MORGAN DRUBS LINCOLN; MD. STATE WINS

Bears Claw Lions In Home Opener

Score Second CIAA Win, 34-6, Before Small Baltimore Crowd

Morgan State College opened its CIAA home football season with a breezing, 34-6 triumph over Lincoln University in the 1952 renewal of their annual series at Hughes Stadium on Saturday.

A slim crowd of fewer than 500 persons, mostly students, were out on a gray day to see the Golden Bears chalk up their second victory in three starts, two of them conference assignments. Last week, Morgan whipped Delaware State after having lost the previous Saturday to Central State College, a non-conference rival.

In front after the first seven minutes of play, Eddie Hurt's charges had little difficulty with a Lion outfit that was baptizing a new coach and which was predominantly of freshman and sophomore vintage.

Building For Future

The Lincoln mentor, Bob Gardner, admittedly building for the future with ten first and second year men in his two starting lineups, nevertheless expected to give the locals a much stiffer battle than was the case.

The Lions showed admirable courage, outmanned as they were. They held the Bears to a lone touchdown in the first half although the latter threatened constantly throughout the early stages of the contest.

The first of these was a Morgan surge deep into Lincoln territory in the opening minutes of play.

Harrell Nearly Makes It

Fullback Lawrence Harrell, who was to bear the brunt of the Bears' short-drive attack all through the game, broke through from the Lion 41, after a pass play had penetrated to that point, and appeared touchdown bound with the game only four minutes old. A spectacular "save" by Henry Johnson, defensive halfback for the visitors brought Harrell down at the 29, with not another Lincoln uniform between him and the goal line.

This Morgan march was halted at the Lincoln ten as the latter held for downs.

With the huge clock on the new electric scoreboard showing that only 6:3 of game time had elapsed, however, the Bears were back knocking at TD door.

Poor Kick Fatal

It came about as the Pennsylvanians' sophomore punter, Joe Kenney, got off a poor kick in his anxiety to remove the danger. The ball spun off the side of his foot and went out of bounds on the Lincoln 13.

Two plays later, due to the tenacious charging of Howard Green —who was breaking through and tackling T-quarterback George Williams before he could start his formations — the Bears had been backed up to the 19.

Thus stalled, Williams took the snap from center, faded back along with halfback James Green, lateraled to Green at the 30, and he in turn passed to Leonard Randall, freshman end from Bates High, Annapolis, for the touchdown. Williams converted the extra point via placement and the Bruins were in front, 7-0.

Lincoln Bid Halted

The Lions made their most impressive bid of the first half midway of the second quarter, when aided by an unnecessary roughness penalty they moved to the Morgan 34.

With Jonas Cowles calling the strategy, the visitors pushed Bob Thompson through for two yards, then loosed a Cowles-to-Tom Miller pass that was good for a first down on the Morgan 21.

Local Lads Star

At this point, however, the Bears' Baltimore - born Matthew Marcus slammed through the Lion forward wall to smear the opposition for a 17-yard loss. And a moment later, Bob Colbert, another home-grown product (from Dunbar H.gh here), pounced on a Lincoln fumble to choke off the threat.

Thereafter, it was a see-saw battle between the superior Morgan club and the game visiting aggregation, the latter doing well to withstand the home assaults through the remainder of the period.

Second Half Different

The second half was a different story. The Bears began rolling shortly after the resumption of play and, except for Lincoln's lone scoring bid, Morgan experienced little difficulty holding the upper hand.

The Lion touchdown was the climax of a series of well-executed passes, with good running on the part of Cowles and Miller interspersed. The payoff was an 11-yard toss from Cowles to Ted Ellis, a sophomore end from Norristown.

Two touchdowns were acquired by the Bears in each of the final two periods. The first of these occurred shortly after the second half kickoff, when sophomore halfback Guy Smith spun into the clear and raced 45 yards without a hand being laid on him.

Williams Goes 49 Yards

Midway of the period, Williams, who exhibited unusual finesse in executing the keep-and-run play, knifed through tackle and danced his way 49 yards to pay dirt.

By this time the Lions were showing signs of panic, the usual reaction of inexperience, and the home forces were able to command the situation as they saw fit.

Mixing an assorted aerial and running attack, Hurt's charges gunned into the end zone, with freshman halfback Al Gaines carrying, at 9:06 of the final quarter. And they duplicated a few minutes later with Howard Hartsfield going over a one-yard plunge to end the scoring.

Halftime ceremonies were marked by the "freeing" of the Morgan plebes. In a newly-adopted ritual overseen by upperclassmen, the freshmen were permitted to throw away their green caps.

On next Saturday afternoon, the Golden Bears entertain the Howard University Bisons, of Washington, in their annual inter-city rivalry.

Bivins-Bascom Bout Broadcast

ST. LOUIS — The ten round heavyweight boxing contest between veteran Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland and Wes Bascom, up-and-coming St. Louis contender, will be broadcast over CBS Radio from the St. Louis Arena, Wednesday night.

During his long career as a boxer, extending over 12 years, Bivins has rolled up wins over such opponents as Joey Maxim, current world light - heavyweight champion, and Ezzard Charles, former heavyweight champion. In his most recent outing he knocked out the highly touted Coley Wallace in a big upset.

