Grup May Sue to Have City-Owned Park Opened

Sees Real Integration as Our Pilots Fly

ives of Soldier Wounded in Korea

Read the Government of e hich listed Pfc. Leroy Jones of 616 Warner St., Baltimore mong the wounderA leian soldiers in the Korean fighting are his brother, Willie S. ones, left, and fater Mon Jones.

to Open Park

Families Rejected

at Fort Smallwood

bers the days of rationing?

Hugh Korea

Let Discloses Hov

Tro Jin Korea Fee

Army in C. 1947 A bro- Hits Golfers

Influence Trend the Europe Pacific theate. Mount Plesant golf course during Jone cision to volt- the week Aug. 15, because of an invitations open meet there, they Spark Endless Chain would will be barred under rules year he was shipped of the gency sponsoring the Who is to blame for hoarding? (Continued on Page 2)

CHT-CHAT

Sollights in Korea,

ed about or boy Lavrence in the AFRO. Tuesday?

head start?

BALTIMORE AFRO AMERICAN PAGES

59th Year, No. 2

BALTIMORE, MD., AUGUST 12, 1950

10c IN BALTIMORE; 12c ELSEWHERE

101 Alone, Dies in Fire

Integration a Fact as We Fight Koreans

Morale High in Air Corps, Which Boasts of 'Hot' Tan Pilots' Deeds By JAMES L. HICKS

War Correspondent for the Afro-American (Copyright 1950-Reproduction in whole or in part forbidden) B-U-L-L-E-T-I-N

WITH 24TH INFANTRY REGIMENT SOUTH KOREA — The 24th Infantry Regiment was ordered to the front Friday to check an enemy battalion threatening to cut the American drive near Pungangni. Elements of the 24th met and killed an enemy patrol with their faces blackened, in an effort to resemble Tan Yanks. One enemy with two Russian machine guns surrendered to Cpl. Ora Mitchel, 904 E. 10th St., Austin, Tex. Six others later surrendered without a fight.

-HICKS. SOMEWHERE IN KOREA — Over here in South Korea the war correspondents spell racial Group May Sue South Korea the war correspondents spell racial integration with two words—Air Corps—and no one here will challenge their right to spell it that

The Air Corps has simply complied with the instructions of the President to the letter of the law in making colored and white GI's American soldiers and the great results which it has achieved is one of the main reasons why embattered U. S. SOMEWHERE IN KORE the Fort Smallwood Amuse forces are still able to cling to even a foothold in the American soldier injured in the fighting on the battlefront. ment Park, Thursday, a beach rugged South Korean fighting.

party has threatened to file City Park done in such a way that you're made to feel that the When the group attempted to Air Corps is saying "This is the way we've wa purchase tickets for admittance to to do it all the time." the bath house at the park, the

You arrive at an air base somewhere in Korea. The cashier refused to accept their money, stating that, "We don't sell chances are that you were brought safely to the ground by a (Continued on Page 2)

Injured GI Gets Welcome Aid in Korea

You see it everywhere you turn and it's being 47 Clean Blocks Vying for 1st Prize in Campaign

Some 47 top blocks have stacked west, South and East Baltimore their claim to the $100 first prize revealed on Tuesday and Wednesin the 16th annual AFRO Clean day of "A Plus" on these tours before final inspection

Gertrude Neale and Mrs. today (Friday) from second1700 Dallas St., 200 Durham, degree burns of the body.

42 Others Rated "A" points ahead of the other 42 blocks ber to take the child with her. which also received a rring of

(Continue on Paille

award a prize $5.

Korea Mail

Baby Alone,

Mother Dashes Off to Sound Alarm

A six-week-old baby boy, found alone in a flame-swept The best blocks in the city now, house at 1416 N. Fulton Ave., ding to clean block managers, Thursday morning died early

O Abbott St. and 1600 Barnes. The youngster, who succumbed at Provident Hospital is Levi P. Smith, son, of Mrs. Phoenicia However, this is no indication Smith who, police said, fled the the ton building to turn in the fire alarm, prizes, for they are only a few apparently too excited to remem-Found Baby in Cellar

Officer Alexander Malone of the Radio Police and firemen re-(Continued on page 25, information received IS IKE WILLIST NS SLIPPING?

Champ Should Remain

Lightweight, Fans Say

WASHINGTON What's wrong with Ike Williams? Hailed as one of the best lightweighte an wears with aly Henry Armstrong as an exception reversals in recent weeks pose

Is it the housewife, who rememthe retail grocer, so often labeled grocer, who ups his prices before in emergency or shortage for a

3 Principals Leave