FOWLER TWINS* CHEER DOUBLE VALUE!

*Woodrow and Odell Fowler, of New York City

Both "Men who Care"... Both say "CARSTAIRS"

THESE twins have similar looks and similar tastes—that's why they both say Carstairs when they want an occasional drink.

They've found that Carstairs offers them a great double value—premium flavor at a popular price.

If your taste is similar to thousands of others... you, too, will enjoy Carstairs. It's rich yet light, mild yet hearty... the perfectly balanced blend.

So... as a Man who Cares... why don't you get acquainted with Carstairs yourself today?

CREDIT WHERE CREDIT IS DUE—Following a recent suggestion to the Bureau of Music by this writer that the municipally-sponsored bands be presented in concerts at City Hospitals, a note from Earl F. Forman, superintendent of the Bureau of Music, said: "In keeping with the suggestion, the No. 2 Park Band, conducted by Charles E. Gwynn, will provide an evening of delightful music tonight (Friday) for the people of this hospital."

E. B. Rea

The Special Policeman, who went berserk this week on the Avenue and attempted to blackjack a regular officer, is in no way connected with Wendell P. Miller's corps of special and private police. "He is not connected with our organization in any way. I don't even know him," Mr. Miller told this writer on Wednesday. "My men are well trained and know their authority. In fact, they are so well trained that they are never called in for questioning about bad conduct," he added.

The Millermen work under an organization known as Wendell P. Miller, Special and Private Police. The group is responsible to Capt. William Frehley of Northwestern. It's an independent working group since the city mak'es no provisions for their maintenance. However, they have the services of a lawyer, who acquaints them with the law, and invite ranking officers from Northwestern to address their weekly meetings.

The group waf highly praised last week by Sergeant Scheimm of the Central District for the manner in which they handled boat excursion fans around Pier 16, when afternoon times number between 1000 and 1200 people. Their work along the Avenue and in other sections has been highly commended and respected.

GEORGE P. MAHONEY, who goes down in this column as Maryland's next Democratig, Governor, sounded one of his strongest keynotes on Tuesday at Ocean City when he strongly attacked political bossism.

Personally speaking, George P. Mahoney is the first politicj aspirant this State has produced in the last decade that this writer has taken with more than "a grain of salt." His revelations of State matters are so factual that they are frightening. His campaign issue is thought-provoking, even to the "bosses" and their "vote-sellers."

BERT BROWN, lady of affairs at the suburban Hilltop Supper Club; Florence Smothers and Bernice Cohen, Club Orleans; Mary Ann Foley, Du Drop Inn, dining at the new Rice Inn, 1300 block Pennsylvania Ave., where Smith and Low prove perfect hosts. Bert says when you feel like going suburban, drop in at the Hilltop.

COMING EVENTS — Errol Garner and his Trio will be the Sunday attraction at Sparrow's Beach, Annapolis, with Billie Holiday and the Gerald Wilson orchestra at Carr's Beach on Sunday... Baltimore's top entertainment featured all in the gay midnight show, tonight, on stage at the Met Theatre when Michael Abraham will present some of the country's top entertainers, and Johnny Sparrow's Bow and Arrows will beat out the music.

IF I KNEW YOU WERE COMING — Jacqueline Dogan of New York City, home for a visit with her parents, the Alexander Dogans (Florence) of 2029 McCulloh St. Also from NYC and Atlantic City—is Mrs. Georgia Robinson, who's visiting relatives, Doretha Robinson and Leha Scott of 519 Sanford Pl.

FORTUNE SMILED on Charlie Brown of 1625 N. Fulton Ave., who clipped a picture of Geneva Brooks, poet and Pulitzer Prize winner, from the AFRO and sent it to the "Double or Nothing" program on WBAL — Nobody could identify Miss Brooks on the program, so Charlie received a check from the station for $10!

CHARLIE TILGHMAN reporting Chester (Woo-Woo) Lee on the Sphinx's missing list . . . aboard the Robert E. Lee on the 28th. Bobby Johnson's combo will swing with the swaying waves.

GOP GANDERINGS — The Metropolitan GOP Club (hasn't as yet, but) will endorse and support Linwood Kegerr Sr., for the State Senate. The club will meander to Catonsville, Sunday, Aug. 20, to discuss important issues over a seafood dinner and come up with more endorsements, but not Mc-Keldin.

THE EIGHT OUNCE BOYS Club lists a bus trip to Asbury Park, N.J., on July 2. John Curtis is president; Howard Gross, business manager; and William Loggins, secretary. Sam Shaffer's newly-renovated tavern, 3702-4 Pennsylvania Ave. at Lanvale St., will hold its grand opening on Wednesday, June 28. The spot now boasts a highly-decorated Rainbow Room, where live music can be heard on week ends. It's the smartest looking spot on the Lower Stroll.

THAT'S ALL TIME AND SPACE will allow. I'll B Ceeing U next week at the same time.
