Cardozo Favored to Cop Track Title for 4th Time

WASHINGTON

A powerhouse in two major outdoor performances this season, Cardozo thinclads are a heavy favorite to cop the South Atlantic Conference High School track and field championship for the fourth straight year, Saturday, at Howard University Stadium.

The Clerks, after bowling over opposition in the city championship and CIAA meet, are set for a grand slam in their final scholastic meet. The 16-card program will begin at 10 a.m. with trial heats to be run off in the morning. Finals events are expected to get under way shortly after noon.

Cardozo, expecting its keenest opposition from Armstrong and Phelps, who have finished in that order in the city and CIAA championships, is primed for its best showing in recent years.

Gifted with perhaps the greatest array of talented athletes assembled at one time under one banner, Cardozo is shooting for an all-time performance in running events.

With this meet seven sturdy Cardozo lads will bow out of the scholastic ranks, and the Clerks' dominance as a track power is predicted to go with them.

AFRO Bombers DPR League Baseball Threat

Boy Wins Television Set at Little Theatre

Calvin Parker won a television set at the second performance of "Spring Party" by the Little Folks Theatre at the Regent, Saturday, as more than 700 children watched the performance.

The group, composed of some 100 children under the direction of Miss Ann Mercer, has been presenting its musical show at the Beauticians Trade Exhibit at the Armory. The children in its show range in age from 2 to 17 years.

AFRO Bombers Score 11-5 Win Over Watchmakers

With an 11-5 win over Morgan School of Watchmaking Sunday, the AFRO Bombers softballers loom as a threat in the Department of Recreation's Industrial-Trade School League.

In the opening frame, the Watchmakers set up a 3-run lead and tallied two more in the third. The Bressmen, however, scored four tallies in their first inning to establish a lead, which was never relinquished.

Roundtrippers were clouted by the AFRO's hard-hitting shortstop, George Lee, and pitcher Leon Brown.

The game, called to a close in the bottom of the sixth due to a league time limit ruling, came to an exciting double-play finish. The Watchmakers had loaded the bases when M. Griffith smashed a sizzling grounder to shortstop Lee who scooped it up, stepped on second to wonze the runner out then pegged to firstbaseman Scotty Gross in time to nip the batter, retiring the side.

The Bombers used two pitchers, Gross and Brown, and the Watchmakers Ringgold, Chase and Griffith. The win was the third in four starts this season for the Bombers who expect a nip and tuck scrap with the Tailoring Institute at 11 a.m., Sunday at Druid Hill Park enclosure, near the tennis courts.

Moore-Lee Card Monday Promises Heated Action

Odell Hayes, Clever Loeal Boy, Makes Debut at Coliseum in One of Preliminaries

Another local amateur champ has been added to the show of the Garden Athletic Club when it presents Bobby Lee and Terry Moore in its first show Monday night at the Coliseum.

This time Odell Hayes, a product of the Northwestern Police Boys Club, who has been cutting such a swath in the amateur ranks, will turn professional against Johnny Clemens. Odell, now a stablemate of Terry Moore, has been working out with Terry for this, the most important bout in the career of each.

Odell is out for his pro win and Terry is hoping the Southern welterweight title and the trophy that goes to the winner.

Of course, Bobby Lee also has his eyes on this title and will offer plenty of opposition in Terry's path.

Gene Gunther tries to erase a defeat at the hands of Billy Cofield in the six-round semi-final and will have his work cut out for him as Billy is intent on making it two wins in a row over Gene.

With Elmer Barksdale, the local and AAU champ, making his pro debut against Dave Jacobs, the champ from Washington, plenty of action should be dished up.

Two other four-rounders will be added to this show with a total of 32 rounds of boxing on tap.

The complete show:

Terry Moore vs. Bobby Lee, 10 rds.
Gene Gunther vs. Billy Cofield, 6 rds.
Elmer Barksdale vs. Dave Jacobs, 4 rds.
George Walker vs. Lester Reed, 4 rds.
Damion Humes vs. Billy Richardson, 4 rds.
Odell Hayes vs. Johnny Clinton, 4 rds.

