'New Deal'

NEW YORK—Colored" performers gained a signal victory in TV recently, when the powerful Television Authority met in its first annual convention at the Park Sheraton Hotel here.

Television Authority, which is a "contendership" set up by the entertainment unions to maintain jurisdiction in the television industry and protect working conditions of performers until a merger of some, or all, entertainment unions is effected, has not yet set up a Constitution by which it will operate.

Nevertheless, when this does occur, the Authority will be legally bound to outlaw all forms of discrimination in the hiring of performers.

This fact was accomplished by several astute and wide awake colored TVA Board members and delegates-at-large, to the convention who made their presence felt throughout the convention proceedings.

They succeeded in pushing through a resolution which stated, "that in any constitution covering television, a provision shall be made to the effect that there shall be no discrimination in the hiring of performers by reason of race, color or creed, and that it be made one of the bargaining points in the coming negotiations," (with network and sponsors).

Boss Skips; Show Slips

Performers Unpaid, 'Sugar Hill' Closed

NEW YORK. — The Sugar Hill nite club, Broadway's hottest spot failed to open its doors for day after one of the partners allegedly picked up the weekly receipts and went home to Philadelphia without meeting the Sunday payroll.

More than 100 persons employed in the Larry Steele show and in service capacities were affected.

According to one source, Izzy Bushkoff, one of the partners in the club, collected the weekly receipts Saturday night and did not show up with the payroll Sunday.

It was stated that on Monday when this was called to the attention of the American Guild of Variety Artists, the organization ordered the performers not to appear Monday and the club was closed. Attempts to get the club reopened closed although efforts were being made to open it for the holiday business.

It was reported that though the club had been doing a good business, much of the profits were being absorbed by the debts of the old China Doll, a nightclub formerly located at the 53rd St. spot, and under whose license the Sugar Hill Club was said to be operating.

Mr. Steele's "Smart Affairs" show was scheduled to leave the "Sugar Hill" the first of the year for a tour of the country and then London's Palladium.

Helped Stage Hit Production at L. U.

Broadway star Ruby Dee played the leading role in "John Loves Mary," presented recently at Lincoln University with other theatre personalities assisting. Left to right, Abram (Abe) Hill, playwright-producer; Miss Dee; Lloyd Biggs, of Philadelphia, who played the leading male role, and J. Newton Hill, Lincoln instructor and dean, and a Little Theatre director.

Lincoln Players Gain National Acclaim In Presentation Of Dramatic Comedy

LINCOLN UNIV., Pa.—The Lincoln University Players recently won national acclaim and several touring invitations with its campus presentation of "John Loves Mary," a romantic comedy.

The Players, joined in the cast by Ruby Dee and directed by Abraham (Abe) Hill, turned in a magnificient performance for the three showings.

Because of the successful performances, Lincoln alumni and civic groups are negotiating for showings of "John Loves Mary," in Philadelphia, Wilmington, Washington, Baltimore, New York and Pittsburgh.

The projected tour will commence the second week in January.

In addition, President Horace Bond of Lincoln has announced that the new gym is being immediately converted into a Little Theatre and workshop for the Players.

The "Little Theatre Movement" gained considerable impetus by the pioneering work done some years ago by J. Newton Hill, chairman of the department of English at Lincoln and now also dean of the college.

Among his early students participating in this cultural aspect of university life was Mr. Hill, who after leaving Lincoln wrote and directed several plays including "Hell's Half Acre," "Strivers Row" and "Walk Hard" and directed on Broadway a Colored version of "John Loves Mary" and "Three Is a Family."

Founded Theatre Group

In June 1940, Hill founded the now famous American Colored Theatre and was the director from 1940 to 1948. This group became internationally famous for the high caliber actors and actresses that it helped to produce, such as Hilda Simms, Miss Dee, Alvin Childress, Fred O'Neal, and others.

In addition to being recruited by his Alma Mater to head their dramatics workshop, Hill is re writing a play, yet untitled, and readying it for early casting and a projected Broadway run.

It is rumored that the angels and producers are seeking Ethel Waters for the lead role in this drama.

The officers of the Lincoln Players are: president, Lloyd Biggs, Philadelphia; vice-president, Clinton Brinkley Jr., Richmond, Va., secretary; Austin T. Clark, Wilmington; treasurer, William Kate, Pittsburgh, and keeper of records, William Jason, Chicago.

NOW PLAYING THRU NEW YEAR'S EVE

the ORIGINAL "Harlem Globetrotters" PLUS "Magic Carpet"

BALTIMORE After Dark

By THELMA ESTEP

The funspots definitely have the go-ahead signal to remain open all night New Year's Eve. You pay your money and you take your choice.

Extra special entertainment, munificent funsters and fond Auld Lang Lynes will be the order of the evening. Better make those reservations early.

