WILLARD ALLEN, Real Estate
1841 PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE MAdison 3144
PRESIDENT'S OFFICE

DR. WILLARD W. ALLEN

Yuletide Advice to Home Buyers!

In these three important services you seek the very best possible:
(1) The Best Doctor—when you are sick
(2) The Best Lawyer—when you need legal advice
(3) The Best Minister—when you need spiritual guidance

When buying a home, why make an exception? Seek the very best and most experienced real estate broker possible. In singling out this individual, check him on the following points:
(1) How long has he been in business?
(2) Is he a licensed real estate salesman?
(3) Is he a licensed real estate broker? If so, then the law requires that he must be bonded.
(4) Have you any doubt in your mind concerning his business? If so, call or write the Real Estate Commission—535 Mathieson Building, Baltimore, Maryland. They will tell you whether he is a licensed real estate broker.
(5) Have you any doubt in your mind concerning his ethics? If so, call or write the Real Estate Board of Baltimore, Inc.—7 St. Paul Street, Baltimore, Maryland. They will give you any information you desire concerning the person.

Having selected your home, consult your bank, building association, or insurance company. Tell them of your plans and let them advise you as to whether the home is worth the sales price. Try to pay enough down on the property to get a deed—this is much safer than a conditional contract.

I have been in business for thirty-five years. All of my employees who handle your money are bonded. I am willing to serve you at any time—in any capacity that I can. My advice and service are yours for the asking whether you purchase your home from me or from some other bonded real estate broker.

In Memoriam 1

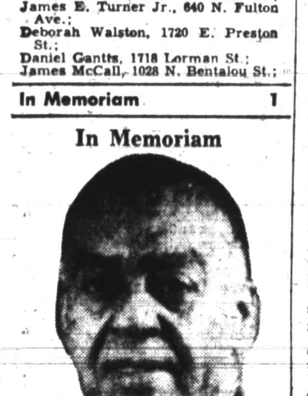
In Memoriam



WILLIAMS—In memory of REV. MATTHIAS WILLIAMS who passed away Dec. 23, 1949.
"You told me your years had left you
And you said your work was done,
And you were only waiting for your heavenly Father,
To take you to your eternal home.
But only God knows how much I miss you, dear."
Devoted Wife
BERTHA FOOTE WILLIAMS

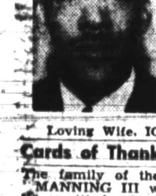
COLEMAN — In loving memory of my husband and father, WILLIAM M. who departed this life December 26, 1950.
Time may pass and bring its changes;
Fresh with every coming year.
But your memories will be cherished,
In the hearts that hold you dear.
Devoted,
WIFE and CHILDREN

CURTIS — In memory of ROWENA CURTIS, who passed December 28, 1936
I often sit and think of her
When I am all alone
For memory is the only friend
That grief can call its own.
A Friend,
MARY J. DUDLEY

GREEN — In memory of my beloved son, RICHARD L., who departed this life, December 26, 1948:
Gone is the face we loved so dear.
Silent is the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here,
And who, though absent, is just as dear.
MOTHER and FAMILY

MOORE — In loving memory of our dear father, GEORGE B., who departed this life December 24, 1943:
More and more each day we miss him
Friends may think the wound is healed
But they little know the sorrow
Lies within our hearts concealed.
DEVOTED FAMILY

Card of Thanks
The family of the late JOHN W.



ROBINSON—In loving memory of my dear husband, HUBERT W., who passed away Dec. 28, 1950:
You fought the pain so bravely.
Your head you did not bend:
I kept the watch with you, dear husband.
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain.
God grant some day we'll meet again.
Loving Wife, IOLA ROBINSON

REPAIR SERVICE

OVERHAULING your creditors is done the easy way when you advertise your repair services in AFRO want ads. A steady stream of new customers may even eliminate those creditors altogether.

PEST CONTROL

BILL COLLECTORS can make perfect pests of themselves. Flit won't stop them, but you can pick up some extra cash to head them off if you advertise your spare time hobby in the AFRO want ads and turn that hobby into spare money.