Jo Bascom he will be meeting an opponent who has scored 15 straight wins since entering the ring two years ago. Included in these were eight knockout triumphs.

Hawks Run Wild In 'Shore' Battle

Thrash Delaware, 60-0, With Wilson As Star

SALISBURY, Md. — A sparse gathering of Eastern Shore fans huddled in blankets under overcast skies and saw an outmanned and outweighted Delaware State football squad fight furiously but fruitlessly against Vernon (Skip) McCain's Maryland State Hawks Saturday afternoon, only to bow by a 60-0 margin.

Leon (Jabbo) Wilson, Hawk backfield ace, gave another of his star performances by registering two touchdowns. One came in the first period, a twelve-yard sprint on a pitchout, and the other was a 50-yard gallop late in the last quarter after receiving a Delaware Punt on his own ten-yard line.

The Coatesville Express, Georgie Bell, contributed to three TD's. He made for 35 yards was received by Bill Jordan and his 22-yard heave to Don Burns both came in the last frame.

A nerve-tingling sixty-five yard pitch to Henry Scott as he raced into the end zone was the highlight of the third stanza.

Conrad Riley Oliver Thompson and Robert Mault showed exceptional talent, but the Hornets were patently overmatched.

On The Mixed Grid Front

Perry Paces Win

ANN ARBOR, Mich. — A second - half drive keyed by their All - American end, Lowell Perry, gave the Michigan Wolverines a 28-13 win over Indiana before 58,200 fans here Saturday.

Perry caught four vital passes in the uphill attack which wiped out a 14-14 halftime deadlock, two of them for touchdowns.

One was a 32-yard heave from Ted Kress, and the second was for seven yards, also from Kress. Two more tosses to Perry netted 17 and 14 yards.

Bell, Evans Help

PRINCETON, N.J. — Although Ed Bell had no part in the actual scoring, the brilliant Pennsylvania wingman was a constant source of worry to Princeton as the Quakers snapped a 24-game win streak of the Tigers here Saturday.

A crowd of 49,300 partisans moaned throughout the afternoon as Bell and his Penn teammates, including tackle Bob Evans, outplayed the homelings by 13-7.

Arnelle Stars

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. — Jesse Arnelle, playing decoy roles and serving as middle man in the Penn State aerial attack, helped the Nittany Lions down West Virginia, 35-21, here Saturday.

Arnelle was on the receiving end of two short passes — 12 yards and 10 yards — at the height of a 48 - yard touchdown drive that put the winners in front for good in the third period.

Albany Withstands Miles College Rally

ALBANY, Ga. — The Albany State College Rams spoiled the opening game ceremonies of Miles College in Birmingham, Alabama, Saturday night, to the tune of 16-12.

It was simply a case of the Rams striking hard and fast in the second quarter for two touchdowns and adding a fourth quarter field goal and holding on for dear life.

Tunnell Tough

CLEVELAND — With Emlen Tunnell performing brilliantly in Steve Owen's stellar defensive pattern, the New York Giants racked up their third straight National Professional Football League contest here Sunday at the expense of the tough Cleveland Browns. The score was 17-9.

The Brownies, long regarded pro football's most formidable all-round aggregation, could not get going against the rugged defense of the New Yorkers and as a result the ground attack of the homesiders was bogged down to a minimum of effectiveness.

An example of the fine play of the Giants can be gleaned from the fact that Sherm Howard, the former New York Yanker, was the top ground gainer for the Browns — with seven yards in five rushes.

Buddy, Tally Score

CHICAGO — Touchdowns by Buddy Young and George Taliaferro, their ace twins, were of little avail to the Dallas Texans as the Big State pros dropped their third game in a row here Sunday, bowing to the Chicago Bears, 38-30.

In addition to his own touchdown spurt, Taliaferro contributed largely to the losers' attack with some clever passing.

Eddie Macon, ex - College of Pacific star, played with the victorious Bruins.

Towler Tops

MILWAUKEE, Wisc. — Two touchdowns by Dan Towler, the second being the margin of victory, featured the Los Angeles Rams' 30-28 triumph over the Green Bay Packers here Sunday in a National Football League contest.

Towler burst over for six-pointers at the opening of the final quarter, then added his second and deciding tally as the game neared its conclusion. His work highlighted a 24 - point final period which enabled the visitors to overcome an early 28-6 advantage of the Packers.

Ollie On Ball

WASHINGTON — Ollie Matson intercepted two alien passes to help the Chicago Cardinals stall the Washington Redskins in a National Football League game here Sunday and win, 17-6.

The Card victory evened the score for the 27-23 loss sustained at the hands of the Skins earlier in the campaign.

Perry Pleases

DETROIT — Joe Perry, hampered somewhat by injuries, nevertheless played a key offensive role as the San Francisco 49ers whipped the Detroit Lions, 28-0, here Sunday to remain undefeated in the National Football League campaign.

Perry reeled off runs of 11, 19 and 35 yards, although held at bay insofar as scoring was concerned.