Christmas revelers were the gayest ever this year. It seems that Santa brought everyone just exactly what he or she ordered . . . How nice it would be if folks could always be so deliriously happy! The Harold Gaithers, she is the former Gladys Nicholson, are ecstatic over the promised visit from the stork, come spring.

Frolit at The Frolic

Otho Church, manager of CLUB FROLIC, along with Sparrow's Arrows will gladly make this your happiest New Year; as will Ollie Wise, official greeter at the COMEDY CLUB. Red Spencer and his Blue Flamers will assist him, of course . . . The Gay Cross group at GAMBY'S are excellent performers, but somehow regulars are always found "out front" with Margaret and Sonny.

The show at ADAM'S COCKTAIL LOUNGE brings nostalgic memories of those days before every one decided that musical bars were the THING. The grapevine whispereres are that Alma Jackson, formerly of GAMBY'S, may be found doing her stuff encores at the new P. M. COCKTAIL BAR . . . that the Bass Davis Trio, featuring Wilbur at the Ullips on the piano at the OLDE MILL is cause enough for cheering . . . and that the newly opened AL'S TAVERN on the upper stroll is especially special.

Familiar Faces Hereabout

Familiar faces seen during the holidays included Ruby Pinkston, of COMEDY CLUB fame; Askew Gatewood, of the CASINO, who didn't seem at all worried about his feud with Uncle Sam . . . Glasco McCann, former bar-man, who looks greater than great these days . . .

Holiday greetings from Grace (Pee Wee) Morgan, now of California, and Lillian (Pfede) Thornton, now of New York City, brought a lump to the throat and reminiscences of the good ol' days when the CLUB ASTORIA was in its heyday . . . Such memories aided in the decision to dedicate next week's column to those unsung heroines of night life, the barmaids and the waitresses.

Over at PHIL'S everyone is busy dispensing Christmas cheer and looking forward to the New Year . . . At CLUB 909 Eloise is that happy because her favorite drummer appears there nightly with Jerome Washington's Combo . . .

The CLUB ORLEANS, the PRESTON LOUNGE and BERNE'S are keeping open house for those friends who care to drop in.

The Old Year will soon go out with all its worries and cares. Let us all join together to make 1952 the New Year, truly a happy one.

Cab Chases Cab Thief; Suspect Hurt

WASHINGTON

Giving chase in another cab, John Mattison, 45, recovered his own taxi shortly after a holdup man took it from him early Tuesday morning.

Mr. Mattison, who lives at 1658 Gales St., NE, told police he surrendered his cab to a frontseat passenger who pressed a hard object against his side and ordered him to "get out and keep walking."

As the bandit drove off; Mr. Mattison hailed a passing taxi and asked the driver to fol-low. The chase led into Prince Georges County, where the fugitive crashed into a concrete abutment on the George Palmer highway.

Taken into custody by Freedmen's Hospital, the suspect was revived and later identified as James Mahoney, 29, of the 1000 block of 50th St., Fairmount Heights Md. He was transferred to Gallinger Hospital on Wednesday. Mr. Mattison's cab was slightly damaged.

Dr. Jaffee Guest At Y Foto Club

WASHINGTON

Dr. Sidney S. Jaffee, prominent D. C. dentist and photographic hobbyist, appeared as guest lecturer and print critic of the 12th St. YMCA Foto Craft Club, Thursday, Dec. 20.

A photographic salon exhibitor, Dr. Jaffee presented an interesting show of color slides and prints made in Mexico and judged the club's prints.

The Y Foto Club meets each Thursday at 8 p.m., and is opened for new members.

Alphonso Garnett One Of 30 Hampton Tutors

HAMPTON, Va.—Alphonso Garnett of Washington is serving on the Hampton Institute Men's Tutorial Staff for the 1951-52 school year.

Organized in 1947 by the dean of men and a group of male students who wished to help classmates in need of study assistance, the volunteer tutoring system has grown until now more than 30 men participate. Tutors must have a "B" average.

Garnett, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Garnett Sr., of 4221 Maree Place, is a junior majoring in printing in the Division of Technology.

Arnett Cobb Acclaimed Top Leader

NEW YORK—The story of Arnett Cobb has been told and retold time and again; still no one tires of it. Music lovers, everywhere, are conscious of the unique individual-styled rhythm that is "Mr. Saxology's" pace.

It is to these fans and millions of others in various sections of the U.S., that Cobb actually dedicated his tune, "Smooth Sailing."

A modest fellow, though a celebrity; he wouldn't call names of any particular person or persons; nor would he mention a benevolent act that stood out—but Cobb did say "Their kind deeds and thoughts inspired me during my long illness."

Recovered, giving the best of his many talents at all times, it was truly wonderful that in the closing months of 1951 both press and public acclaimed him America's outstanding bandleader.
