LENNY PEARSON TO MANAGE ELITE GIANTS

Sonny Boy West, Angott

Sammy Angott, former world lightweight champion, and Sonny Boy West, who has high hopes of being the next to wear the crown, collide Monday night at the Coliseum in the ten-round feature.

The pairing is a rematch of a rumpus Sammy and Sonny fought just two months ago in the Monroe St. arena that was both an artistic and financial success. Young West's first venture into such fast company drew the largest local gate in more than a year and the scrappers responded to the outpouring of fans by blazing away through the full ten heats to a rousing draw.

The match was immediately put back in for a return bout, but a postponement was forced when Angott and his manager, Jack Laken, were hurt in an auto crash en route to Baltimore.

West Anxious

As for West, the youthful Washington star several weeks ago took a flying leap right into the front rank of the lightweight class. Sonny got his first chance at a Madison Square Garden assignment against the top man of the division—Champion Ike Williams.

Vet Infielder Succeeds Hoss Walker as Pilot

NAL Champions to Begin Training Drills at Gastonia, N.C., April 3; Here April 30

Lenny Pearson, slugging first-baseman, of the Baltimore Elite Giants, Thursday, was named team manager for 1950, succeeding the veteran Jesse (Hoss) Walker.

Announcement of Pearson's appointment to lead the 1949 Negro American League champions was made by Business Manager Dick Powell, who said Walker, who led the Elites to their first title since 1939, has become owner and manager of the Nashville Cubs.

Powell also announced that the Elites would begin spring training on April 3 at Gastonia, N.C.

Need New Infielder

Pearson's biggest task as the new skipper will be to come up with a replacement for Junior Gilliam, stellar second baseman, sold to the Chicago Cubs of the National League. Several infielder prospects have been added to the squad in hopes that one can fill the bill at second.

Floyd Darden, a 6 feet 2 inch, 198-pounder, who hits from the left side has the inside track at this time. He is from Snow Hill, N.C.

Other youngsters out to snare jobs from some of the veteran performers are: pitchers, Robert Preston of New York; Lefty Whitfield, Fayetteville, N.C., Hank Mainor, Norfolk, Va., and Lefty Kelly, Nashville, Tenn.; catchers, Thad Anthony and William Saunders; infielders, Darden, Alvin Green, a Baltimorean, Buddy Fleming, Richmond, Va.; outfielders, Alfred Henry and Dave Green, Portsmouth, Va.

All players, except Dave Green 27 years old and Thad Anthony, 25, range from 17 to 23 years of age.

Veterans Back

Among the returning vets who have signed contracts are: Pee wee Butts, Alfred Wilmore, Joe Black, Frazier Robinson, Johnny Hayes, Ed Finney and Silvester Rodgers. Henry Kimbro and Bill Byrd have talked matters over and seem pleased.

Leon Day, Butch Davis and Butch McCord have received contracts or been contacted.

The Elites will play their first exhibition Easter Monday, April 10, against the Spartanburg Sluggers, on the South Carolinas' home lot. After a series of games in North Carolina, the Elites return to their new home at Westport Park, which has undergone complete renovation to meet the Indianapolis Clowns in an exhibition game April 30. They open the 1950 Negro American League campaign against the Philadelphia Stars in a double bill on May 7.

Y Boxing Group at Video Program

Television station WAAM, Channel 13, will present Isaiah White, William Grant and the Druid Hill Avenue YMCA boxing group, Saturday, March 18, at 3:30 p.m.

Mr White, a member of the Health and Physical Education Committee, is begining his third year as boxing instructor at the "Y." As a physical education specialist in the Navy from 1944-1946 he taught boxing and judo. He is a teacher at the Francis M. Wood Public School.

As a member of the faculty, he assumes the responsibility for all extra-curricular activities in athletics. His favorite sport is baseball and during the 1950 baseball season he will be playing for the Baltimore Panthers, a semi-pro baseball club.

Regular Classes

Mr. Grant, who is active in the athletic program of the "Y," has been assisting Mr. White with the boxing program. Mr. Grant gained a great deal of experience in boxing while serving as a member of the armed forces.

Individuals interested in boxing are invited to join the group already attending the boxing classes on Thursdays from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., and Fridays from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Techawks Boast Unbeaten Record

Win Junior Title in 450 Night Loop

The Northwest Police Boys Club won the Intermediate basketball championship at P. S. No. 450 Night Center, winning 9 out of 10 games.

The Techawks, playing in the Junior Division, captured the title with a perfect record. Both teams will represent the Center in the city-wide tournament to be held during the week beginning March 20.

At the close of the season teams and managers voted for the outstanding players of the season to form an all-star team, with the following results:

INTERMEDIATE— L. Plater, Police Boys Club, and F. Evans, Renegades, forwards; J. Woodson, Eagles A. C., center; J. Thomas, Police Boys Club, and T. Washington, Eagles A. C., guards.

