Eagles pitching staff, reported at the Brooklyn Dodgers training camp Tuesday.

Lewis arrived in Vero Beach at 1:45 a.m., following the long train ride from his New Orleans home, spent the night at the home of an acquaintance he formed en route, then came out to the Dodgertown base in time for breakfast.

Although inked to a St. Paul contract, the 189-pound curve-baller was assigned to the "free agents" group as a starter. The St. Paul club does not report until March 15th but the Dodger brass wants to get a good look at their new chattel before that time, in case he merits a crack at what they call "higher classification."

Purchased From Eagles

This, of course, is simply another way of saying a chance with the varsity.

Lewis was purchased during the winter from the Houston Eagles of the Negro American League. The amount of cash involved was not disclosed, but a conservative estimate would be $4,000.

He had gone from Newark to Houston in the transaction which shifted ownership of the Eagles from Abe and Effa Manley, of Newark, to W. H. Young and Hugh Cherry, representing the newly-formed Texas Corporation.

Hurling in the lately merged NAL last year, Lewis won 11 and lost 12. In 1948, pitching for Newark, he had a record of 11-10. His best year since breaking into colored baseball in 1946, was that same season when he scored 18 wins against three defeats.

Father of Four

A native of New Orleans, he is married and has four children. His family resides in Hattiesburg, Miss. A brother, Booker, is assistant director of athletics at Bethune-Cookman College.

At St. Paul, Lewis will become the fourth colored player sent there by the Dodgers. Catcher Roy Campanella was the first, in 1948. Next was pitcher Dan Bankhead who was transferred there from Nashua later the same year. Outfielder Jim Pendleton was there last season and still is a member of the club.

Managers Switched

Ironically, the new pitcher will be under a new Saints' manager, but one who is an old hand with colored players. The same day Lewis reported here, the Dodger front office anounced that Clay Hopper, who piloted Jackie Robinson, Johnny Wright, Roy Partlow, Campanella, Don Newcombe, Sam Jethroe and Bankhead at Montreal, has been switched to St. Paul as helmsman.

Walt Alston, 1949 manager of the Saints, replaces Hopper as skipper of the Royals. Alston was pilot at Nashua when Newcombe and Campy were there in 1947.

Teammates Greet Jackie Robinson at Camp

Big Don Near Top Condition

VERO BEACH, Fla.—Indications are that Don Newcombe is one of the most advanced players in camp in his 1950 conditioning program.

The big righthander, who won 17 and lost 8, in the Brooklyn Dodgers' successful trek to the National League pennant last year, took the mound as the lead pitcher in batting practice for three successive days.

Usually, members of the starting corps of major league clubs do not pitch more than twice a week in the first 15 days of training.

Joe Hatten has been on the hill but twice since camp opened; Ralph Branca has made three appearances and Preacher Roe has yet to take a turn.

The spindly lefthander, however, always takes his training in easy stages, mainly because he can little afford to lose weight.

Easterwood Extends Record to 29-2 Mark

The Easterwood Progressive AC won two more games over the week end when they edged the Horsemen, 39-37 in a Maryland AAAA League game on Saturday, and Sunday afternoon turned back the Annapolis Stags at the Richmond Market Armory, 61-54. These two victories give Easterwood a 29-2 record for the season.

The interracial five travels to Annapolis to meet the Stags, Friday, and Saturday the Coatesville Clippers will be met on the Coatesvile five's floor. On Sunday, Easterwood meets the highly regarded Richmond YMCA at the Richmond Market Armory at 4 p.m.

Hornets on Top

The South Side Hornets clinched the Second Half in the Junior League by beating the Red Skins, 24-21. Although the Skins put up a terrific struggle, the outcome was never in doubt. Shorter playing a well rouuded game came out of the game with top scoring honors.

Fountain Heads Win, Lose

The Fountain Heads defeated the Saints, 21-18, in one of the hardest fought games seen locally and returned to lose to the Sr. Stars, 22-6. In the first game it was too much Grant, who scored 10 points. Capt. Spady kept the Saints in the running with some timely shots and came out with 8 points. In the second game E. Thomas garnered top scoring honors with 10 points more than the entire opponents' score.

Jeffries Leaves Brooklyn Camp

VERO BEACH, Fla.—Sonny Jeffries, who claims he formerly pitched for the New York Black Yankees, of the old Negro National League, was cut off the roster of "free agents" here Tuesday morning.

Jeffries, a native of Rochester, N.Y., came to the Brooklyn Dodgers' training camp last week and asked for a tryout. He had made the trip to Florida as chauffeur for a private family.

Greg Mulleavy, manager of the Bums' Elmira (N.Y.) farm, and director of the "free agents" program, told the AFRO Jeffries "showed nothing."

Hampton Lose Cage Finale to Brown U.

HAMPTON, Va. (ANP)—Hampton lost an interracial game Saturday night to Brown University, 71-54, thus ending its season with a record of 9 victories and 11 defeats.

For the season Hampton had a CIAA record of 5 victories and 10 defeats. The loss to Brown was Hampton's first this season in non-league interracial competition.

Wins Popularity Test
Madera California Wines are the largest-selling wines in Maryland. More people ask for Madera Wines than any other wines. The reasons for this tremendous popularity can be found in the very first glass of Madera Wine you drink. You'll realize that, regardless of price, there is no finer California Wine on the market than Madera Wine. Yet, Madera Wine is yours to enjoy at a popular price. Huge volume and the last-word in modern bottling equipment enable us to sell Madera Wines at a popular price. So be sure to ask ... for Madera Wine. Y... at Madera Wi... cost so little.

Start Their Own Wine Pantry
Many smart hostesses have set up a wine-pantry, with a bottle or two of each of the Madera Wines in it. It's a bright idea, because it's so convenient, so practical, yet costs so little. For instance, for less than five dollars, you could set up a Madera wine-pantry containing two bottles of Madera Sherry, two bottles of Madera American Blackberry, and one bottle each of Madera Port and Madera Muscatel. Imagine that! For less than five dollars, you have a lovely wine selection to offer your guests. It makes entertaining so economical and you're almost certain to have on hand the type of wine your friends like most. Then, when you run low on any one kind, you just spend a few cents more, and your wine-pantry selection is up to par again. It's a very clever idea, one that's catching on all over town. Why don't you start your Madera wine-pantry today? It tastes so good . . . costs so little.