Monumentals Underway, Intermediates Start Sat.

Five games were played last Sunday in the Bureau of Recreation's Monumental, Baseball League.

Defending champion Dolphin A.C. notched its second victory by turning back Eastside C.C., 10 to 8, in a hard-fought contest at Clifton Park. Cubra A.C. scored 12 runs in the first three innings as they copped a 15 to 10 win from the improved Bluebirds.

Barber Institute scored six runs in a big six inning as they beat the Arundels from East Baltimore, 14 to 8. Social Security hit a season's high of 20 runs as they swamped the Westside Royals, 20 to 4. Post Office upset the strong Westside Eagles, 7 to 6, but forfeited to the Eagles by using ineligible players.

Doby Bats in 6 Runs to Top Tribe's 15-4 Win Over A's

CLEVELAND — Larry Doby's potent bat drove six runs with a grand-slam homer, a triple and a single Tuesday night to give the Cleveland Indians to a 15-4 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The star centerfielder was at bat five times and was walked once by Alex Kelinor who held the Tribe scoreless for the first four innings.

First-baseman Luke Easter had a perfect day at bat with three hits in three times at the plate and scored a run.

The Tribe collected 20 hits off four Philadelphia pitchers. Early winning pitcher, gave up five hits.

Bill Cash, Stars' Catcher, Jumps to Mexican Loop

The number of Philadelphia Stars' players who have jumped to the Mexican League this year mounted to five last week.

The latest to take the leap is Bill Cash, veteran catcher who deserted the local Negro American League entry without notice.

His action did not become known until he failed to join the team on Thursday for its current swing.

In going to Mexico, the 31-year-old Cash joins four Stars' pitchers who jumped the team before the season opened. They are Barney Brown, Bill Griffith, Henry Miller and Joe Filmore.

Ed Bolden, president of the Stars, was surprised at Cash's departure, but he said he believes a telegram the big catcher received in Baltimore on opening day asked him to come south of the border.

7 Years With Stars

Cash, a 190-pounder, completed seven seasons with the Stars, whom he joined after attracting widespread attention as a backstop on the Overbrook High School team.

He was considered to be one of the best catchers in colored baseball and was scouted last season by the Boston Braves.

The Braves' ivory-busters were reportedly conducted himself behind the plate, but balked at having him signed by the major league team because of his inconsistent hitting.

In his years with the Stars, Cash never hit more than .289, a mark he attained in 1948. However, he twice played in the East-West game.

Bolden, although admitting that his team has been hard hit by the jumpers, said he is confident that the Stars will make a good showing this season.

He said many persons who saw the team her on May 8, compare it to the Phillies, which is one of the hottest major league teams.

Ex-Generals Help Leonardtown Score

WASHINGTON

Leonardtown Yanks, with three ex-Armstrong players in the line-up, trounced the Charlotte Hall of trouble in the ninth after loading the attack with two hits in three Bombers, 11-8, Sunday on the losing the bases. He fanned two trips to the plate while Elmer ers, ground- and forced the last batter to pop Brown's spectacular running Charles Robinson, on the mound up to retire the side. catches in the field gave Robinson for the Yanks, hurled himself out. Catcher Sinclair Brooks paced on the support he needed.

Mr. Boh wins in a breeze!

1 The Derby was over, the Preakness was nigh. And "Boh" the jockey was riding on high.
2 "I'll win," said Boh, as he came to the post. But at the first turn he was trailing most.
3 As he came down the stretch, he turned on the heat. And the nation's best were the horses he beat.
4 Said Boh to the crowd as they let out a cheer, "I hurried for National Bohemian Beer!"
5 If you want to know why folks race to their dealers— Ask the man who just drank one (of these "taste appealers"!)