JUNIOR— M. Scott, Warriors, and M. Willis, Hawks A.C., forwards; E. Tilghman, S.P.C. 49th, center; L. Garvins, Techawks, and J. Ennis Techawks, guards.

20 Teams to Compete

Twenty basketball teams will compete in midget, junior and intermediate divisions for the Center Playground championship starting Monday. The midget tournament with six teams will be played at No. 133 with Frank Gordon as leader-in-charge.

The eight junior teams will play at No. 450 under Edgar Contee on a double elimination basis. Awards will be given the champion in each division.

Bankhead Checks in Dodger Camp

Discloses Birth of Seven-Pound Son

DODGER TOWN, VERO BEACH, Fla. — The Brooklyn Dodgers tan trio became a quartet late Tuesday afternoon when Dan Bankhead drove in from Miami.

Arrival of the slender fast-baller from San Juan, Puerto Rico, had been expected since Sunday. He told the AFRO he left San Juan shortly after noon on Monday, reached Miami at 5 p.m. and spent Monday night there.

Bankhead picked up his car at Miami and drove the rest of the way to Vero Beach. The hurler told the AFRO that a baby boy was born to his wife, Linda, at Presbyterian Hospital, Santurce, on March 2. The little fellow, third child for the couple, weighed seven pounds.

The Bankheads' other two children, Wallulah, 11, and Daniel, age one, are with their mother, still ailing in Caguas. The older daughter is attending school there.

Manager Burt Shotton plans to put Dan Bankhead to work immediately. The Dodger skipper told the lean right-hander he is to take the mound against the New York Yankees at Miami Friday night.

Slender Dan won 10 games against eight losses for the pennant-winning Caguas nine. He also pitched on the all star team representing Puerto Rico in the Caribbean World Series. — LACY.

Tight Ring Battle Looms for AAU Championship

Seven fighters representing the Northwestern Police Boys Club will be in action in the semi-finals of the South Atlantic Association AAU boxing championships this week end at Baltimore Gardens. The semi-finals are slated for tonight (Friday, March 17) and Saturday, March 18, with the finals set for Saturday night, March 25.

Northwestern expects to make a determined bid for the team championship against the favored Ringside Athletic Club and the Baltimore Athletic Association, each of which is sending seven boxers into the semi-finals.

Fort Meade also has a seven-man representation in the semi-final round, but the soldier club may be handicapped inasmuch as two of the Meade mittmen are boxing unattached and any points registered by them will not count in the team totals.

Five in Open Class

Carrying the colors for the Northwestern PBC will be Henry Thompson and Ralph McConnell, 147-pound class; Lloyd Wilson, heavyweight; Ernest Lindsay, 175-pound, and Nathaniel Cornelius, 135-pound class, all open events.

Two Northwestern boys, Sidney Brewer, 118, and Leo Gross, 175, will compete in the novice division.

Battling for the Baltimore A.C. will be Gene Butler, 126; Al Bell, 160; Lawrence Barrott, 112, and Willie Clark, 126, all open division; Tommie Dorsey, 126; Clifton Thomas, 175, and Kenny Johnson, heavyweight, all novice class.

Clark, in the 126-pound class, is regarded as a tough opponent and may prove troublesome. He has lost only one bout in 21 and that to Elmer Barksdale, the Ringside A.C. favorite in the division.

Meade in 7 Wins

Fort Meade boxers were featured in a total of nine bouts last Friday and Saturday nights and turned in seven wins against two losses. Two of the victories were scored by men fighting unattached.

The Fort Meade team currently ranks second in the scoring with five points and is trailing the leading Ringside A.C. team by two points.

Pfc. Bob Phares, who twice has won the Second Army heavyweight crown, gave the fans a real treat on Saturday night when he decisioned highly favored Jesse Manigault, of Northwestern Police Boys Club.

Grandma's Recipe

Another Madera Wine that is winning more and more friends every day is Madera American Blackberry Wine. This is truly an old-time treat, full of the good, rich, blackberry flavor that Grandma's used to have. Only the plumpest, juiciest Oregon blackberries are fine enough for use in Madera American Blackberry Wine. To bring out every last bit of the blackberry bouquet, extra sugar is added. Every sip of this wine will bring back memories . . . memories of the good old days when no home was complete without a bottle or two of blackberry wine. An old recipe is the secret behind the wonderful flavor of this wine. This recipe is followed carefully, step by step. If ever you knew the pleasure there was in a glass of Grandma's own-make wine, you'll find it again in Madera American Blackberry Wine. It costs so little . . . tastes so good!

