HAPPY FAMILY ... They enjoy life together, enjoy better food at lower cost with Pet Milk.

Good Start! No sleepyheads at the Sartor house . . . Stephanie and Luther, Jr., are wideawake and ready for breakfast of cereal with Pet Milk

The Pet Milk Photographer Visits the LUTHER H. SARTOR FAMILY of New Orleans, La.

All four Sartors are busy people—father teaches elementary school science, mother teaches first grade, 5-year-old Luther, Jr., is in first grade, 3-year-old Stephanie goes to nursery school. But evenings, week ends, vacations, the Sartors have fun together—whether it's just singing and reading at home, a Saturday afternoon game, or a fishing trip.

Everyone pitches in to help with housework, but Gladys Sartor, who loves to cook, takes care of that important job—and meals include plenty of milk-rich dishes made with Pet Evaporated Milk. Gladys uses Pet Milk undiluted for soups, sauces, desserts, mixes it half-and-half with water for other cooking and baking, and saves money, too—because Pet Milk costs less generally than any other form of milk.

"We cook!" . . . Stephanie lends a hand while mother makes one of family's favorite whipped Pet Milk desserts. Sartors enjoy these desserts often because Pet Milk costs less than half as much as cream.

All Together! . . . Best part of the day for this happy Pet Milk family, Gladys and Luther love music, children like it, too—but they'd "rather hear mother and daddy sing."

Two's Company . . . If homework gets too hard for brother, Stephanie's ready to help. Bright, alert, both Sartor youngsters were Pet Milk babies.
