Morgan to Give Dr. Julian Ph.D. at Commencement

Dr. Percy L. Julian, noted Chicago chemist, will be the Morgan State College commencement speaker on June 5, at the same time receiving an honorary doctorate degree in science presented by the college.

These actions were approved at the Morgan board meeting on Thursday.

Dr. Julian, son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Julian Sr., of 513 N. Schroeder St., Baltimore, already has an earned doctorate in philosophy. He was the 1948 winner of the NAACP Spingarn Medal and in January, he was honored as "Chicagoan of the Year," winning the title over 181 other nominees.

Developed Special Drugs

He won the scroll of merit for his development of drugs to fight arthritis and rheumatic fever. Dr. Julian is director of research and manager of the fine chemicals soya products division of the Glidden Paint Company.

In Chicago, he is a board member of Provident Hospital, of the Mandel Clinic at Michael Reese Hospital and is vice-chairman of the board of Roosevelt College.

3 Named to Staff

At the Morgan board meeting, the trustees also approved three new staff appointments: including that of J. Arnett Frisby Jr., as comptroller.

In this position, he will take over some of the office duties of James H. Carter, the college business manager.

The other appointments were those of Mrs. Gertrude F. Driggins, in a temporary post as graduate nurse; and Herbert S. Bevely, janitor.

Professor Calloway Honored

The trustees also voted to promote Milton S. Calloway, biology instructor for 24 years, to the rank of professor-emeritus, effective July 1. Mr. Calloway will reach retirement age on Apr. 1.

The board accepted the resignations of Miss Yvonne D. Lord, graduate nurse, and of Calvin Van L. Thomas, storekeeper. Both resigned to accept other positions.

Also approved was a sick leave policy for members of the faculty on the same proportional basis as for classified workers.

Funeral Mass Sung for Clinton Johnson

Clinton Johnson, 1322 Druid Hill Ave., uncle of Dr. James D. Carr, was hurried in the New Cathedral Cemetery on Friday, March 17, following a funeral mass sung at St. Peter Claver's Catholic Church.

Seventy-five years old, Mr. Johnson died on Tuesday, just 20 days after the death of his wife, Mollie Johnson to whom he had been married for 42 years.

Former Theatre Operator

The couple made their home with his cousin, Mrs. Lillie Hedgemon.

Mr. Johnson once conducted a moving picture establishment in the 1200 block Pennsylvania Ave. In addition to his cousin and nephew, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Jackson; and a niece, Miss Elizabeth Carr.

IN OUR CHURCHES

"Preachers should not only know the Bible but the history of the Bible," said the Rev. J. C. Beckett, pastor of Brown Memorial AME Church in Washington, who spoke at the AME Preacher's Meeting Monday on "Documents of the Bible."

The Bible, the Rev. Mr. Beckett pointed out, is a collection of 66 books written by different authors, at different times, from different points of view.

Old, New Testaments Differ

The 39 books in the Old Testament, he said, reflect the religious life of the Hebrews; and the 27 books in the New Testament reflect the early Christian movement.

The Bible, added the Rev. Mr. Beckett, is a means of collecting and recording Divine revelations in it he said may be found law, history, poetry and prophesy.

Church's History Discussed

The Methodist Ministers at their weekly meeting, Wednesday, took time out to discuss just what their church has been doing since its founding by John Wesley.

The Rev. M. M. Jefferson Jr., talking on Methodism, stated: "If you can't say that you know you have touched God you aren't a Methodist."

He also said that he felt that you couldn't teach religion because it was a personal thing which had to come as a revelation from God.

Clerics Oppose Envoy to Vatican

The civic committee of the Baltimore Methodist Preachers Meeting, Washington Conference, this week sent a telegram to President Truman urging him not to appoint an ambassador to the Vatican.

The telegram stated that such an appointment would tend to favor one religious group at the expense of another, make for religious strife and disregard the established custom of the separation of church and State.

The telegram was signed by the Rev. Kelly L. Jackson, committee chairman, the Rev. F. Frye, president, and the Rev. C. L. Le Grange.

New Baby Is an Honorary Girl Scout

Local Girl Scouts marked the 38th anniversary of the organization Sunday by adopting the first baby born that day in University Hospital. She is Marsha Lou Brooks, shown here with her mother, Mrs. Lena Brooks of 1042 Edmondson Ave. Giving the official welcome is Miss Aretha Jennings, executive director of District 8. At the age of seven, Marsha will be admitted to a Brownie troop.

OFF TO A GOOD START:

Lucky 6-Day-Old Girl Made Honorary Scout

Unlike hundreds of girls on the waiting list to become Girl Scouts, lucky little Marsha Lou Brooks, just six days old today (Friday) is already an honorary member.

Unusual? Well, it came about because the local Girl Scouts marked the 38th anniversary of the organization Sunday by adopting the first baby born that day at University Hospital. Marsha Lou checked in at 9:40 a.m., weighing six pounds 10½ ounces.

At the age of seven she is assured of a place in the Brownies, the youngest Girl Scout group. To make the arrangement official, Miss Aretha Jennings, new executive director of District 8, extended Marsha Lou a warm welcome Tuesday at the hospital.

The prospective Brownie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brooks of 1042 Edmondson Ave. She has a 15-month-old brother, Charles Jr.

The interesting life of a Girl Scout could be made available to many youngsters if there were leaders to take charge of them. Persons interested in becoming leaders should call Girl Scout Headquarters, 14 W. Chase St., MUlberry 1122.

Leaders should be over 21 years old, assistant leaders over 18. Also needed are volunteers to assist with special craft, recreation and music program.