Wins Popularity Test

Madera California Wines are the largest-selling wines in Maryland. More people ask for Madera Wines than any other wines. The reasons for this tremendous popularity can be found in the very first glass of Madera Wine you drink. You'll realize that, regardless of price, there is no finer California Wine on the market than Madera Wine. Yet, Madera Wine is yours to enjoy at a popular price. Huge volume and the last-word in modern bottling equipment enable us to sell Madera Wines at a popular price. So, be sure to ask your dealer for Madera Wine. You, too, will agree that Madera Wines taste so good, yet cost so little.

Wines Through The Centuries

Wine has played a part in everyday living for as far back as man's memory goes. Plutarch and Plato, Shakespeare and Kipling, Dickens and Milton, Jonathan Swift and Benjamin Franklin are among the host of famous poets, writers and statesmen whose thoughts on the virtues of wine live with us today.

Sherry Big Favorite

Take Madera Pure California Sherry, for example. This is the most versatile bottle of wine you could have in your home. It is the most popular wine of all, because it can be served in so many ways. Madera Sherry is delicious with appetizers before dinner, or with sandwiches, cakes or cookies at any time.

Madera Bonded Wine & Liquor Company, Baltimore, Maryland

No Special Glasses Needed

It's the taste of the wine . . . not the glass it's in . . . that counts most. Madera California Wines taste good from any glass. Even a water tumbler is "correct" glassware in which to serve it. Pour your wine right from the bottle, too. When you serve Madera Pure California Wines, you're serving California's finest, made from fresh, sun-ripened grapes, matured until ... and completely ... don't worry about ... be sure to serve ... may be sure your ... Madera Wines ... cost so little.

...eir Own Pantry

...esses have set ...th a bottle or ... Madera Wines ..., because it's ...ical, yet costs ... for less than ...d set up a ...taining two ...rry, two ... Black-...

The choicest of these fine, fresh grapes go into the making of Madera Pure California Wines, the wines that are preferred by more Maryland families than any other brand. They taste so good . . . cost so little!

Champ Crusaders Play D.C. Indians

The Crusaders of South Baltimore, Baltimore's City intermediate champions, will meet the Indians of Washington, D. C., in a play-off game for the Baltimore-Washington Intercity Championship today (Friday, March 17) at 8:15 p.m. in the Lexington Recreation Center, 732 W. Lexington St.

Coach Dick Brown's local champions have a record of 13 games won and one loss. They will face a strong opponent in the Indians who have won 14 games while losing only one game. The similarity in records indicates that a real treat is in store for spectators as these teams go all out to cop the intercity title.

The game will initiate a series of championship play-offs in various sports with Washington representatives.

Jackie, Reese Test 'Automatic Umpire'

VERO BEACH, Fla.—Because of his unusually keen batting eye, Jackie Robinson was one of three Brooklyn regulars to test the new strike zone machine—the "automatic 'umpire'"— when it was put into use here Tuesday afternoon.

The other Dodgers used in the demonstration were Pee Wee Reese and Duke Snider. Reese, like Robbie, is regarded as one of the best judges of pitches on the Flatbush roster. Snider is being taught to refrain from swinging at bad balls, a fault which made him look very bad in the World Series last fall.

MONUMENTAL LEAGUE:

Spartans Capture City Basketball Championship

Spartans A.C. won the City Recreation championship by defeating the Horsemen A.C., in a crucial second round game, 44-36 last Thursday at Douglass High.

Unbeaten in Monumental Unlimited League play all season, the undefeated Spartans wound up the second half with six wins after taking the first half championship with seven wins and no losses.

To win, the Spartans had to turn back two previously unbeaten teams, the YMCA Phalanx and the Horsemen in successive games in the same week. After breezing past the "Y" entry, the city champions were forced to the limit to overcome the rugged Horsemen. Roosevelt Lewis sparked the Spartans to victory with some splendid pivot work and a 16-point total.

The Spartans will receive the Bureau of Recreation's 24-inch Unlimited Championship trophy at Sports Award Night festivities early in April. The victors also won the right to meet the City Recreation Champions of Washington, D.C., in an intercity championship playoff game scheduled for Friday, March 24, 8:15 p.m., at Lexington Recreation Center gymnasium.

Members of the city's top unlimited team are James Wilson, Alexander Thomas, John Irving Brown, Howard McAdroy, Howard Williams, Roosevelt Lewis, Allen Anderson, Charles Wright, Joseph Kelly and Robert Douglass. James Franklin is player-coach and Linwood Stevens, manager.

The Spartans, known on the road as the Clippers, also own an impressive record in non-league games.

In the final league game for both teams, the Trotters of Cherry Hill humbled the Westside Eagles in a nip and tuck contest, 38-36, at Lexington Center. James Mason, top Trotter scorer for the season, sparked the victory with 16 tallies.

Dick Lunn, Eagles' big gun, was held to 9 points. The win gave the Trotters a tie in the final standings with the Eagles and Post Office.

Trinity Scores Upset

The Trinity Terrapins upset the top-seeded city Intermediate champion Crusaders, 34-33, in a thriller at Douglass High gym, Thursday. Led by Aaron Johnson's 19-point performance, the Terrapins rallied in the last eight minutes to overcome a 10-point half-time deficit and edge the champions. Haywood Hamm got 10 points for the Crusaders.

231st Battalion, Easterwoods Vie

A red hot rivalry will come to the boiling point Sunday afternoon at the Richmond Market Armory at 5:30 p.m. when the Easterwood A.C. clashes with the 231st Battalion for the independent basketball championship.

Coach Jesse Peaker of the 231st Battalion has two outstanding shooters in Harvey Brown, flashy forward, who is the team's leading scorer, and set-shot artist Pete Wilson. Brown scored 32 points in last Sunday's game against the Crusaders. Wilson has been a standout for the National Guardsmen.

Howard Williams, 231st Battalion center, will play off the pivot and Joe Hill and Alvino Taliaferro, round out the first five. The season record for the 231st Battalion is 16-3.

Won 22 Straight

The interracial five, coached by Phil Boyer, has had a terrific season, winning 22 straight before they were nosed out by the Philadelphia Blazers, 64-62, then won four more and dropped a 50-43 decision to Hagerstown. The overall record for the kelly-green and gold five is 31-2.

In the preliminary, the Baltimore Clippers will play the Philadelphia Central Stars at 4 p.m.

Greenway Hawks Hold Initial Drill Sunday

The Greenway Hawks baseball team will hold its first practice of the season (weather permitting) Sunday, March 19. All members and interested players should contact the business manager.

The Hawks would like to book games with strong semi-pro teams in Maryland, Washington, Virginia Delaware Pennsylvania and New York. William H. Logan, Bus. Mgr., 2228 Barclay St., Baltimore, is in charge.

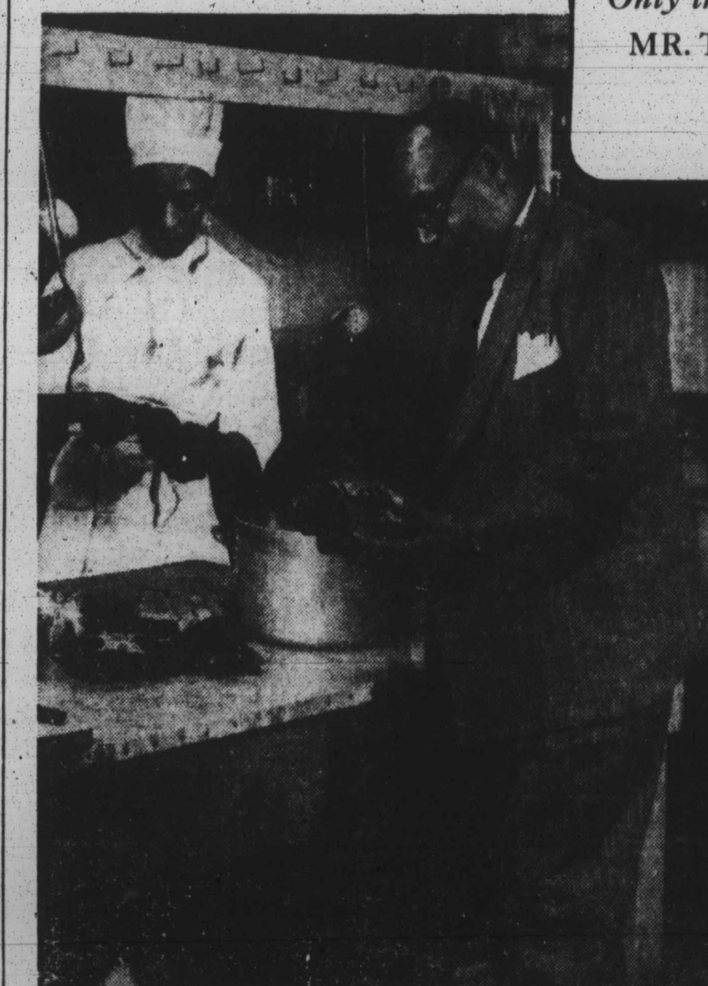
Only the finest is fine enough for MR. T. RANDOLPH WATERS one of America's great caterers



Mr. Waters expertly appraises a pair of diamond-back terrapin . . . the kind that chefs in his $250,000 catering establishment have made internationally famous. Prepared "a la Maryland", diamond-backs like these are shipped all over the world. Among Mr. Waters' patrons are members of Europe's royal families.

As one of the nation's foremost caterers, Mr. Waters is often asked for his professional advice on "what whiskey to serve?" Naturally, Mr. Waters is acquainted with all the leading brands. The one he personally recommends is Seagram's 7 Crown. He considers it the first American whiskey for superb taste and always-perfect quality.
